Plan II Pre-Law Meeting
Tuesday, March 5 from 7 - 8 p.m.
Joyner Reading Room (CRD 007A)

Plan II Pre-law will be hosting Manhattan LSAT representative and literary property lawyer Gerald McMillan, a UT undergraduate and Columbia Law School alumnus who will discuss Manhattan LSAT preparation courses and his field of practice.

Mr. McMillan is offering a $100 discount for any Plan II student who registers for an in-person Manhattan LSAT course, and a $200 discount when two students sign up together. This meeting is open to all Plan II students. For questions or concerns please contact traviscox@utexas.edu.

Plan II Seniors - apply to graduate!
Deadline: April 1

Plan II seniors - Spring 2013 College of Liberal Arts graduation application open:

The deadline for May graduates to apply online is April 1st.

NOTE: Students enrolled in more than one college (dual degree seekers) must apply to graduate IN PERSON at GEB 2.306. If you will be graduating from more than one school or college, you must apply to graduate with BOTH colleges.

August graduates who wish to participate in the Plan II Commencement ceremony should go to GEB 2.306 to sign up to WALK. Summer graduates submit the graduation application during the summer semester.

The Plan II Commencement ceremony will take place the morning of Saturday, May 18th. Details about the ceremony will be released closer to the event.

Plan II Honors Rowe Koehl Travel Award
Application deadline: April 15

Thanks to a generous gift from Judy ('63) and her husband Mike Koehl, Plan II is able to offer the annual Rowe Koehl Travel Award. This award is intended to help fund one student's self-guided exploration abroad.

This scholarship is not listed in the Online Scholarship Portal. To apply, write a one page proposal of your travel plans that includes where you plan to go, why you plan to go there, and what you hope to learn. For example, do you have a burning curiosity about a distant land? Are there specific questions you would like to answer about a foreign culture? If so, tell us about them. In most cases, the awardee will not be traveling abroad for academic credit, but rather to explore their world. Send your letter of application, together with a proposed budget and your EID to the Plan II Travel Grant Coordinator, Phillip Dubov at planiiischolarships@austin.utexas.edu.

Winners of the Rowe Koehl Travel Award are required to submit a short report of their experience to the donors, with a copy to Plan II, after travel is complete.

The Rowe Koehl Travel Award is $2000. Travel occurs during the summer semester. Questions: Phillip Dubov phillip.dubov@gmail.com

Apply for a 2013 Summer/Fall Plan II Travel Grant
Deadline: April 15

PURPOSE: Plan II Travel Grants are made to Plan II students only, for academic purposes such as:

• Attending a conference in your field
• Study abroad (any program, whether or not sponsored by UT)
• Gathering data in anticipation of a thesis project (SENIORS: If you are enrolled in the thesis course, use the Plan II Thesis Grant, even if you are traveling to do research: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/progs/plan2/current_stdnts/scholarship/thesis-grant.php)
• Plan II does not help you pay for nonacademic travel.

NOTE: Plan II Travel Grants are not intended to cover the entire cost of your proposed travel or project. Only one type of grant will be awarded per student, per travel program or project.

WHEN TO APPLY: Plan II conducts two rounds of grant applications each year. For travel in the summer semester OR the following fall/fall academic year, students should apply in the spring. For travel occurring in the spring semester or a Maymester, students should apply during the fall round.

AMOUNT: Awards typically range between $500 and $2,000. In most cases, Plan II will pay only part of your costs for the trip. You must therefore seek funds from other sources as well, but your Plan II application must show all of your expenses for the trip.

SPECIAL NOTE - RESTRICTED TRAVEL: The University of Texas System requires all travel to countries with U.S. Department of State Travel Warnings to be reviewed and approved by the University's International Oversight Committee (IOC). Students wanting to travel to restricted regions category 1-3 must complete a Student Request to Travel to Restricted Regions form. We strongly advise students to complete this form during the program application process. Waiting to complete the petition process could result in a student not receiving a travel clearance or denial in time for departure. Individual students concerned about this policy should direct questions to their specific study abroad Program Coordinator before contacting the UT International Risk Analyst.

HOW TO APPLY: Apply using the College of Liberal Arts Online Scholarship Portal.

• If you have not used the system before, you will have to complete a one-time profile. Then you will see a list of scholarships for which you are eligible to apply.
• Look for the scholarship titled, "Plan II Travel Grant - 2013" This application may be used for either domestic or conference travel or study-abroad.

Undergraduate Awards accepting submissions

Deadline: May 24

The Undergraduate Awards recognize the world’s top undergraduate research projects from a variety of academic disciplines spanning the humanities, sciences, and visual arts. Open to final and penultimate year undergraduates, students are invited to submit research essays or special projects completed as part of their coursework that present fresh ideas and new arguments. Assessed by an international panel of academics, winning students will have their work published in the Undergraduate Awards Journal and be invited to attend the UA Summit—a 3 day conference in Dublin, Ireland.

