Plan II Honors is MOVING!!

Plan II Honors is moving! On December 13, Plan II Honors headquarters will move to the second floor of the new Liberal Arts building (CLA). That building, which should have a "real" name very soon, is on the east side of the Student Activities Center (SAC), just across Waller Creek from the Texas Exes building. CLA and the SAC are, in fact, connected by a skyway on the fourth floor. (see construction map: http://www.utexas.edu/operations/construction/maps/q4.html). The Plan II Honors office will be on the northwest corner of the second floor. Our new space is BEAUTIFUL, with a larger common area and a spiffy new student computer lab. This new space is your new home. We want all Plan II students to always remember that wherever Plan II lives, you are the heart of the program. We look forward to kicking off the spring semester in our new home. The new CLA building itself should be a hub for all Liberal Arts students, with lots of student lounge and study space.

Thesis students, remember it's really critical to turn in your thesis on time, on December 12 this year. You do not want to turn in your thesis once the boxes start moving. Protect your thesis—be on time!

The Broccoli Project: Dogg's Hamlet, Cahoot's MacBeth

November 17 at 7 p.m.
Black Box Theater (SAC 2.304)

The Broccoli Project Presents: Dogg's Hamlet, Cahoot's Macbeth by Tom Stoppard
Directed by Alexander Fischer with Assistant Director Niru Anya

Dogg's Hamlet, Cahoot's Macbeth consists of two short plays. Dogg's Hamlet enters the world of schoolboys Abel, Baker, and Charlie, who are preparing a 15-minute version of Hamlet in its original language, English. It's a foreign language to the boys, who natively speak a language called Dogg, whose words also have meanings in English but whose Dogg meanings are entirely different (often to hilarious effect—words that are insults in English are frequently compliments in Dogg, and vice versa). The first half concludes with the boys' 15-minute Hamlet and a special encore.

Cahoot's Macbeth is an homage to Pavel Kohout, whose theatre troupe performed in secret after the Czechoslovakian 'normalization' of the late 1970's criminalized many kinds of public performance. Kohout's Living-Room Theatre (LRT) troupe convened as a performance outlet for forbidden actors and actresses like the famous Pavel Landovsky and Vlasta Chramostova, who starred as Macbeth and Lady Macbeth in private flats and basements, away from the government's invasive eyes and ears. The troupe in Cahoot's Macbeth (which isn't exactly Kohout's LRT) performs a truncated Macbeth and deals with the impediments of an intrusive government inspector and the increasingly contagious and confusing language, Dogg.

Easy, an oft-abused and always confused deliveryman, links the two plays which, as Stoppard explains, "have common elements: the first is hardly a play without the second, which cannot be performed without the first."

UT SAC Black Box Theater November 17 at 7:00 PM
Tickets $5 for UT students/faculty, $10 for general admission. Purchase at the door or reserve for will-call by emailing your name, phone number, number of tickets desired, and performance date to brocprojreservations@gmail.com.

Plan II Literary Journal Holds First Meeting
Monday, November 19 at 8 p.m.
CRD 007B

Because there are so many talented and passionate writers in the Plan II Program, the Plan II Literary Journal will seek to provide a venue to encourage and promote their writing. The Literary Journal will hold an initial meeting to discuss leadership positions, board positions and submission requirements on Monday, November 19th at 8:00 pm in the Joynes Reading Room (007B). For more information contact Kelsey McKinney by email at mckinney.kelsey@gmail.com or by phone at (972) 743-9390 or contact Sam Liebl at sam.liebl@gmail.com or 281-795-2143.

Reminder for December graduates

Graduating in December?

The University Co-op reminds students who are graduating this December to order commencement regalia and other items needed as soon as possible. The Bachelor’s Regalia Deadline is Friday November 30th, 2012. The deadline is the last day that items are guaranteed in stock. Regalia may still be available for purchase after these dates, and the Co-op will do its best to accommodate all last minute orders.

Students can visit the Main or East Co-op locations. Orders may also be placed online www.Universitycoop.com

There is no Plan II ceremony for December graduates. Information on the College of Liberal Arts Commencement ceremony is at http://www.utexas.edu/cola/student-affairs/Academic-Planning/Graduation/Commencement.php

Plan II Admissions Assistant Position open for Spring 2013

Plan II Honors director of admissions seeks a Plan II student to assist with admissions activities, 9-10 hours per week. The admissions assistant must be available on Monday and Friday mornings from 9:00am—12:00 noon and other hours as arranged. A sophomore or junior, who can continue in the same position next year and who is willing to schedule classes around the information session schedule and the needs of the director of admissions will have priority. The position will commence in January, but training will take place in November and December if schedules permit. Training hours will be paid work time. Knowledge of databases a plus, especially FileMaker. Must be organized, detail oriented and comfortable presenting information to small groups including parents. Duties will vary and include both data entry work, filing, emailing and coordinating ambassadors. On a few occasions a semester, the admissions assistant will conduct a two-hour information session for prospective applicants and their parents.

