PLAN2NEWS

WEEKLY EVENTS

TODAY
• Election Day

UPCOMING
• The Broccoli Project: Dogg’s Hamlet, Cahoot’s MacBeth
  • November 8-10, 15-17 at 7 p.m.
  • November 11 at 2:30 p.m.
  • Black Box Theater (SAC 2.304)

BY LUTHER FAN

The Plan2News is delivered via email every Tuesday and Friday. You can also view the pdf version online at the Plan II website.

ITEMS IN BLUE ARE NEW; ITEMS IN RED ARE LAST CHANCE

PLAN2NEWS

1. Open Plan II Elective Classes - Civic Viewpoints and Photographic Narratives
2. The Broccoli Project: Dogg’s Hamlet, Cahoot’s MacBeth
3. Spring 2013 Registration Information
4. Thesis advising and registration
5. Follow us on Twitter!

ACADEMIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. International Relations Graduate School Info Session
2. A Day in the Life of State Government
3. Personal Statement Workshop for Health Professions Applicants
4. Opening for Liberal Arts Representative
5. Carnegie Endowment Junior Fellows Program
6. Undergraduate Research Apprenticeship Program
8. Pizza and Public Policy: Bridging Disciplines Program
9. The Texas Exes James W Vick Awards for Academic Advising
10. Liberal Arts Career Prep Classes
11. Kuhn Intellectual Entrepreneurship Award available
12. Geoscience Internal Transfer Session
13. College of Communication International Programs info sessions
14. Nursing Internal Transfer info sessions

STUDY ABROAD

1. Graduate Study in China Info Session
2. UT Semester in Los Angeles Program
3. Summer 2013 Archaeology Program in Vila do Conde, Portugal
4. Study in Washington D.C. for a semester with the Archer Program
5. Study Abroad Office “Planning Scholarships” form now available

EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIPS

1. Pre-Graduate School Internship

USEFUL MISCELLANY

1. About Plan2News
2. Submitting to Plan2News
Course Description:  In a society saturated with photographic images, we have developed a visual literacy that enables us to interpret the implicit messages in the photos we encounter every day in advertisements, journalism and art. With no text whatsoever, a photograph can communicate a sophisticated and nuanced story containing essential components of narrative: character, setting, mood and plot. Thusly billboards tantalize us with fantasies, and news photos draw us into compelling dramas.

This class will have both analytical and creative components. Students will discuss the work of professional photographers, and also experiment with various photographic techniques to create their own narrative images. Several accomplished professional photographers will visit the class as guests.

We will discuss composition, lighting, perspective, depth-of-field, exposure and other technical and aesthetic aspects of photography. We will then explore the consequences each of these facets can have on the “story” in the image.

About the Instructor:  Matt Valentine is a writer and photographer. His short stories have been published in several literary magazines, and have been recognized in national competitions. Most recently, he won the 2012 Montana Prize for Fiction. His photographs have been published in the New York Times, Washington Post, Los Angeles Times, USA Today, Boston Review, Men’s Journal, Austin American-Statesman and on dozens of book jackets. He holds a Master of Fine Arts degree from New York University.

The Broccoli Project: Dogg’s Hamlet, Cahoot’s MacBeth
November 8-10, 15-17 at 7 p.m.
November 11 at 2:30 p.m.
Black Box Theater (SAC 2.304)

The Broccoli Project Presents: Dogg’s Hamlet, Cahoot’s Macbeth by Tom Stoppard
Directed by Alexander Fischer with Assistant Director Niru Anya

Dogg’s Hamlet, Cahoot’s Macbeth consists of two short plays. Dogg’s Hamlet enters the world of schoolboys Abel, Baker, and Charlie, who are preparing a 15-minute version of Hamlet in its original language, English. It's a foreign language to the boys, who natively speak a language called Dogg, whose words also have meanings in English but whose Dogg meanings are entirely different (often to hilarious effect—words that are insults in English are frequently compliments in Dogg, and vice versa). The first half concludes with the boys’ 15-minute Hamlet and a special encore.

