THE PREMODERN WORLD
HIS 301F (#39095 )/ AHC 310 (# 32885)

MWF 11-12

UTC 3.12

Description:

This lower-division, lecture course provides an overview of global development from roughly 30,000 BCE to 1500 CE. It introduces students to the main political, social, and cultural trends in a variety of societies while at the same time stressing the global perspective. Considerable emphasis is paid to comparative history and the study of cross-cultural encounters. "The Premodern World" aims to teach historical thinking as well as historical content, impart a basic grasp of the premodern past, and stimulate the development of large-scale frameworks for historical analysis. Although this course has no prerequisites and assumes no prior knowledge of the subject, students are presumed to be capable of critical reflection upon both lectures and readings.

This course carries a Global Cultures flag.

Teaching Staff:

Prof. Cynthia Talbot
talbot@austin.utexas.edu

TA Hadi Hosainy

Assigned Readings:

3) Sima Qian, The First Emperor, Oxford University Press.
4) selections from Ross Dunn, The Adventures of Ibn Battuta, Univ. of California Press.
5) Ashoka's Rock Edict XIII.
6) Wikipedia entries on Pillars of Ashoka, Trajan's Column, and Bayeux Tapestry.

Note: The first three items can be purchased from the University Coop or borrowed from Perry-Castañeda Library Course Reserves. The remaining items are provided on the course Blackboard site or can be found online. The contents of A History of the World in 100 Objects are also available as podcasts at <http://www.bbc.co.uk/podcasts/series/ahow/all>, with accompanying images at <http://www.bbc.co.uk/ahistoryoftheworld/about/british-museum-objects/>.

Requirements: Students are expected:
*to attend all lectures
*to prepare all reading assignments thoughtfully by beginning of the week *to complete at least four of the six worksheets and submit them in class *to participate regularly and responsibly in worksheet-based discussions *to complete at least four of the six quizzes *to complete the two exams (midterm and final)

Grading procedure. The two exams will consist of both short answer and essay questions, and will together comprise 55% of the course grade. Six short, factual, multiple-choice quizzes based on the assigned readings from the Strayer textbook will be administered—four of these will count toward the course grade. A series of six worksheets will accompany our non-Strayer readings; four will count towards the course grade. The various aspects of student performance are weighted as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Component</th>
<th>Weightage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>midterm (Oct. 19)</td>
<td>25%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>final exam (Dec. 12)</td>
<td>30%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4 quizzes</td>
<td>20% (cannot be made up)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4 worksheets</td>
<td>20% (must be turned in during class)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>attendance &amp; participation</td>
<td>5%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

We will NOT be using pluses and minuses for the course grade this semester.

Attendance policy.
Quizzes and worksheets cannot be made up, NO EXCEPTIONS. Hard copies of worksheets must be submitted personally at the beginning of class—emailed or late worksheets will not be accepted. Make-up exams will be administered only with the consent of the professor and at her convenience.

Religious holy days sometimes conflict with class and examination schedules. It is the policy of UT-Austin that you must notify each of your instructors at least fourteen days prior to the classes scheduled on dates you will be absent to observe a religious holy day.

Policy on special accommodations. At the beginning of the semester, students who need special accommodations should notify the instructor by presenting a letter prepared by the Services for Students with Disabilities (SDD) Office. To ensure that the most appropriate accommodations can be provided, students should contact the SSD Office at 471-6259 or 471-4641 TTY.

Academic integrity. Students who violate University rules on scholastic dishonesty are subject to disciplinary penalties, including the possibility of failure in the course and/or dismissal from the University. Since such dishonesty harms the individual, all students, and the integrity of the University, policies on scholastic dishonesty will be strictly enforced.

All students have the right to learn in a supportive environment: don’t let your use of a laptop or mobile device distract others. All laptops and mobile messaging devices must be turned off and stored away during quizzes and examinations. Their use, WITHOUT ANY SOUND, is acceptable during lectures or class discussions for note-taking or instructor-directed web-surfing.

To record audio or visuals of lectures you must have a written consent from the lecturer.

Keep in touch! If you are having difficulty with the course or must be absent for a period due to personal issues, stop by during office hours or be in touch by email. Don’t wait until weeks have passed and it’s too late to catch up.
