The University of Texas at Austin and the Department of Germanic Studies are honored to host the Fourth Biennial German Studies Workshop. The theme of this year’s workshop RESET/REBOOT/RECOUP: The New College Language and Cultural Studies will provide a forum where a dozen leaders in the humanities discuss and critique recent trends in collegiate foreign language/culture education for an era where administrations expect undergraduate education to accomplish more with less.

MARCH 3, 2012 | 9AM-6PM | RM. 301
AT&T Executive Education Conference Center
University of Texas at Austin

Featured Speakers from the University of Texas at Austin:

Janet Swaffar
Professor Emerita of German, UT-Austin
(Opening Address -- Delivered at a private event on the night before the symposium)

Katherine Arens
Professor of German, UT-Austin
(Closing address)

Heather Willis Allen
Assistant Professor of French, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Elizabeth Bernhardt
John Roberts Hale Director of the Language Center and Professor of German Studies, Stanford University

Heidi Byrnes
George M. Roth Distinguished Professor of German, Georgetown University

Cori Crane
Assistant Professor of German, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign

Glenn Levine
Associate Professor of German, University of California, Irvine

Hiram Maxim
Associate Professor of German, Emory University

Charlotte Melin
Associate Professor of German, University of Minnesota, Twin Cities

Jon Reinhardt
Assistant Professor of English, University of Arizona

Kenric Tsethlikai
Managing Director, Lauder Institute, University of Pennsylvania

Chantelle Warner
Assistant Professor of German Studies and Second Language Acquisition and Teaching, University of Arizona

Johanna Watzinger-Tharp
Associate Professor of German and Associate Dean for International and Interdisciplinary Programs, University of Utah

http://laitx.utexas.edu/rrr
The workshop will be free and open to the public.
Please direct enquiries to Per Urlaub urlaub@mail.utexas.edu