What is the Asian Studies core courses list?

The Asian Studies core courses list tells you what ANS classes will count toward your major. To be able to use this list effectively, you need to know the following information:

1. Your major
2. Your catalog (2002-2004, 2004-2006, 2006-2008, or 2008-2010)
3. What courses you still lack for your major

Armed with this information, you can easily determine what classes will count toward your major. Below are some examples:

Requirement	Categories that will fulfill requirement
ANS related to East Asia	East Asian History, Japan, China, Other East Asia Courses
ANS related to South Asia	South Asian History, Other South Asia Courses
ANS related to Japan	Japan
South Asian History	South Asian History
Asian Studies (04-06 & earlier)	Any ANS courses (doesn't need to come from core courses)
Core Asian History course (04-06 & earlier)	East Asian History, South Asian History

Note that if you are in the 06-08 or 08-10 catalogs, all of the ANS courses that you want to count toward your major must come from the core courses list. If you are in the 02-04 or 04-06 catalogs, only certain of the ANS courses that you want to count toward your major have to come from the core courses list.
