Plan II Thesis Information Sessions
Tuesday/Wednesday, February 19 and 20
5 p.m. CLA 0.102

Plan II students who plan to start their senior thesis next year (FALL 2013) MUST attend one of the upcoming Thesis Information Sessions to learn about the process of proposing your thesis topic, finding a supervisor and second reader, and the requirements to register for the thesis course. The sessions are also highly recommended for sophomores who are planning to go abroad during their junior year.

Attend one of two:

Tuesday, February 19th
5 pm in CLA 0.102

OR

Wednesday, February 20th at 5 p.m.
5 pm in CLA 0.102

Plan II Seniors - apply to graduate!
Deadline: April 1

The deadline for May graduates to apply online is April 1st.

NOTE: Students enrolled in more than one college (dual degree seekers) must apply to graduate IN PERSON at GEB 2.306. If you will be graduating from more than one school or college, you must apply to graduate with BOTH colleges.

August graduates who wish to participate in the Plan II Commencement ceremony should go to GEB 2.306 to sign up to WALK. Summer graduates submit the graduation application during the summer semester.

The Plan II Commencement ceremony will take place the morning of Saturday, May 18th. Details about the ceremony will be released closer to the event.

Apply for a 2013 Summer/Fall Plan II Travel Grant
Deadline: April 15

PURPOSE: Plan II Travel Grants are made to Plan II students only, for academic purposes such as:

- Attending a conference in your field
- Study abroad (any program, whether or not sponsored by UT)
- Gathering data in anticipation of a thesis project (SENIORS: If you are enrolled in the thesis course, use the Plan II Thesis Grant, even if you are traveling to do research: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/progs/plan2/current_stdnts/scholarship/thesis-grant.php)
- Plan II does not help you pay for nonacademic travel.

NOTE: Plan II Travel Grants are not intended to cover the entire cost of your proposed travel or project. Only one type of grant will be awarded per student, per travel program or project.

WHEN TO APPLY: Plan II conducts two rounds of grant applications each year. For travel in the summer semester OR the following fall/full academic year, students should apply in the spring. For travel occurring in the spring semester or a Maymester, students should apply during the fall round.

AMOUNT: Awards typically range between $500 and $2,000. In most cases, Plan II will pay only part of your costs for the trip. You must therefore seek funds from other sources as well, but your Plan II application must show all of your expenses for the trip.

SPECIAL NOTE - RESTRICTED TRAVEL: The University of Texas System requires all travel to countries with U.S. Department of State Travel Warnings to be reviewed and approved by the University's International Oversight Committee (IOC). Students wanting to travel to restricted regions category 1-3 must complete a Student Request to Travel to Restricted Regions form. We strongly advise students to complete this form during the program application process. Waiting to complete the petition process could result in a student not receiving a travel clearance or denial in time for departure. Individual students concerned about this policy should direct questions to their specific study abroad Program Coordinator before contacting the UT International Risk Analyst.

If you have questions please contact Kelsey McKinney at mckinney.kelsey@gmail.com or (972) 743.9390

Plan II Honors has MOVED!!
CLA 2.102

We have moved! Plan II Honors headquarters is now located on the second floor of the new Liberal Arts building (CLA). That building is on the east side of the Student Activities Center (SAC), just across Waller Creek from the Texas Exes building. CLA and the SAC are, in fact, connected by a skyway on the fourth floor. (see construction map: http://www.utexas.edu/operations/construction/maps/q4.html). The Plan II Honors office is on the northwest corner of the second floor. Our new space is BEAUTIFUL, with a larger common area and a spiffy new student computer lab. This new space is your new home. We want all Plan II students to always remember that wherever Plan II lives, you are the heart of the program. We look forward to kicking off the spring semester in our new home. The new CLA building itself should be a hub for all Liberal Arts students, with lots of student lounge and...
American Shakespeare Center returns to UT

Tuesday and Wednesday, February 12 and 13 at 7 p.m.
Hogg Auditorium

The American Shakespeare Center will return to Austin for its fourth annual visit to the University of Texas campus. Direct from the stage of the American Shakespeare Center's celebrated Blackfriars Playhouse, the world's only re-creation of Shakespeare's indoor theatre, the ASC touring troupe brings Renaissance drama to life in exciting and accessible performances. On February 12 and 13, at 7:00 pm in Hogg Auditorium, the ASC's touring troupe will perform Shakespeare's Twelfth Night and John Webster's The Duchess of Malfi.

