Written Final Exam Date: the university scheduled exam timeImportant Notes:

- All the announcements about the course and class information, class materials and assignments will be posted on the Blackboard. Please make sure to check the Blackboard regularly.
- Makeup quizzes or exams should be taken no later than two weeks of the designated day and only 50% of the credit will be accepted.
- Dictation exams (받아쓰기) will be given in Wednesday classes by TA. Each covers the main text contents lectured in the previous classes.
- Quizzes will be given in Friday classes. Each quiz will mainly test the basic vocabulary of the text covered in the previous classes.

- Midterm Exams will be taken in the 8th week; Oral midterm exam will be an oral presentation of self introduction, covering 10 % of the final grade, and written midterm exam will cover 10 % of the final grade.

- Final Exams will compose of an Oral Final Presentation and a Written Final Exam. The Oral Final is a skit presentation which will be given in the last week and cover 10% of the final grade. The Written Final Exam will be given at the university scheduled exam time and location, covering 15% of the final grade.

- Homework will be given ten times mostly weekly base. Each homework will be posted by Wednesday night on the Blackboard and it is due on the next Monday. If you cannot come to Monday class, you can either submit it via e-mail to the TA or leave it in TA's office. Homework will be checked and returned to you on the next Thursday class. It will be graded on the completion base. Late homework will be accepted by two weeks later than the due date and will get only 50% of its full credit. If anybody has any technical problems to download and print out homework from the Blackboard, ask for a hard copy to the instructor or the TA.

- Attendance: Since this is a language course, regular attendance is important. First three absences will be excused and each absence thereafter will subtract 1 point from each Lecture session (Tuesdays & Thursdays) absence and 0.5 from each TA session & Friday absence. Absence due to medical emergency can be excused with an official proof such as doctor's notice, etc.

- Class Participation reflects how well you are prepared for the class and how cooperative you are in class activities.

- TA's Sessions: The TA, Min Jung Jee, will be teaching on Mondays and Wednesdays. She will focus on practices and other important usages with exercise sections of the textbook.

* Scholastic Dishonesty: Any act that breaches standards of academic integrity is considered as 'scholastic dishonesty' and will be punished according to the University policies. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but not limited to, cheating, unauthorized collaboration, and copying of others' works.

* Any student with a documented disability (physical or cognitive) who requires academic accommodations should contact the Services for Students with Disabilities at 471-6259 (voice) or 1-866-329-3986 (Video Phone) as soon as possible to request an official letter outlining authorized accommodations.
