You are allowed a maximum of 4 "excused absences" without grade penalty during the semester. These days are set aside for your illness, social obligations, official duties, job interviews or any other things that you must attend to.

1. Each subsequent absence will result in a deduction of 0.5 point from your final semester score.
2. If you are absent 8 times (including the "excused absences"), you will be penalized one letter grade with the deduction of 10 numeric points from the semester average, (e.g., A ->B) at the end of the semester.
3. If you are absent 12 times (including the "excused absences"), you will get an "F" for the course.
4. Missing 10 minutes of each class (by arriving late, leaving early or taking a break of more than 10 minutes) will be viewed as a 1/2 absence. If you are 20 minutes late, it is viewed as a full absence.
5. Students using cell phone or texting during class time will be counted as absent for the day. He or she will be asked to leave the classroom. You will not need to use a computer during this basic reading and writing class.
