Important Class information:

• Reading assignments have to be completed before class.
• Exams will include a mixture of short answers, true-false, identifications and mini-essays. Fact sheets provided before the exam will include possible topics for the mini-essays.
• There are no make-up tests, except when the absence is unavoidable in which case the student is expected to contact me, and I will require proof of the problem.
• Assignments will be due the following week at the beginning of class. Assignments delivered late will suffer an automatic penalty of 50% of the lab grade. Students must type their lab assignments. Assignments sent by email will not be accepted, unless the student has obtained prior consent.
• Exam or final grades will be provided only in person; no grades will be provided by email.
• Your cell phones and other electronic devices must be turned off while in the classroom. In class, your computer must be used for class purposes only.
• According to University Rules tape-recording of lectures is not permitted, unless the instructor has granted permission.

Required University Notices and Policies

Use of E-Mail for Official Correspondence to Students

• E-mail is recognized as an official mode of university correspondence; therefore, you are responsible for reading your e-mail for university and course-related information and announcements. You are responsible to keep the university informed about changes to your e-mail address. You should check your e-mail regularly and frequently—I recommend daily, but at minimum twice a week—to stay current with university-related communications, some of which may be time-critical. You can find UT Austin’s policies and instructions for updating your e-mail address at http://www.utexas.edu/its/help/utmail/1564.
• You can contact me by email, by coming to the office hours, or by appointment. Email messages received after 10:00 pm will not be answered until the following day. When contacting your instructor by email you are expected to address them by title or name and include your name at the end of the message.

Use of Canvas

• Class Readings will be available on Canvas and Power Point presentations will be uploaded to Canvas after the class.

Emergency Evacuation Policy

• Occupants of buildings on the UT Austin campus are required to evacuate and assemble outside when a fire alarm is activated or an announcement is made. Please be aware of the following policies regarding evacuation: Familiarize yourself with all exit doors of the classroom and the building. Remember that the nearest exit door may not be the one you used when you entered the building.
• If you require assistance to evacuate, inform me in writing during the first week of class. In the event of an evacuation, follow my instructions or those of class instructors. Do not re-enter a building unless the Austin Fire Department, the UT Austin Police Department, or the Fire Prevention Services office gives you instructions.

Notice regarding academic dishonesty:

• University of Texas Honor Code: The core values of The University of Texas at Austin are learning, discovery, freedom, leadership, individual opportunity, and responsibility. Each member of the university is expected to uphold these values through integrity, honesty, trust, fairness, and respect toward peers and community. Web site for more information:

Religious Holy Days

- By UT Austin policy, you must notify me of your pending absence at least fourteen days prior to the date of observance of a religious holy day. If you must miss a class, an examination, a work assignment, or a project in order to observe a religious holy day, I will give you an opportunity to complete the missed work within a reasonable time after the absence.

Behavior Concerns Advice Line (BCAL)

- If you are worried about someone who is acting differently, you may use the Behavior Concerns Advice Line to discuss by phone your concerns about another individual’s behavior. This service is provided through a partnership among the Office of the Dean of Students, the Counseling and Mental Health Center (CMHC), the Employee Assistance Program (EAP), and The University of Texas Police Department (UTPD). Call 512-232-5050 or visit http://www.utexas.edu/safety/bcal

Students with Disabilities

- The University of Texas at Austin provides students with qualified disabilities with academic adjustments to their needs. For more information please visit this site: http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/ssd/ or call 471-6259. If you have a disability please let me know by the beginning of the second week of class.
