Américo Paredes Center for Cultural Studies
Doctoral Portfolio in Cultural Studies
Application

Please print clearly.

Date: _____________________

Name: ____________________________________________

UT EID: ____________________________________________

E-mail Address: ______________________________________

Home Department: ___________________________ GPA: ___________

Year Entered Doctoral Program: _________________________________

Anticipated Date of Graduation: ________________________________

Candidacy Filed: Y____ N____ Date: ______________________

I. Proposed Program of Work. Please list courses already taken or those proposed courses that fit your area of interest. List course #, title, semester taken, grade.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

II. Rationale. Briefly describe, in no more than 2 typewritten pages, how a portfolio in cultural studies would contribute to your overall academic goals.

III. Letter from Advisor. Please attach a letter of approval from your Graduate Adviser.

************************************************************************************************************

Application Approved by Paredes Center for Cultural Studies Director:

________________________________________________________________________

Signature Date

10/2013