Cahoot’s Macbeth is an homage to Pavel Kohout, whose theatre troupe performed in secret after the Czechoslovakian ‘normalization’ of the late 1970’s criminalized many kinds of public performance. Kohout’s Living-Room Theatre (LRT) troupe convened as a performance outlet for forbidden actors and actresses like the famous Pavel Landovsky and Vlasta Chramostova, who starred as Macbeth and Lady Macbeth in private flats and basements, away from the government’s invasive eyes and ears. The troupe in Cahoot’s Macbeth (which isn't exactly Kohout’s LRT) performs a truncated Macbeth and deals with the impediments of an intrusive government inspector and the increasingly contagious and confusing language, Dogg.

Easy, an oft-abused and always confused deliveryman, links the two plays which, as Stoppard explains, "have common elements: the first is hardly a play without the second, which cannot be performed without the first."

UT SAC Black Box Theater
November 8, 9, 10 & 15, 16, 17 at 7:00 PM, November 11 at 2:30 PM
Tickets $5 for UT students/faculty, $10 for general admission. Purchase at the door or reserve for will-call by emailing your name, phone number, number of tickets desired, and performance date to brocprojreservations@gmail.com.

Spring 2013 Registration Information
Philosophy  Students taking Plan II Philosophy this year should register for their spring class as follows:

Professor Dunlop's PHL 610QA students should register for one of her PHL 610QB sections.
Professor Leon's PHL 610QA students should register for one of Professor Strawson's PHL 610QB sections
Professor Deigh's PHL 610QA students should register for one of Professor Woodruff's PHL 610QB sections.

Course Schedule
The online course schedule for spring 2013 is published but please keep in mind that this information is subject to change. Please feel free to review classes and begging to plan your spring classes, but do review the information again closer to your registration access time to ensure the information on your planned courses is still accurate.

Thesis advising and registration
Part Two Deadline: Friday, December 14
Students who plan to start their Plan II senior thesis next Spring (or students who plan to start their senior thesis next fall but will be studying abroad in the Spring), must complete Part One and Part Two of the Plan II Thesis Registration form. Forms and instructions can be found online at: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/progs/plan2/advising/thesis/

Part One deadline: Friday, October 26
This form must be signed during an in person meeting between the student and either Plan II Acting Director Alexandra Wettlaufer or Plan II Assistant Director Paul Sullivan.

Dr. Alexandra Wettlaufer Fall 2012 office hours:
Tu 3:30-5 pm in HRH 3.104C; Th 11 am-12:30 pm in WCH 4.140; & by appt
Dr. Paul Sullivan Fall 2012 office hours:
M/W 2:30-4:30 pm in WCH 4.104 & Fridays by appointment

Part Two deadline: Friday, December 14
(completion by last day of classes recommended)
This form must be signed by two faculty members (your primary supervisor and a second reader), and include a brief description of your thesis topic and a current resume.

Follow us on Twitter!
Now you can follow Plan II on Twitter to stay up to date on the latest news and events: https://twitter.com/PlanIIHonors

ACADEMIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

International Relations Graduate

School Info Session
November 7 at 4:30 p.m.
SRH 3.122

The LBJ School will host a several peer institutions for an International Affairs/Public Policy graduate program information session at 4:30 PM on Nov. 7 in SRH 3.122. Undergraduate students of all majors are welcome to attend (RSVP is not required).

A Day in the Life of State Government
Friday, November 9 from 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m.
Department of Assistive and Rehabilitative Services Campus

Interested in what it might be like to work in a State Government Agency? If so, you are invited to register for this free event, which will be held on Friday, November 9, 2012 at the Department of Assistive and Rehabilitative Services Campus from 8:30am-4:00pm. Participants will be limited to the first 50 students who register. Lunch will be provided at no cost to participating students.

The goal of this event is to offer UT Austin students an opportunity to learn about state government and provide an opportunity to experience what it is like “on the inside” of a state agency. Students will have the chance to ask questions, tour some of the DARS offices, and interact with people from the various career tracks available inside our agency. It is our hope that as students gain awareness of how state government is organized, they may consider an area in state government as a future career choice.