Tuesday, February 12, 7:00pm - Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare

Writing at the height of his powers, Shakespeare provides a feast of language and songs - and a stage full of memorable characters - from the lovesick Orsino and Viola to the alesick Toby Belch, from the acquisitive Sir Andrew Aguecheek to the pompous Malvolio. Sublime and subversive, Twelfth Night breaks rules and bends gender to show love in all its guises and disguises.

Wednesday, February 13, 7:00pm - The Duchess of Malfi by John Webster

John Webster's brutal and astonishing play tells the story of one of the stage's greatest women and two of its greatest villains. The widowed Duchess of Malfi tragically defies her two powerful brothers by secretly marrying her household steward. When they uncover her deception, the brothers plot a series of horrific events that leads them all to destruction in this dark tapestry of sibling rivalry, forbidden love, unquenchable ambition, and ensuing madness.

Both performances will take place on the UT campus at Hogg Auditorium.

University students, faculty and staff tickets are only $10. General admission tickets are $15. Tickets are available by phone at (512) 471-4726 and online at www.shakespeare-winedale.org. You will need to present a valid UT ID when picking up tickets at the box office.

The theatre will open for seating at 7:00 pm. At this time, live pre-show music will also begin. The performance will begin at 7:30 pm. Seats for the performances are available on a first-come, first-served basis, so audience members are encouraged to arrive early, take their seats, and enjoy the music.

There will be a post-show discussion with members of the company immediately after Twelfth Night.

For more information about the performances, please visit www.shakespeare-winedale.org

This visit is made possible by the English Department, Shakespeare at Winedale, SHOUT, the Mary Lu Joynes Endowment in the Plan II Honors Program, the Center for European Studies, the Harry Ransom Humanities Research Center, and the Department of Theatre and Dance.

Sustainable Business and Social Enterprise Summit

New Economics Master’s Program
Apply by Friday, February 15

There is a new one-year Master’s program at UT-Austin. The program for a terminal Master’s degree with a 10-month, 10-course curriculum is specially designed for students seeking rigorous training in economic theory and analytical methods.

An undergraduate degree in Economics is not required for applicants. A strong quantitative background, along with some exposure to economics courses, is expected.

The program is suitable for students with any of the following goals: (i) Qualify for jobs in the private or government sector that require greater expertise in economic, analytical, and statistical tools than provided by an undergraduate degree; (ii) Obtain the background in economics and mathematics required to gain admission to a high-quality economics PhD program; or, (iii) Study economics as a complementary field to another area of expertise (law, political science, public health, statistics, energy, etc.).

Additional information about the program is available at the website https://ma.eco.utexas.edu. The first on-campus informational session will be held on January 17, 2013, and you can register on-line. Upcoming informational sessions will be announced on the website.

The first application deadline is February 15, 2013, and classes start July 15, 2013.

Please do not hesitate to contact us at econ@austin.utexas.edu if you have any questions about the program.

Participate in Research Week 2013!
Abstract deadline: Friday, February 22
Event held: April 15-19

The School of Undergraduate Studies and the Senate of College Councils are excited to invite students, faculty, and staff to attend Research Week 2013, the sixth annual university-wide celebration of undergraduate research and creative activity at UT Austin.

Research Week 2013 will take place April 15-19; this year’s events include college and departmental poster presentations, performances, special seminars on research-related topics, and the Longhorn Research Bazaar—a festive event designed to highlight research resources and opportunities for students from all majors.

Would you like to present your work during Research Week 2013?

Research Week is a great opportunity for you to share your research or creative work with others. Presenting your work at a poster session, symposium, or exhibit gives you the chance to receive feedback on your work, and it gives you an impressive credential as you’re applying to graduate schools or jobs. Students may participate in the poster session or exhibition of student creative work at the Longhorn Research Bazaar on April 17, 2013. The deadline to submit an abstract for the Longhorn Research Bazaar is February 22, 2013.

