This course, as the first part of the second-year Korean, is designed for those who finished KOR 507, or the equivalents with a grade of at least C. The objective of this course is to expand the basics acquired in KOR 506 and 507 and equip students with the intermediate level of proficiency in all four communicative skills: speaking, listening, reading and writing in modern Korean.

Textbook *available at the University Co-Op

Y.Cho & H. Lee & C. Schulz & S. Sohn, 2001 Integrated Korean Intermediate I. Honolulu: University of Hawai'i Press.

Prerequisites: KOR 507 or the equivalents with a grade of at least C.

Grading Policy

Class attendance and participation:	20%
Quizzes:	30%
Mid-term exam (written):	15%
Homework assignments:	15%
Final exam (oral and written):	20% (5/15)

Grading

* All grades are calculated numerically throughout the semester. For transcript purpose, letter grades are given at the end of the semester according to the conversion chart below:

A = 93-100, A- = 90-92

B+ = 87-89, B = 83-86, B- = 80-82

C+ = 77-79, C = 73-76, C- = 70-72

D+ = 67-69, D = 63-66, D- = 60-62

F = 0-59

Please note the following:

* All the announcements about the course and class information, class materials and assignments will be posted on the Blackboard. Please make sure to check the Blackboard regularly.

▪ Attendance: First three absences will be excused; each unjustified absence thereafter will reduce your class participation grade by 0.5 points. Absence due to medical emergency can be excused with an official proof such as doctor's notes, etc.

▪ Homework: Each homework will be posted by Thursday night on the Blackboard and it is due on the next Tuesday. Homework should be turned in promptly on due date in class (to TA). Homework will be graded on a completion basis: wrong answers will not reduce your grade, but unfinished homework will do. Late homework will be accepted with one point subtraction each day. Your lowest homework grade will be dropped at the end of the semester.

- Quizzes: There will be weekly quizzes. Your lowest quiz grade will be dropped at the end of the semester.
- Make-up exams should be taken within two weeks after the designated exam date. After two weeks, only half of the credit will be granted.
- TA sessions: The TA, Jinung Kim, will be in charge of the TA session every Tuesday. Your attendance and participation in the TA sessions will be counted as in the regular sessions.

Some general University notices and policies

* Scholastic Dishonesty: Any act that breaches standards of academic integrity is considered as ‘scholastic dishonesty’ and will be punished according to the University policies. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but not limited to, cheating, unauthorized collaboration, and copying of others’ works.

* Honor Code: The core values of the University of Texas at Austin are learning, discovery, freedom, leadership, individual opportunity, and responsibility. Each member of the University is expected to uphold these values through integrity, honesty, trust, fairness, and respect toward peers and community.

* Religious Holidays: By UT Austin policy, you must notify me of your pending absence at least fourteen days prior to the date of observance of a religious holy day. If you must miss a class, an examination, a work assignment, or a project in order to observe a religious holy day, you will be given an opportunity to complete the missed work within a reasonable time after the absence.”)

* Any student with a documented disability (physical or cognitive) who requires academic accommodations should contact the Services for Students with Disabilities at 471-6259 (voice) or 1-866-329-3986 (Video Phone) as soon as possible to request an official letter outlining authorized accommodations.