Personal Statement Workshop for Health Professions Applicants
Friday, November 9 from 1 - 2:30 p.m.
WEL 1.316

Join the Health Professions Office on Friday, November 9 for a workshop on how you can put the “personal” in your Personal Statement. The workshop will answer the following questions:
- How do I get started?
- Why is the essay so important?
- What do the committees want to read?
- What should/shouldn’t I write about?
- Where can I get help?

For more information, visit the Health Professions website at: http://cns.utexas.edu/careers/health-professions/

Opening for Liberal Arts Representative

Apply by: Sunday, November 11 at 5 p.m.

One of your five Liberal Arts Representatives is stepping down from their position for the Spring 2013 semester. Therefore, the position is available to any Liberal Arts student who:
- currently at full-time status (full-time student)
- not on scholastic or disciplinary probation
- has a cumulative GPA higher than a 2.5

Attached is the Liberal Arts Rep application where you can find details about the position and how to apply. The application is due on Sunday, November 11th by 5pm to morgan@morgancaridi.com.

Details regarding the process:
1) Submit your application by 5pm this Sunday (November 11th) to morgan@morgancaridi.com.

2) Liberal Arts Council’s executive board will select the top three candidates from the applications received, we will then notify you Sunday evening of the results.

3) Tuesday, November 13th: Top three candidates (who were selected by Liberal Arts Council’s Executive Board) will run for the position at the Liberal Arts Council general assembly meeting (Tuesday at 6:30pm) and LAC will vote to select the most qualified candidate.

If you have any questions about the process, I encourage you to contact: morgan@morgancaridi.com.

Carnegie Endowment Junior Fellows Program

Nominations due: Thursday, November 15

Nominations are now being accepted for The University of Texas at Austin selection of candidates for the 2012 - 2013 Carnegie Endowment Junior Fellows Program. Eligible students are in their senior year or alumni who have graduated within the past academic year and have not yet started graduate studies. A maximum of two students will be selected to represent The University of Texas at Austin in the competition to be selected as a Carnegie Endowment Junior Fellow.
Junior Fellows provide research assistance to scholars working on the Carnegie Endowment’s projects: nuclear policy, democracy building, energy and climate issues, international economics, international security, Middle East studies, South Asian politics, Southeast Asian politics, Asia and China-related issues, and Russian and Eurasian affairs. Junior Fellows have the opportunity to conduct research for books, participate in meetings with high-level officials, contribute to congressional testimony and organize briefings attended by scholars, activists, journalists and government officials.

Applicants should have completed a significant amount of course work in international affairs, political science, economics, history, mathematics, Russian, Mandarin Chinese, native or near-native Arabic, Middle East studies, energy or climate studies and/or communications. Interested students can learn more about the application process at: www.utexas.edu/ugs/uhc/awards/carnegie.

UT DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 15, 2012
The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace is a private, nonprofit organization dedicated to advancing cooperation between nations and promoting active international engagement by the United States. As one of the world’s leading think tanks specializing in international affairs, the Endowment conducts programs of research, discussion, publication and education. The Junior Fellows Program at the Carnegie Endowment offers 8 to 10 one-year fellowships to uniquely qualified graduating seniors and individuals who have graduated during the past academic year. They are selected from a pool of nominees from close to 400 participating colleges.

Contact: Kathy Uitvlugt
Senior Program Coordinator
The University Honors Center
512-471-6524 uhc@austin.utexas.edu

Undergraduate Research Apprenticeship Program
Starting on January 14, 2013

Dr. Pauline Strong of the Humanities Institute and Department of Anthropology is seeking an undergraduate research apprentice. The research apprentice will assist Dr. Strong in research on changes in the concept and institutionalization of the “humanities” in the U.S. today.

Preferred qualifications:
This is an excellent apprenticeship for a student with a background in any humanities discipline who is interested in gaining experience in research in the humanities, as well as expertise in the activities of major humanities centers and initiatives in the U.S. The apprentice should have strong communication and research skills and be highly motivated.

Time commitment: 7 hrs / week, including meetings with the supervisor. Duration: spring semester
Compensation: $300 scholarship for semester following the apprenticeship
Course credit is available for this project. Applicants must not have completed no more than 60 hours at the start of the fall 2012 semester. The research apprentice will register for LA 331R (a research conference course) and receive 3 hours of course credit.

