Through lecture and discussion this course will provide an in-depth exploration of the key events and developments of Southeastern Europe, the region commonly referred to as the Balkans, in the twentieth century. After providing some of the basics on geography and pre-20th century developments, we will move on to a detailed investigation of this tumultuous century in a region that was wracked by war, revolution, ethnic conflict, the Holocaust, and 45 years of Communist regimes and Cold War tensions. We will cover the territories of Romania, Albania, Bulgaria, the former Yugoslavia, and to a lesser extent Greece and Turkey. Key themes will be ethnic identity, nationalism, authoritarianism, resistance, gender and violence. The final chapter of the course will look at the fall of communism in the region and the outbreak of war in the former Yugoslavia.

Required Texts:

Mark Mazower, The Balkans: A Short History.
John Lampe, Balkans into Southeastern Europe.
Katherine Verdery, What was Socialism and what comes Next
Slavenka Drakulic, How We Survived Communism and Even Laughed.
Zlatko Anguelov, Communism and the Remorse of an Innocent Victimizer.
Emir Sujagic, Postcards from the Grave.
Ismail Kadare, The Successor.

Grading
Grading will be based on a take-home mid-term (30%); an end of quarter in-class exam (30%); a primary document assignment (20%); a map quiz (5%); 5 short quizzes on assigned readings (2% each – 10%); and participation (5%) – based on attendance.

A student who misses classes or other required activities, including examinations, for the observance of a religious holy day should inform the instructor as far in advance of the absence as possible, so that arrangements can be made to complete an assignment within a reasonable time after the absence.
No incompletes will be assigned unless there is a personal or family emergency!!
