(Final Exam Date: designated time and location by the university during the official final exam period.)

Important Notes:

- All the announcements about the course and class information, class materials and assignments will be posted on the Blackboard. Please make sure to check the Blackboard regularly.
- Make-up quizzes or exams should be taken no later than two weeks of the designated day and only 50% of the credit will be accepted.

• Quizzes (퀴즈) will be given in Wednesday classes. Each quiz will mainly test the vocabulary and/or grammar covered in the previous week classes.

• A Written Midterm Exam will be given in the 8th week and will cover 10 % of the final grade.

• Final Exams will be given at the designated time and location by the university during the official final exam period. They will compose of two parts; a Listening Test and a Final Written Test. The Listening Test and the Final Written Exam will respectively cover 10% and 20% of the final grade.

• Homework will be given six times mostly on a biweekly basis. Content of each homework is the exercise and a writing composition on a topic related with each chapter. The details of the Homework content will be described in the Course Schedule Table on the next page(s) of this syllabus. Each homework is due on every other Monday also described in the table. A reminder will be posted on the Blackboard and emailed by the previous Thursday. Handwrite or type your homework in separate paper(s) and submit it to me by the due date. Don't submit your Textbook. If you cannot come to the Monday class, you can either submit it via e-mail to me or leave it in the drop box on the door of my office. Homework will be checked and returned to you on the next Friday class. It will be graded on the completion base. Late homework will be accepted by two weeks later than the due date and will get only 50% of its full credit.

• Attendance is important since this is a language course. First three absences will be excused and each absence thereafter will subtract 0.5 point. Absence due to medical emergency can be excused with an official proof such as doctor's notice, etc.

• Class Participation reflects how well you are prepared for the class and how cooperative you are in class activities.

* Scholastic Dishonesty: Any act that breaches standards of academic integrity is considered as 'scholastic dishonesty' and will be punished according to the University policies. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but not limited to, cheating, unauthorized collaboration, and copying of others' works.

 Any student with a documented disability (physical or cognitive) who requires academic accommodations should contact the Services for Students with Disabilities at 471-6259 (voice) or 1-866-329-3986 (Video Phone) as soon as possible to request an official letter outlining authorized accommodations.