The sponsor of this project is available for weekly meetings.

For more information please contact: pstrong@austin.utexas.edu
A description of the Undergraduate Research Apprenticeship Program is here: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/student-affairs/undergrad/urprograms/Undergraduate-Research-Apprenticeship-Program.php

The New Politics Forum 2012 Post-Elections Debriefing
Friday, November 9 from 4:30 p.m. - 8 p.m.
Belo Center for New Media Auditorium

Join us to celebrate your victories or lick your wounds, expand your professional network, and put Election 2012 in context with your fellow generation. Hatton W. Sumners Foundation Scholars are invited to attend free of charge!

Confirmed Speakers Include:
- Charles Mahtesian, Politico’s national politics editor
- Christina Bellantoni, Politics Editor for PBS NewsHour
- Will Cain, contributor to CNN and The Blaze TV (Glenn Beck TV)
- Cornell Belcher, former DNC pollster and CNN contributor
- Dr. Dhavan Shah, Director, Mass Communication Research Center at the University of Wisconsin
- Dr. Sylvia Manzano, Senior Analyst, Latino Decisions
- Dr. Talia Stroud, author of “Niche News: The Politics of News Choice” and assistant director for research at the Annette Strauss Institute
- Dr. Regina Lawrence, director of the Annette Strauss Institute and author of “Hillary Clinton’s Run for the White House: Media, Gender Strategy, and Campaign Politics”

Where? The University of Texas at Austin, Belo Center for New Media Auditorium
When? 4:30 pm – 8:00 pm Event Program….. 8:15 pm Networking After-Party

Registration* is required: Students $10.00
General Public $20.00

Seats are limited. This event will sell out. Register online at www.newpoliticsforum.org

* Includes: Parking at the event, light refreshments, conference materials, and an invitation to our exclusive networking after-party event. Several conference speakers already confirmed! All ages welcome.

You can learn more at www.newpoliticsforum.org

Pizza and Public Policy: Bridging Disciplines Program
Thursday, November 15 at 11:30 a.m.
FAC 330

Almost everybody likes pizza. But public policy? Well, that’s more of an acquired taste. The question is, are enough undergraduates interested in public policy to justify creating a Bridging Disciplines Program certificate about it? And what would the courses look like?

Help the Bridging Disciplines Program answer those questions, and a few more. For example:

· What does the phrase “public policy” mean to you? How is it different from “politics”?

· Have you ever taken a policy-related class? How was it, and how could it have been made better?

· What public policy topics interest you most? National security, health care, environmental protection, the deficit, economic policy, immigration, government funding for scientific research, roads, education, Big Bird?

- Have you thought about a career in public service, or running for elective office?

If you have answers to those questions, or even an attitude about them, please join BDP for pizza at 11:30am on Thursday, November 15 in FAC 330.

RSVP here or contact Advising Coordinator Lauren Campbell for more information.

The Texas Exes James W Vick Awards for Academic Advising

Friday, November 16

Nominations are now being accepted for the 2012-2013 Texas Exes James W. Vick Awards for Academic Advising. These $500 awards are provided annually for five undergraduate academic advisors from across the campus to promote quality advising at The University of Texas by publicly recognizing advisors who have had an effective, positive influence on the educational experience of university students. Recipients are selected by students and coordinated through the Texas Exes. For more information, visit: https://texasexes.org/form/vick.asp

The persons selected should demonstrate enthusiasm and knowledge in applying university degree requirements and policies in order to effectively match undergraduate students' interests and abilities to a balanced schedule. The nominees should maintain a sense of approachability through a non-judgemental atmosphere, therein making a positive difference in students' university experience. Please be thorough and specific in your nomination statement. The selection committee places heavy emphasis on this information.

Only undergraduate students may nominate – your Plan II Advisors, Mary Dillman and Melissa Ossian, are eligible!

Liberal Arts Career Prep Classes

Are you looking to get an edge in your job search? Want to develop experiences employers value? Liberal Arts Career Services offers credit-based courses to help you go from college to career and make the most of your liberal arts education. Our courses are designed to provide you with the experience, knowledge and skills that you can apply directly to your future plans and your job search.

