Research Emphases

- (i) Current primary emphasis: Psycholinguistic research (speech perception) on the subjective grouping of rhythmically organized speech sequences. This research tests theoretical proposals concerning the factors that have shaped prosodic systems, in particular, the typology of stress categories.
- (ii) Theoretical phonology (especially prosodic phonology, in particular, typology of stress systems; Optimality Theory);

Awards and grants

"Beyond the lambic/ Trochaic Law: Perceptual influences on the subjective grouping of rhythmic speech." National Science Foundation award #1147959 to the University of Texas at Austin under the supervision of Megan Crowhurst. 1 March 2012-2014 ($197,000).

Dean's Fellowship (semester leave), Fall 2011.

UT-Austin, Special Research Grant, Fall 2010 ($750).

College of Liberal Arts research grant, Spring 2010 ($3,000).

College of Liberal Arts research grant, around 2002 ($2,000).

Dean's Fellowship (semester leave), Fall 2001.

11/2000, Research Grant, Office of the Vice President for Research, UT ($6,000).

12/1999, Summer Research Assignment award (Faculty Development Program, UT-Austin.

1997 – 2001, National Science Foundation award #9603215 to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, under the supervision of Megan Crowhurst to support linguistic field research in Bolivia ($142,709).

Synergistic activities

- From January 2013, Associate Editor, Language.
- From 2012, Consulting Associate Editor for Phonological Analysis (a new start-up journal whose initial issue is planned to appear in 2013).
- Tenure and promotion (Assistant to Associate Professor, University of Oklahoma, 2010).
- Tenure and promotion (Associate to Full Professor; California State University, San Francisco campus, 2008).
- Tenure and promotion (Assistant to Associate Professor, Simon Fraser University, British Columbia, Canada, 2008).
- Academic Program Review committee, Department of Linguistics, the University of Arizona, 2001 (with Joseph Aoun and Keren Rice).
- Ad hoc reviewing for granting agencies: the National Science Foundation (from 1995), the Endangered Languages Fund, 2012-2013.
- Ad hoc reviewing for journals: Cognition, Journal of Linguistics, Language, Linguistic Inquiry, Natural Language and Linguistic Theory, Phonology, International Journal of American Linguistics.
- Conference abstract reviewing: the Linguistic Society of America, the Society for the Study of Indigenous Languages of the Americas, University of Texas Conference on Indigenous Languages of Latin America, the West Coast Conference on Formal Linguistics.

Students (since 1999, at UT)

Supervisor, PhDs

Alena Horn (Spring 2011).

Antonio Grau i Sempere (Romance phonology, 2006). Now Asst. Prof., University of Evansville, Indiana.

Supervisor, MAs

Amador Teodocio (phonology/documentary, 2009)

Coral Waters (phonology, 2006).

Eun-Sul Lee (co-chair; phonetics, 2002)

Undergraduate honours theses.

Megan Gibler (phonology, Spring 2011)

Emily Buell (phonology, Spring 2009)

Margot Hart (phonology, Spring 2004)

Collaborations

Susan Smythe Kung (stress in Huehuetla Tepehua)

Monica Macaulay (accent in Karuk)

Lev Michael (Nanti stress; appeared as Crowhurst & Michael 2005)

Sadaf Munshi (stress and syncope in Srinagar Kashmiri)

Amador Teodocio Olivares (Betaza Zapotec)

Sara Trechter (metathesis in Guarayu)

Other service

I. University level (UT)

Program Committee, Conference of the UT Center for Indigenous Languages of the Americas, 2011.

Graduate Advisor, Department of Linguistics, August 2006 – 2011.

Continuing University Fellowships committee, Spring 2011.

Graduate Assembly; Committee on Admissions and enrollment, 2010-2012 and 2012-2015.

Office of the Vice President for Research, Hamilton Award Committee, 2007 – 2008.