Students who are interested in participating in the Bazaar may submit an abstract or description of their creative project for consideration through the Research Week website at http://www.utexas.edu/ugs/researchweek/get-involved. Students who plan to present a research poster should take a free poster-making class through the Office of Undergraduate Research (if they have not already done so through their academic programs). Students may view the schedule and register for a poster class by visiting the OUR website: http://www.utexas.edu/ugs/our/students/poster-workshops.

If students have any questions about Research Week 2013, submitting an abstract, or presenting their work, please have them contact the Office of Undergraduate Research at 471-5949 or uresearch@austin.utexas.edu.

Internal Transfer applications open for Architecture and Interior Design

Now is the time to apply to transfer to the Architecture and Interior Design majors. Applications will only be accepted between February and March each year to be admitted for summer or fall; now is the only opportunity to apply to internally transfer this year!

The application instructions begin at http://www.soa.utexas.edu/admissions/internaltransfer. An applicant may also get to the application from the School of Architecture home page.

In case you want to know:

In order to be eligible to apply, an applicant must have completed 24 in-residence hours at UT Austin by the end of spring and have a minimum UT Austin GPA of 3.25. However, last year most students offered admission had UT Austin GPA's of 3.7 and higher.

Applicants may apply to start in either Design 1 or Design 3 for fall. To be eligible to apply to Design 3, a student must, by the end of this semester, have completed or have credit for at least M 408K and PHY 302K/102M. They must also commit to taking Design 1 and 2 and Visual Communications 1 and 2 at UT this summer (12 hours credit total, entailing both summer sessions).

Harry Ransom Center Summer 2013 Internships

Apply by: March 15

The Harry Ransom Center, a humanities research library and museum at The University of Texas at Austin, announces its 2013 summer internships. The Center will select six undergraduate interns: four University of Texas at Austin students and two students from other accredited colleges or universities. These 14-hour-per-week positions will provide undergraduates with experience in the nature and operations of a major humanities research center. Students will be paid hourly and receive approximately $1,500 for the summer, contingent on hours actually worked. The Creekmore and Adele Fath Charitable Foundation has provided generous funding for these internships.

Selected interns will choose from a variety of opportunities within the Center, including working with exhibitions, public affairs, marketing, archives, and a variety of curatorial departments (these may include art, film, photography, performing arts, rare books, and manuscripts). Interns will begin on June 10, 2013 and work until August 16, 2013. The experience gained by interns will... benefit them in their own research projects, in possible graduate studies, and in careers in such fields as librarianship, museum studies, archival or curatorial work, as well as public affairs, marketing, and public programming. Interested undergraduates can find more information about the internships, including a list of past projects here: http://www.hrc.utexas.edu/about/internships/undergraduate/

Eligibility: University of Texas undergraduates must have been enrolled for at least six hours during the spring 2013 semester, with plans to enroll in the fall or they must be enrolled for at least three credit hours during the summer 2013 session. Undergraduates from other academic institutions must have been enrolled at their institution during the spring 2013 semester for at least six semester hours or must be enrolled in their institution for three semester hours during the summer. Students from other academic institutions will need to provide proof of spring (or summer) enrollment and classification before being appointed to the position.

To Apply: Applicants should submit a one-page résumé, a cover letter from the student describing his/her interests and qualifications, and two letters of recommendation from faculty members or others familiar with the student's professional qualifications. Letters of recommendation should be addressed to Danielle Brune Sigler, Assistant Director and Curator for Academic Programs, and should be submitted in sealed, signed envelopes together with all application materials. Complete applications, including letters of recommendation, must be received by March 15 for consideration. Late submissions will not be considered.

About Plan2News
Plan2News is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu. News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association and performances and exhibits by Plan II students.

Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events.

Submitting to Plan2News
Please keep in mind that although Plan2News enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as the sole advertisement for a position or an event. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.

Personal and political announcements will not be published in Plan2News. Job and internships announcements must be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter.

To place a news item in Plan2News, you must do the following:
• Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu.
• In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
• Give the name of a contact person with phone number or e-mail address.
• Provide an activity date or a deadline.
• Do not use “we” or “I.” Please write your submission in third person.
• Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
• News items will run until your deadline or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.
• The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.
• Send your news item to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu no later than 2 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 2 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 2 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.
