Course Description
This course takes an in-depth look at the Catholic Church, not as a religious institution, but as a political one. Over the course of the semester, we'll read parts of the Bible, Enlightenment readings, founding documents, and literature from the Second Vatican Council.

This course has a supplemental discussion session offered at two different times between the Monday and Wednesday lectures (TBA). These discussion sessions will provide an opportunity to reinforce and clarify course material, to integrate learning skills with lecture and assigned readings content, and to practice higher-level synthesis and analysis.

Special Needs
The University of Texas at Austin provides upon request appropriate academic accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. To determine if you qualify, please contact the Dean of Students at 471-6259; 471-4641 TTY. If they certify your needs, I will work with you to make appropriate arrangements.

Course Format
Although this class will have a lecture format, it will revert to seminar more than you would probably think possible. As such, students are expected to come to class ready to actively contribute to classroom discussions.

Grades
Grades will be determined according to the following formula:

• 20% Class Participation. Throughout the class, I reserve the right to take attendance, to give pop quizzes, and to assign homework projects.
• 20% Midterm Exam I (February 10)
• 20% Midterm Exam II (March 7)
• 20% Midterm Exam III (April 27)
• 20% Class Project

I will not give a Q-drop to a student unless he or she is passing the course. I frown on issues of academic dishonesty and will severely punish any student caught plagiarizing, cheating, or engaged in unethical classroom practices. I will not accept late assignments. I will not accept excuses for missing pop quizzes. I do not offer make-up exams. All grade disputes must be type written and turned in within 1 week of receiving the grade. I will use plusses and minuses in this class, with the 0.7 and 0.3 at cutoffs. So, an 82.9 is a B- and an 83.1 is B; an 86.9 is a B and an 87.1 is a B+.

Course Readings
The course readings consist of the following:

  • A course packet available at Speedway Copy and Printing (in Dobie Mall). All readings in the Course Packet are designated as a hollow circle.
  ❖ From time to time, I will post readings on Blackboard. Those will be designated with this symbol.
