Statement on Global Cultures Flag: This course carries the Global Cultures flag. Global Cultures courses are designed to increase your familiarity with cultural groups outside the United States. You should therefore expect a substantial portion of your grade to come from assignments covering the practices, beliefs, and histories of at least one non-U.S. cultural group, past or present.

Course Description:
This course will provide an introduction to major concepts and ideas from Chinese cultural traditions to construct a course inquiry into understanding Chinese culture and society. A guiding principle in this course inquiry will be to investigate the past to help inform the present. Lectures and discussion will examine key concepts from art, history, language, literature, and thought that greatly shaped, and continue to influence, “Chinese” cultural and geopolitical entities.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS

- This course will be graded on the Plus/Minus system.
- There is no written final exam for this course.
- Late assignments will not be accepted for credit. There is no make-up of assignments and presentations.
• Laptop and Other Electronic Devices Use Policy – All devices must be turned off during class. Any use of these devices, including texting, websurfing, etc. will lead to dismissal from class (and marked as an absence for that day). Repeat offenders will result in a filing of a report of academic problems.

• Laptops may be used for Oral Presentations only.

• Academic honesty is imperative. Acts of academic dishonesty will result in a failing grade.

• There is a class attendance policy for this course.
  Attendance is vital for success in this course, in assimilating assigned readings and lectures, and I value your contribution to class discussion especially in assigned Roundtable discussions. As well, lectures will be vital to flesh out ideas and concepts from readings and for discussion, all of which cannot be replaced by reading lecture outlines online.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

• Attendance is graded, calculated in the final class discussion/participation grade (worth 10% of final course grade)
  Please provide written documentation for excused absences.

• More than 10 unexcused absences will result in a failing final course grade.

• Extenuating circumstances will be taken into consideration. It is the student’s responsibility to discuss attendance issues with the instructor.

Religious Holidays – Religious holy days sometimes conflict with class and examination schedules. If you miss an examination, work assignment, or other project due to the observance of a religious holy day you will be given an opportunity to complete the work missed within a reasonable time after the absence. It is the policy of The University of Texas at Austin that you must notify each of your instructors at least fourteen days prior to the classes scheduled on dates you will be absent to observe a religious holy day.

Final Course Grade will be based on the following (see Canvas course site):

I. 10% Attendance, Class and online discussion, participation and “preparedness” (informal writing, unannounced reading quizzes)

II. 50% TWO Written Exams (Responses to Discussion and Reading Questions, based on Lectures, Readings, Class Discussion, and Roundtable Presentations)

III. 25% ONE Roundtable Discussion and Video Commentary (Designated Topics) – Canvas signup available after 12th class day (9/15)

IV. 15% Final Video Essay with written “talking points”*
  *in class option for oral presentation of essay

Use of Canvas
This course uses Canvas, a Web-based course management system in which a password-protected site is created for each course. Canvas can be used to distribute course materials, to communicate and collaborate online, to post grades, to submit assignments, and to take online quizzes and surveys.

You will be responsible for checking the Canvas course site regularly for class work and announcements. As with all computer systems, there are occasional scheduled downtimes as well as unanticipated disruptions. Notifications of these disruptions will be posted on the Canvas login page. Scheduled downtimes are not an excuse for late work. However, if there is an unscheduled downtime for a significant period of time, I will make an adjustment if it occurs close to the due date.

Canvas is available at http://canvas.utexas.edu. Support is provided by the ITS Help Desk at 475-9400 Monday through Friday 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., so plan accordingly.
