Advisory Council New Members

Hilda and Greg Curran (BA Economics '90)
Greg is the Chief Executive Officer of Wolfcreek Group, a private operating group with a portfolio of midstream service companies, real estate assets, and other private investments. Their son is an Undergraduate Studies freshman at UT and their daughter attends Phillips Academy Andover. Greg and Hilda live in Houston, TX.

Bianna Golodryga (BA Eastern European Studies '00)
Bianna is a seasoned journalist, an on-air anchor and correspondent, and currently the Senior Global Affairs Analyst at CNN. She has been leading the network’s coverage of how COVID-19 has impacted the nation’s education system. Previously, she was a co-host of CBS This Morning, and a News and Finance anchor at Yahoo!, as well as Weekend Good Morning America anchor at ABC News. Bianna and her family live in New York, NY.

Erika Griffith (BA Linguistics, with minors in German and Chinese '92) Non-UT degree (MA George Washington '02)
Erika is a leader within Enterprise Discovery Operations at the Department of Defense at Fort Meade, MD. One segment of her work involves optimizing, and at times revolutionizing, analytic operations within the Department of Defense. Erika lives in Odenton, MD.
Dr. Choquette Hamilton (BA Ethnic Studies & Sociology ’03, PhD in Ed Policy ’12) Non-UT degrees (MS Elementary Education, St. Joseph’s University ’05, MPADM, UPenn ’07) Choquette is the Founder & CEO of RISE Child Development Center, Inc. RISE makes it possible for all children to have access to a transformative early childhood education. Choquette and her family live in Round Rock, TX.

Carrie and Marshall Phaneuf
Carrie (BA Spanish ’95)
Non-UT degree (Law SMU ’98)
Partner, Cobb Martinez Woodward PLLC

Marshall (BA Economics ’95)
Director of Real Estate, AT&T
Carrie, Marshall, and their two daughters live in Dallas, TX.

Laura Sands Non-UT degrees (Sports Medicine, University of Virginia ’90-’92, BA, Baylor, American Studies, Pre-med, ’94, MSN Vanderbilt University ’97) Laura and her husband, Wilson, are parents of an Economics sophomore. Laura is a former family nurse practitioner in Dallas. Laura and Wilson live in Dallas, TX.

Stefanie Scott (BA History, BJ Journalism ’87) Founder, Seismic Communications Stefanie is a strategic communicator with more than three decades of experience in public relations, media, corporate communications, crisis communications, and public affairs. She consults with organizations of all sizes to help solve problems and create opportunities. Stefanie and her husband live in Austin, TX.
Leslie Shaunty (BA Government ‘90)
Non-UT degree (JD University of Virginia ‘93)
Chief Legal Officer, Houston International Insurance Group (HIIG)
Leslie joined HIIG in July 2013 as vice president of legal and is responsible for all company legal and compliance matters and issues including: M&A transactions, litigation management, employment law matters, contract review and insurance regulatory matters. Leslie and her family live in Houston, TX.

Bill Stutts (BA English, High Honors ’73)
Non-UT degree (JD University of Virginia ’76)
Bill joined the University of Texas School of Law as an Adjunct Professor in 1999. Previously he was a partner for thirty years before becoming Senior Council with Baker Botts L.L.P., where he focused on corporate finance, corporate reorganization, bank regulation, equipment finance, and derivatives. Bill has extensive knowledge and experience working with cross-border insolvency issues. Bill and his wife live in Austin, TX.