Requirements

1. Attendance.
2. Presentation with a colleague on one author and his play.
3. Two short essays, midterm exam, and one longer final essay.
4. Participation in performance with your troupe and discussion leading with a colleague.

Policy Statement

1. Attendance is required. It is your responsibility to sign the attendance sheets which I will make available every day. Three unexcused absences are allowed. A fourth absence will result in a one-grade reduction for the course. A fifth absence will cost you another grade. If you miss more than five classes, you cannot pass the course. No absences are considered excused except in the case of extreme medical and personal emergencies, which will require documentation.

2. Please arrive promptly at 3:30 p.m. Habitual latecomers will be penalized on their “class participation.”

3. Unannounced quizzes may be given at the beginning of class periods. There will be no make-ups and no extensions during class time for latecomers. A missed quiz counts as a zero.

4. The midterm examination must be taken at the time specified in the syllabus. Make-ups will only be given in the case of dire, documented circumstances. Unexcused missed exams count as zero.

5. Grading. Here is the approximate weighting of the major assignments: first essay, 10%; second, 15%; midterm, 20%; performance, presentation, and discussion leading, 25%; final essay, 30%. Improvement throughout the semester will be considered favorably in your evaluation.

6. No incompletes will be given except for dire, documented emergencies.
