
Research Guide for Japanese Studies

Welcome to the Research Guide for Japanese Studies. The Guide consists of a wide variety of resources, available at UT Libraries and open to public, to assist your research/study needs. The Guide includes resources written in English and/or Japanese.

[Available through UT Library] (partly including resources open to public)

- * Printed Reference Materials
- * Databases and Indexes to Articles/Books
- * Current Journals, Periodicals
- * Newspapers
- * Statistics and Data, Government Sources
- * Maps
- * Multimedia Collections

[Open to Public]

- * Electronic Resources

Please refer to the East Asian Studies pages:

- * Resources in the Center for East Asian Studies
- * Resource Search Tips (Romanization etc.)
- * Other Services in the UT Libraries (RLCP etc.)

Printed Reference Materials (Dictionary, Encyclopedia, Handbook, etc.)

@ PCL Stacks unless otherwise specified (as of July 2009)

The printed reference materials, such as dictionary, encyclopedia, and handbook, are listed here, including some electronic reference resources.

You can also search hard-copy reference materials through ReferenceUniverse database at:

<http://www.lib.utexas.edu/indexes/titles.html?id=469> .

ReferenceUniverse provides a searchable database of back-of-the-book indexes to subject encyclopedias and other reference works in a wide variety of subject areas. (For example, you can search an index entry of "Japanese religion" from the Encyclopedia of Religion).

Japan Knowledge is one of the most comprehensive "one-stop" electronic reference portal sites for Japanese Studies, including latest editions of dictionaries, encyclopedias (Encyclopedia Nipponica, Encyclopedia of Japan, Kodansha Encyclopedia of Japan, etc.), periodicals, full-text digitized books such as Toyo Bunko, other reference works (biographies, maps, chronologies, etc.), and digital archives. Nihon rekishi chimei taikai 日本歴史地名大系 is also part of Japan Knowledge database (UT EID required to access).

<English>

- Bibliography of Asian Studies (BAS) (English) (UT EID required)

1971 - present. (University of Michigan)

Updated regularly. Contains records on all subjects (especially humanities and social sciences) pertaining to East, Southeast, and South Asia published worldwide. Includes citations to western-language periodical articles, individually authored monographs (before 1992), chapters in edited volumes, conference proceedings, anthologies, and Festschriften, etc. Corresponds in part to the print Bibliography of Asian Studies. With "Browse the BAS by Country-Subject" function, choose Japan then a category and subcategory (e.g., history >> By Period >> Modern (1868-1945)) from the list.

In addition, the following comprehensive databases include articles from several Japanese Studies periodicals.

Look for other specific journals to find articles?

- Go to LIBsearch column in the Library Web site top page, choose “Journals”, then enter the titles or any keywords (e.g., Japanese economy) to search.
- Check the journal's publisher Web site for the databases their articles are indexed.
- Usually databases and indexes have a title list for journal/publications they indexed.
- Ulrich's Periodical Directory Online (UT EID required). Search information on virtually active and ceased periodical, annual, irregular publication, and monographic series published in the United States and throughout the world, including Japan.
- CUFTS (Simon Fraser University Library). Search all the databases and indexes the journal's articles are indexed (by title or ISSNs).
