CC 348: Dangerous Women in Classical Lit

Expected Learning Outcomes:
- GLOBAL CULTURES FLAG
- Understanding of Depictions of Women in Classical Literature
- Familiarity with Classical Literary Genres
- Strengthening of Critical Reading Skills

Course Description
1. This course is a study of representations of women in classical Greek and Latin literature.
2. This course holds a GLOBAL CULTURES FLAG and therefore it seeks to lead students to reflect on ways in which Greco-Roman culture and literature, in their depictions of women, compare to modern American culture.
3. This course seeks to hear the muffled voices of women in Greco-Roman culture through an in-depth study of literary passages in which women are led to extreme acts of courage and violence.
4. This course welcomes students of all backgrounds and disciplines including Classics, Women’s and Gender Studies, English, European Studies, Humanities, and History.

Important Info
- No Prerequisites Required!
- No Greek or Latin Required!
- For more information, contact the instructor at bfarris@utexas.edu

Instructor: William Farris