Eligible papers must meet the following criteria:
- Received a grade of A
- Between 1750 – 5000 words (up to 20,000 for Math & Physical Sciences)
- Accompanied by a 300 word abstract
- Submitted by students in their penultimate or final year

Students looking for more information should visit www.utexas.edu/ugs/uhc/awards/undergraduate.

Deadline for submissions is May 24, 2013.

If you have any questions, please contact The University Honors Center at uhc@austin.utexas.edu

College of Liberal Arts Research Poster Presentations

Apply by: Friday, March 8

The College of Liberal Arts is now accepting applications for the Undergraduate Research Poster Presentation Session as a part of Undergraduate Research Week, April 15 - 19. Students will also have the chance to request to present their research at the Liberal Arts Undergraduate Research Reception, hosted by Dean Diehl, on Thursday, April 18.

Students may apply to participate regardless of what stage their research is in. For more details on these events, or to apply, please visit our website. The deadline to apply is Friday, March 8. Questions about Research Week or the application can be directed to Monica Horvat at monicah@austin.utexas.edu.

Career & Learning Presentations

Choosing a Career

Monday, March 18 from 5 - 6 p.m.

JES A115
Choosing a career can be a difficult process, and sometimes getting started is the hardest part. This program highlights ways to learn more about yourself, how to do effective career research, and introduces the many UT resources available as you explore your career options.

Time & Procrastination
Tuesday, March 19 from 5 - 6 p.m.
JES A309

We all have the same amount of time in a day, but how we allocate it can make the difference between “I’m 3 hours late to the exam” versus “I’ve got plenty of time for that.” We’ll show you how to better use your time, and help you find a balance between work and play.

Study Smarter, not Harder
Wednesday, March 20 from 5 - 6 p.m.
JES A309

Studying is not a single act. This program helps you learn about the steps of the study cycle, and discover how to engage in meaningful, active learning to achieve the results you want in class.

International Relations career panel
Tuesday, March 28 from 5:30 - 6:30 p.m.
JES A115

Ever wondered what a career in international relations might be like? Considering graduate school in the field? Ask all of your questions to those who international relations best! Panel members will represent a wide variety of industries including non-profit, business, and government, and a UT professor will be on hand to answer your questions about graduate school.

Apply for the Junior Fellows Program
Apply by: Friday, March 22

The Junior Fellows Program was begun in 1959 by Harry Ransom as a means of encouraging academic excellence in the College of Arts and Sciences. At that time it was essentially an honor society to which students were elected at the end of their freshman year. Over the years, the Junior Fellows has evolved into a society of juniors and seniors from the University at large who are engaged in independent research projects under the direction of members of the faculty.

Fellows are required to attend meetings of the group, held every other week in both the fall and spring semesters. Besides project presentations, meetings feature discussions led by eminent scholars from on and off campus. Fellows have the opportunity to participate in field trips, seminars, and other academic activities. Funds are available to assist Fellows with expenses involved in their research. There is also money available for Fellows who can demonstrate financial need.

Application Procedure

Application is open to any qualified student from any program on campus who will have completed 60 hours prior to the Fall semester. Junior Fellows normally have a GPA of at least 3.75, but outstanding students whose abilities are manifested in other ways should not hesitate to apply. Although administered by the College of Liberal Arts, the program is open to all qualified students on campus. Many students from outside Liberal Arts are presently members.

For more information contact Dr. Larry Carver (carver@austin.utexas.edu) in the Liberal Arts Honors Office by email or phone at 471-3458.

Applications are due Friday, March 22, 2013 for the 2013-2014 academic year.

Information Session for Inspire Program
Wednesday, March 27 at 11 - 12 p.m.
GEB 4th Floor Conference Room

Inspire Leadership is a three-year program (sophomore to senior) with three cohorts simultaneously developing skills necessary to achieve the highest levels within their chosen fields.

Freshman women from any major, apply now! The deadline for applications is April 14, 2013: http://tinyurl.com/inspireapp.

Inspire will provide you with the opportunity to gain the confidence and knowledge to express your voice in your community. Inspire is a direct channel through which you will be able to reach out and make an impact by engaging in community service and working with other young women in supportive and interdisciplinary environments. You will develop skills applicable to diverse social settings, such as critical thinking, public presentation, group motivation, and negotiation.

Graduate program in Health Behavior and Health Education

Are you interested in health? The graduate program in Health Behavior and Health Education in the Department of Kinesiology and Health Education at UT Austin is seeking motivated graduate students. The masters programs focus on health behavior across the life span and physical activity and health. Most students who earn masters degrees pursue applied careers, working with people in a variety of settings including health-related organizations, worksites, and schools. The doctorate prepares students for academic and research careers. For more information about the programs: http://www.edb.utexas.edu/education/departments/khe/graduate/hed/

Travel to Brussels this summer with the EUCE Brussels Program
Apply by: March 29 at 5 p.m.