To apply, email a letter of interest, a resume, and your spring class schedule to Jennifer Scalora: scalora@austin.utexas.edu, same email address for questions.

ACADEMIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

Due: Friday, November 16

Are you interested in making a positive impact on first-year students? Do you want to help others avoid some of the mistakes you made during your first semester? Are you excited about guiding students through the challenges and adventures of college life? If the answer is YES to all of the above, you should apply to be a FIG Mentor for Fall 2013!

The FIG Peer Mentor position offers exceptional students the opportunity to be both leaders on campus and mentors to new students participating in the FIG Program. Mentors share their knowledge about the many opportunities at UT Austin and serve as guides to campus and academic resources. Mentors assist in co-facilitating a one hour seminar once a week for the fall semester and are responsible for organizing educational and social activities to help students become better acquainted with each other, faculty members and the University.

Applications are now being accepted! The deadline to apply is Friday November 16. http://www.utexas.edu/ugs/fig/mentors/applying
Please direct any questions about the position or application to: fig@austin.utexas.edu

The Texas Exes James W Vick Awards for Academic Advising
Friday, November 16

Nominations are now being accepted for the 2012-2013 Texas Exes James W. Vick Awards for Academic Advising. These $500 awards are provided annually for five undergraduate academic advisors from across the campus to promote quality advising at The University of Texas by publicly recognizing advisors who have had an effective, positive influence on the educational experience of university students. Recipients are selected by students and coordinated through the Texas Exes. For more information, visit: https://texasexes.org/form/vick.asp

The persons selected should demonstrate enthusiasm and knowledge in applying university degree requirements and policies in order to effectively match undergraduate students' interests and abilities to a balanced schedule. The nominees should maintain a sense of approachability through a non-judgemental atmosphere, therein making a positive difference in students' university experience.
Please be thorough and specific in your nomination statement. The selection committee places heavy emphasis on this information.

Only undergraduate students may nominate – your Plan II Advisors, Mary Dillman and Melissa Ossian, are eligible!

Undergraduate History Essay Contest
Submissions due by: Monday, November 26

The History Department at The University of Texas at Austin is holding a contest for excellent short essays about great history books. The two best essays will be published in the December issue of notevenpast.org.

Essays should be approximately 500 words in length and can be about any work of history, including historical fiction. Essays should tell readers what the book is about and why they should read it.

Submissions and questions should be emailed by November 26 to Henry Wiencek, Assistant Editor, Not Even Past at: hwiencek@gmail.com

EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIPS

Plan II Paid Internship Position at LLILAS for Spring 2013
Apply by: rolling basis; ASAP!

The Teresa Lozano Long Institute of Latin American Studies is a multidisciplinary institute that integrates several centers and programs devoted to promote interest in the region. LLILAS is the oldest Latin American Studies program in the United States and one of the best worldwide. The institute is a vibrant and fast-paced environment where students will have the opportunity to interact with foreign students, visiting Latin American professors, government officials, politicians, and private sector representatives.

Plan II and LLILAS have partnered to offer a paid internship program designed to provide Plan II students with the opportunity to gain professional experience by learning about the work of multiple programs within LLILAS or to develop research skills by working with some of our most distinguished Latin Americanist faculty. The internship would be a great opportunity for those students interested pursuing graduate degrees or working in Latin American affairs; international public policy, international education as well as in any Social Sciences discipline. The position is not benefits-eligible, but there is a stipend of $1500 per semester, for which the intern is expected to put in a 10-hour work week from late January 2013 to the last week of classes of the spring semester (schedules are negotiated with the respective supervisor). Note: Students must be enrolled in a minimum of six credit hours during the spring 2013 semester to be eligible for the internship.

APPLICATION DETAILS:
LLILAS currently has internship openings in several offices/programs (visit the LLILAS site for details: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/insts/llilas/centers-

About Plan2News
Plan2News is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu. News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association and performances and exhibits by Plan II students.

Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events.

Submitting to Plan2News
Please keep in mind that although Plan2News enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as the sole advertisement for a position or an event. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.

Personal and political announcements will not be published in Plan2News. Job and internships announcements must be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter.

To place a news item in Plan2News, you must do the following:

• Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu.
• In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
• Give the name of a contact person with phone number or e-mail address.
• Provide an activity date or a deadline.
• Do not use “we” or “I.” Please write your submission in third person.
• Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
• News items will run until your deadline or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.
• The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.
• Send your news item to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu no later than 2 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 2 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 2 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.