Here are our Spring 2013 offerings:

3-credit, upper-division courses:

LA 325: College/Career Coaching Theory & Practice (Unique #30003; Wednesdays 3-6 pm; CLA 1.104)

Want to motivate yourself and others through positive psychology and coaching strategies? Learn valuable theories and skills you can use as a manager, mentor or advisor in a variety of career settings.

LA 325: The Liberal Arts Entrepreneur (Unique #30004; Tuesdays 3:30-6:30; FAC 18N)

Put your creativity and innovative ideas to work. Learn the process of developing your own startup business or nonprofit through completing a business plan. Enrollment in this course is application based, the application deadline is January 14, 2013.

LA 320wb: Liberal Arts Internship Course (Unique #30000; Web-based)

Are you planning to do an internship in the spring? If so, make the most of your internship and register for this course. The course will help you reflect on the experience, and get you ready for the next one. Enrollment in this course is application based. The application deadline is January 29, 2013 at 4pm.

1-credit, lower-division courses:

LA 101L: Liberal Arts Major in the Workplace (Unique #29954; Mondays 3-5 pm; 7 weeks; FAC 18N)

Make the most of your liberal arts degree in the job search and beyond. This course will help you articulate the value of your major, identify your strengths and interests, and develop a strong job search strategy.

LA 110wb: Liberal Arts internship Course (Unique #29980, Web-based)

Does your internship supervisor require that you receive academic credit to participate in the internship? If so, this class is for you. Make the most of your experience while earning academic credit. Enrollment in this course is application based, the application deadline is January 29, 2013 at 4pm.

Kuhn Intellectual Entrepreneurship Award available

$1,000 awards/stipends for a select number of qualified IE Pre Grad interns (undergraduates) and their graduate student mentors http://communication.utexas.edu/ie/kuhn-ie-award.

The award is intended to support and encourage students to pursue opportunities that further enrich the Pre-Graduate School Internship experience. (e.g., traveling to conferences, potential graduate school visits, research endeavors, supplies, books etc.) All award recipients will also be required to participate in the Pre-Graduate School Internship in the semester they receive the award.

Geoscience Internal Transfer Session

In order to transfer to the Jackson School of Geosciences you must meet the following criteria:

- Completion of GEO 401 (or 303) with a minimum grade of C-
- Completion of CH 301 with a minimum grade of C-
- Completion of M 305G, 408K, or 408C with a minimum grade of C-
- Completion of 24 hours minimum in residence at UT Austin
- Minimum UT GPA of 2.75 (3.0 preferred)

New JSG students are admitted for fall semester only; the Internal Transfer Applications are available beginning the first day of spring semester until May 1 each year.

Last year the JSG admitted most internal transfers with GPAs above 3.3 just to give you an idea of competitiveness.

All prospective Jackson School of Geosciences majors are encouraged to attend ONE of the following information sessions before they apply during the spring semester.

Wednesday, November 14, 2012 | 2:00 - 3:00 p.m. | NUR 1.106
Thursday, December 6, 2012 | 4:30 - 5:30 p.m. | NUR 1.110

Eligibility Requirements: students must have successfully completed 12 in-residence hours as well as successfully completed two science prerequisite courses from our list of science prerequisites by the deadline listed above in order to apply. The School of Nursing has new procedures and deadlines for internal transfer which can be viewed at: http://www.utexas.edu/nursing/academics/ud_internal.html.

The new application deadlines are:
October 1 for admission the following spring
March 1 for admission the following fall

STUDY ABROAD

Graduate Study in China Info Session

Thursday, November 8 at 5:15
WCH 4.118

The Hopkins-Nanjing Center is a full joint-venture run by The Johns Hopkins University and Nanjing University, and offers three programs: a one-year Graduate Certificate in Chinese and American Studies; a two-year master’s in International Studies, which is conferred by both The Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS) and Nanjing University; and a five-semester option where students spend one year in Nanjing as Certificate students and spend the remaining three semesters at Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS) in Washington, D.C. where they would earn an M.A.