The European Union Center of Excellence at UT Austin is pleased to offer grants to three UT undergraduate students to travel to Brussels in the summer of 2013 through the EUCE Brussels Program. The trip is funded through the support of the European Commission and organized by the Network of European Union Centers in the U.S.

ALL UT undergraduates are eligible from all departments and schools. However, special consideration will be given to those who are taking courses or are in an area of study relating to Europe or the EU.

Funding includes round-trip airfare to/ from Brussels, five nights of hotel and some meals.

The 2013 trip will be in June with dates TBA. The agenda is currently being organized but should be similar to previous years (see agenda on website). Applications are due by 5:00 p.m. on March 29, 2013. No late applications will be accepted.

Along with the completed application, teachers must also provide a letter of support from their current principal.

For more information and to apply, please go here to download the application form.

EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIPS

Health Professions Fair
Wednesday, March 6 from 10 - 2:30 p.m. Texas Union Ballroom

The Health Professions Fair is an annual event that is held every Spring. The fair is an opportunity for anyone who attends to meet and talk with admissions representatives from practically every health professions school in the state and many from across the country. We know it would be impossible for most of us to visit every school, so the Health Professions Office brings the schools to you!

Peace Corps info sessions
Tuesday, March 19, 1-2 p.m. in FAC 18
Harry Ransom Center Summer 2013 internships
Apply by: March 15

The Harry Ransom Center, a humanities research library and museum at The University of Texas at Austin, announces its 2013 summer internships. The Center will select six undergraduate interns: four University of Texas at Austin students and two students from other accredited colleges or universities. These 14-hour-per-week positions will provide undergraduates with experience in the nature and operations of a major humanities research center. Students will be paid hourly and receive approximately $1,500 for the summer, contingent on hours actually worked. The Creekmore and Adele Fath Charitable Foundation has provided generous funding for these internships.

Selected interns will choose from a variety of opportunities within the Center, including working with exhibitions, public affairs, marketing, archives, and a variety of curatorial departments (these may include art, film, photography, performing arts, rare books, and manuscripts). Interns will begin on June 10, 2013 and work until August 16, 2013. The experience gained by interns will benefit them in their own research projects, in possible graduate studies, and in careers in such fields as librarianship, museum studies, archival or curatorial work, as well as public affairs, marketing, and public programming.

Interested undergraduates can find more information about the internships, including a list of past projects here: http://www.hrc.utexas.edu/about/internships/undergraduate/

Eligibility: University of Texas undergraduates must have been enrolled for at least six hours during the spring 2013 semester, with plans to enroll in the fall or they must be enrolled for at least three credit hours during the summer 2013 session. Undergraduates from other academic institutions must have been enrolled at their institution during the spring 2013 semester for at least six semester hours or must be enrolled in their institution for three semester hours during the summer. Students from other academic institutions will need to provide proof of spring (or summer) enrollment and classification before being appointed to the position.

To Apply: Applicants should submit a one-page resumé, a cover letter from the student describing his/her interests and qualifications, and two letters of recommendation from faculty members or others familiar with the student's professional qualifications. Letters of recommendation should be addressed to Danielle Brune Sigler, Assistant Director and Curator for Academic Programs, and should be submitted in sealed, signed envelopes together with all application materials. Complete applications, including letters of recommendation, must be received by March 15 for consideration. Late submissions will not be considered.

TRIBEZA seeks Editorial Assistant
Apply by: April 1

TRIBEZA, Austin’s leading arts and culture magazine, is seeking a part-time Editorial Assistant beginning this summer. As one of two editorial staff members of a publication reaching 66,000 readers a month, the Editorial Assistant will work with the Editor to develop dynamic print content that highlights the city’s most compelling stories, proof and copyedit the magazine prior to publication, oversee a team of editorial interns, liaison with local public relations firms, and manage blog content. Candidates should be enthusiastic about Austin’s creative community and proficient in features writing, copyediting, and blogging. For more information and to apply, contact Lisa Siva at lisa@tribeza.com.

ACE hiring AmeriCorps members for full-time positions

ACE is currently hiring over 100 AmeriCorps members to serve as full-time literacy tutors in Austin, beginning in September. USEFUL MISCELLANY

About Plan2News
Plan2News is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to plan2newsletter@austin.utexas.edu. News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association and performances and exhibits by Plan II students.

Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events.

Submitting to Plan2News
Please keep in mind that although Plan2News enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as the sole advertisement for a position or an event. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.

Personal and political announcements will not be published in Plan2News. Job and internships announcements must be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter.
To place a news item in Plan2News, you must do the following:

- Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to `planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu`.
- In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
- Give the name of a contact person with phone number or e-mail address.
- Provide an activity date or a deadline.
- Do not use “we” or “I.” Please write your submission in third person.
- Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
- News items will run until your deadline or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.
- The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.
- Send your news item to `planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu` no later than 2 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 2 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 2 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.
