Plan II Honors is MOVING!!

Plan II Honors is moving! On December 13, Plan II Honors headquarters will move to the second floor of the new Liberal Arts building (CLA). That building, which should have a "real" name very soon, is on the east side of the Student Activities Center (SAC), just across Waller Creek from the Texas Exes building. CLA and the SAC are, in fact, connected by a skyway on the fourth floor. (see construction map: http://www.utexas.edu/operations/construction/maps/q4.html). The Plan II Honors office will be on the northwest corner of the second floor. Our new space is BEAUTIFUL, with a larger common area and a spiffy new student computer lab. This new space is your new home. We want all Plan II students to always remember that wherever Plan II lives, you are the heart of the program. We look forward to kicking off the spring semester in our new home. The new CLA building itself should be a hub for all Liberal Arts students, with lots of student lounge and study space.

Thesis students, remember it's really critical to turn in your thesis on time, on December 12 this year. You do not want to turn in your thesis once the boxes start moving. Protect your thesis—be on time!

P2SA volunteering event at the Austin State Mental Hospital

Saturday, December 1 from 3 - 4:30 p.m. Meet at Quad at 3 p.m.

Car pool leaves from the Quad at 3:00 sharp; the event will run from 3:30-4:30. Parking is available if you would like to drive yourself, but please wait outside until the rest of the group arrives so that you can join in on orientation. A map of the building will be posted soon.

Dress code: CLOSED TOED SHOES AND NO TANKTOPS. If you have any questions, talk to your P2SA volunteer chairs: Laura (lswright@mc.com) and Edgar (edgar.l.walters@gmail.com)

Note: P2SA is looking for a karaoke machine to use at this event. If you have one or can borrow one, please let Laura or Edgar know.

Plan II Music Society Fall 2012 Recital

Saturday, December 8 at 2 p.m. Jessen Auditorium (HRH)

Plan II Music Society would like to invite you all to the Fall 2012 Semester Recital. Many talented groups will be performing including soloists, ensembles, and acapellas! The recital will take place in Jessen Auditorium (HRH) on December 8 at 2pm. Some wonderful snacks and refreshments will be served afterwards so be sure to bring your friends!

In addition, we are still accepting performers! Do you sing? Play an instrument? If you'd like to perform on stage with us, please check out our website (http://p2ms.weebly.com) and fill out the Recital Form. It's Free!

Reminder for December graduates

Graduating in December?

The University Co-op reminds students who are graduating this December to order commencement regalia and other items needed as soon as possible. The Bachelor’s Regalia Deadline is Friday November 30th, 2012. The deadline is the last day that items are guaranteed in stock. Regalia may still be available for purchase after these dates, and the Co-op will do its best to accommodate all last minute orders.

There is no Plan II ceremony for December graduates. Information on the College of Liberal Arts Commencement ceremony is at http://www.utexas.edu/cola/student-affairs/Academic-Planning/Graduation/Commencement.php

Thesis advising and registration

Part Two Deadline: Friday, December 14

ACADEMIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

Hot Science Cool Talks

Friday, November 30 at 7 p.m. SAC Auditorium

On Friday, November 30th, 7:00 p.m. in the Student Activity Center (SAC) Auditorium, Dr. Mark Clanton will deliver a lecture entitled "The War on Cancer: 41 Years after Nixon's Declaration".

In 1971, U.S. President Richard Nixon declared war on cancer by signing the National Cancer Act. How has our understanding, awareness, and treatment of cancer progressed over the years? What are the key victories and advances in our nation's fight against this disease? Dr. Clanton will provide perspectives and insights on this war that most people never hear about despite seeing cancer's causes, effects, and prevalence across all segments of society.

Lecture starts at 7:00 p.m. Pre-lecture Fair starts at 5:45pm, featuring engaging activities in the SAC Foyer. Discounted parking is available at the San Jacinto Garage.

Sanger Learning Center presents: “Surviving Finals 101”
Monday, December 3 from 5 - 6 p.m.

EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIPS

Spring 2013 Undergraduate Internships - Rapoport Center for Human Rights and Justice

Apply by: Friday, November 30

The Bernard and Audre Rapoport Center for Human Rights and Justice at the University of Texas School of Law is currently considering applications for UT undergraduates to intern with us during the spring! Interns will support various initiatives at the Rapoport Center. This internship is ideal for students who are interested in:

- Working on human rights research and advocacy projects
- Learning how an academic center functions
- Engaging in human rights scholarship
- Gaining practical experience
- Collaborating with faculty, staff, and students

This is an unpaid internship. Selected interns should be available at least 10 hours per week during the semester.

The Role of Human Rights Interns

Undergraduate interns play an important role at the Rapoport Center. Interns will focus on different activities, depending on their background, interest, and the needs of the Center. Primary duties include:

- Assisting with human rights research and advocacy projects
- Supporting the coordination and publicity of events and programs
- Expanding the Center's social media outreach
- Providing administrative support for Center programs
- Contributing written work for press releases, website, and Annual Review publications
- Serving as liaison to the UT undergraduate community and helping develop the Center's undergraduate outreach
- Assisting Center Administrator, Directors, Human Rights Scholars, graduate students, and affiliated faculty with other projects and tasks as assigned

Required Qualifications

- Commitment to working on issues of human rights and justice
- Excellent writing skills
- Strong organizational skills
- Demonstrated regular and punctual attendance at work
- Professional demeanor
- Experience with internet research, standard office equipment, and Microsoft Office

The following qualifications may be preferred in some candidates:

- Proficiency in Spanish and/or Portuguese
- Journalism experience

Experience with publication, design, and website software (Adobe Creative Suite, Dreamweaver, etc.)