The Center is a fully bi-cultural and bilingual institution located in Nanjing, China on the campus of Nanjing University. Non-Chinese students take their classes in Mandarin while Chinese students take their classes in English, and M.A. students write and defend a thesis in their target language at the end of the two-year program.

To learn more about the Hopkins-Nanjing Center, please attend the information session on Thursday, November 8th, or email Margaux Fimbres at margaux.fimbres@jhu.edu. The information session will be held in WCH 4.118 at 5:15. There will be food!

UT Semester in Los Angeles Program

If you are passionate about film, television, music or digital arts, and are interested in exploring related careers in the entertainment industry, you may be interested in participating in the UT Semester in Los Angeles Program. Students earn UT in-residence credit, and the program is open to all majors.

UT SEMESTER IN LA PROGRAM COURSES
• New Media and Emerging Entertainment
• How Hollywood Works: The Business of Show Business
• Inside the Music Industry
• The Creative Process of Film and TV
• Careers in Entertainment (fall and spring only)
• Communication Internship in L.A.

ELIGIBILITY
Applicants must be currently enrolled degree-seeking students in good academic standing who will have:

• Min. 60 credit hours and a minimum GPA of 2.25 by semester of participation;
• Successfully completed RTF 305 “Intro to Media Studies,” or equivalent, by the semester of participation.

FALL INFORMATION SESSION

Wed., November 14, 2:00 PM, CMA 5.160

* Executive Director will be on campus. The application for fall 2013, spring or summer 2014 will open February 1-28, 2013.

MORE INFORMATION
Visit http://communication.utexas.edu/utla
Or, call the UTLA Center, toll free, at 877-875-2111.

Summer 2013 Archaeology Program in Vila do Conde, Portugal

Interested in archaeology? Want to spend your summer in Europe? Consider the Summer 2013 program in Vila do Conde, Portugal!!

This archaeological field school is directed by Dr. Mariah Wade, a professor in the Department of Anthropology. The excavation site is a hilltop fort and settlement that spanned the period from the Bronze Age to the Roman era.

Study in Washington D.C. for a semester with the Archer Program

If you are interested in learning about public policy firsthand by living, interning, and taking in-residence classes in Washington, D.C., for a fall or spring semester, the Archer Fellowship Program may be for you! Come learn about this unique program by attending an information session. Students representing all majors and disciplines on campus are welcome. Applications for the 2013-2014 academic year will be due in February (students who will be abroad this spring should apply by November 1st). Weekly application tips will be posted on Facebook: ‘Like’ UT Austin Archer Fellowship Program to stay informed.

Fall 2012 Information Sessions
Thursday, November 8th, 4-5:30 p.m., in FAC 4
Wednesday, November 14th, 4-5:30 p.m., in FAC 4

If you need accommodations for an information session, or if you have any questions or concerns, please contact the UT Austin Archer Fellowship Program Coordinator, Rose Mastrangelo, 232-7564. http://www.utexas.edu/ugs/archer

Study Abroad Office “Planning Scholarships” form now available

The Study Abroad Office is very pleased to announce that the PLANNING SCHOLARSHIPS website and application form is now available.

http://world.utexas.edu/about/funding/scholarships/planning

EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIPS

Pre-Graduate School Internship

Are you thinking about whether graduate school is in your future? Are you uncertain about what it would be like to be a graduate student and what academic program may be suited best to your interests and career goals?

If your answer to these questions is yes, you may wish to consider undertaking the Intellectual Entrepreneurship (IE) "Pre-Graduate School Internship." This internship is open to students in all UT colleges/schools and departments. You may earn one, two or three hours of academic credit (CMS 164M/264M/364M) by participating in the internship.

You may read more about this program (including FAQ’s, examples of internship activities and an easy to complete internship contract) on the web: http://communication.utexas.edu/ie/

USEFUL MISCELLANY

About Plan2News

Plan2News is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu. News items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.

Send your news item to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu no later than 2 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 2 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 2 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.

Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events.

Submitting to Plan2News

Please keep in mind that although Plan2News enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as the sole advertisement for a position or an event. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.

Personal and political announcements will not be published in Plan2News. Job and internships announcements must be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter.