What is the Asian Studies core courses list?

The Asian Studies core courses list tells you what ANS classes will count toward your major. To be able to use this list effectively, you need to know the following information:

1. Your major
2. Your catalog (2002-2004, 2004-2006, 2006-2008, or 2008-2010)
3. What courses you still lack for your major

Armed with this information, you can easily determine what classes will count toward your major. Below are some examples:

Requirement

- ANS related to East Asia
- ANS related to South Asia
- ANS related to Japan
- South Asian History
- Asian Studies (04-06 & earlier)
- Core Asian History course (04-06 & earlier)

Categories that will fulfill requirement

- East Asian History, Japan, China, General East Asia Courses
- South Asian History, General South Asia Courses
- Japan
- South Asian History
- Any ANS courses (doesn't need to come from core courses)
- East Asian History, South Asian History

Note that if you are in the 06-08 or 08-10 catalogs, all of the ANS courses that you want to count toward your major must come from the core courses list. If you are in the 02-04 or 04-06 catalogs, only certain of the ANS courses that you want to count toward your major have to come from the core courses list.