How to Apply

Qualified students are invited to apply for the internship by submitting:

- Cover letter (state why you are interested in the position; demonstrate basic knowledge of our programs and activities)
- CV/Resume (indicate any computer/software skills and foreign language proficiency)
- Unofficial transcript (including the courses you are currently taking, if applicable)
- List of three references (at least two must be UT faculty)
- Writing sample (3-5 pages)

Please submit the following materials to Rapoport Center Administrator William Chandler via email at wchandler@law.utexas.edu (subject: Undergraduate Internship).

Plan II Paid Internship Position at LLILAS for Spring 2013

Apply by: rolling basis; ASAP!

The Teresa Lozano Long Institute of Latin American Studies is a multidisciplinary institute that integrates several centers and programs devoted to promote interest in the region. LLILAS is the oldest Latin American Studies program in the United States and one of the best worldwide. The institute is a vibrant and fast-paced environment where students will have the opportunity to interact with foreign students, visiting Latin American professors, government officials, politicians, and private sector representatives.

Plan II and LLILAS have partnered to offer a paid internship program designed to provide Plan II students with the opportunity to gain professional experience by learning about the work of multiple programs within LLILAS or to develop research skills by working with some of our most distinguished Latin Americanist faculty. The internship would be a great opportunity for those students interested pursuing graduate degrees or working in Latin American affairs; international public policy, international education as well as in any Social Sciences discipline. The position is not benefits-eligible, but there is a stipend of...
$1500 per semester, for which the intern is expected to put in a 10-hour work week from late January 2013 to the last week of classes of the spring semester (schedules are negotiated with the respective supervisor). Note: Students must be enrolled in a minimum of six credit hours during the spring 2013 semester to be eligible for the internship.

APPLICATION DETAILS:
LLILAS currently has internship openings in several offices/programs (visit the LLILAS site for details: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/insts/llilas/centers-and-programs/LLILAS-Internships.php); only one student will be selected for the paid Plan II internship position. Students who are not selected for the paid Plan II position may be offered an unpaid internship position. Please review each of the job descriptions on the LLILAS site and indicate which specific position you are applying for on your application. You can apply to more than one, but if you do, please rank them in order of preference.

Please e-mail all application materials to Paloma Diaz between November 1, 2012 and January 20, 2013 (we encourage early applications and will begin interviewing applicants as soon as possible). The application package should include: (1) a résumé indicating language and computer skills; (2) a cover letter stating why you are interested in the position or positions (including research topics or disciplines of interest); (3) information about your spring schedule and available hours; and (4) the name and contact information of at least two UT faculty members or previous employers who are willing to provide us with references. (Note: The LLILAS Research Internship also requires a copy of your transcript.)

Applications accepted on a rolling basis, interested students should apply ASAP!

Summer Research Program in Science and Biotech at UC Berkeley

UC Berkeley is pleased to announce the 2013 Amgen Scholars Summer Research Program in Science and Biotechnology. This national program provides participants with the opportunity to conduct research with a faculty member, communicate their science in poster and oral presentations, receive a stipend, housing, meal plan, and transportation to and from the UC Berkeley campus.

Program dates are May 27 - August 2, 2013 and the application deadline is Thursday, February 1, 2013.

Pre-Graduate School Internship

Are you thinking about whether graduate school is in your future? Are you uncertain about what it would be like to be a graduate student and what academic program may be suited best to your interests and career goals?

If your answer to these questions is yes, you may wish to consider undertaking the Intellectual Entrepreneurship (IE) "Pre-Graduate School Internship." This internship is open to students in all UT colleges/schools and departments. You may earn one, two or three hours of academic credit (CMS 164M/264M/364M) by participating in the internship.

You may read more about this program (including FAQs, examples of internship activities and an easy to complete internship contract) on the web: http://communication.utexas.edu/ie/

USEFUL MISCELLANY

About Plan2News

Plan2News is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu. News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association and performances and exhibits by Plan II students.

Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events.

Submitting to Plan2News

Please keep in mind that although Plan2News enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as the sole advertisement for a position or an event. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.

Personal and political announcements will not be published in Plan2News. Job and internships announcements must be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter.

To place a news item in Plan2News, you must do the following:

• Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu.
• In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
• Give the name of a contact person with phone number or e-mail address.
• Provide an activity date or a deadline.
• Do not use “we” or “I.” Please write your submission in third person.
• Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
• News items will run until your deadline or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.
• The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.
• Send your news item to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu no later than 2 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 2 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 2 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.

Submit items (including job and internship postings) to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu by 2 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 2 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). News items will run until your deadline or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided. Please edit your entries to meet the length requirement before submission.
