SELECTED GRANTS, AWARDS, AND FELLOWSHIPS

External to UT Austin

Research Stipend, Rockefeller Archive Center, 2018-2019.

Bordin/Gillette Fellowship, support for research on the papers of Marston Bates, Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan, 2017.

Price/Webster Prize for best article appearing in Isis during the years 2013-2015, awarded by the History of Science Society for “Ark and Archive: Making a Place for Long-term Research on Barro Colorado Island, Panama,” 2016.

Smithsonian Postdoctoral Fellowship at the Smithsonian Institution Archives and the National Museum of American History, advisors: Pamela Henson and Jeffrey Stine, 2013.

University Prize Fellowship, UW Madison, 2008-2009, 2011-2012.

Smithsonian Predoctoral Fellowship at the Smithsonian Institution Archives and the National Museum of American History, advisors: Pamela Henson and Jeffrey Stine, June 1-August 31, 2010

History of Science Society Travel Grant, 2009 and 2010.

National Science Foundation Integrative Graduate Education and Research Traineeship Program (NSF-IGERT) Fellow, Certificate on Humans and the Global Environment (CHANGE), UW Madison, 2007-2008, 2009-2010.

Montana State University Graduate Achievement Award, 2007.

Smithsonian Institution Short-Term Visitor Travel Grant to research at the Smithsonian Institution Archives, advisor: Pamela Henson, October 1-14, 2006.

UT Austin

Faculty Fellowship, Humanities Institute, 2018-2020.

LLILAS-Benson Visiting Resource Professor (VRP) Program sponsorship of Dr. Manuel Valdés Pizzini, University of Puerto Rico at Mayagüez. Awarded to nomination proposal co-written with Carlos E. Ramos-Scharrón, Department of Geography and Environment, 2018-2019.

Scholarly Activity Grant, Department of History, 2018.

Special Research Grant, Office of the Vice President for Research, 2018.

College Research Fellowship, College of Liberal Arts, Fall 2017.

Research Fellowship, Institute for Historical Studies, 2015-2016.

Summer Research Assignment, College of Liberal Arts, Summer 2015.

Writing Flag Faculty Retreat, School of Undergraduate Studies, May 11-12, 2015.

Fellow of the John E. Green Regents Professorship in History, January-August 2015.

Supplemental College Research Fellowship, College of Liberal Arts, Fall 2013.

PRESENTATIONS

Academic Conferences

[Upcoming] Panelist, "Roundtable: After Maria: What all Environmental Historians Can Learn from the Work of Caribbeanists," American Society for Environmental History Annual Meeting, Columbus, Ohio, April 10-14, 2019.

"Corporate Science in the 'Banana Republics': Research and the United Fruit Company Lands," History of Science Society Annual Meeting, Seattle, Washington, November 1-4, 2018.

"Science, Land, and the United Fruit Company," Agricultural History Society Annual Meeting, St. Petersburg, Florida, May 24-26, 2018.

Session chair, "Economics of Latin American Agricultural Technologies," Agricultural History Society Annual Meeting, St. Petersburg, Florida, May 24-26, 2018.

"Lesson Planning in Perspectives on Science and Math: Exploring Resources for Students and Instructors," UTeach Conference: Broadening Participation in STEM, Austin, Texas, May 22-24, 2018.

Panelist, "Digital Pedagogy for Environmental Historians: An Interactive Workshop and Roundtable," American Society for Environmental History Annual Meeting, Riverside, California, March 14-18, 2018.

"Land Tenure, Land use, and Long-term Research: The Case of El Yunque, Puerto Rico," History of Science Society Annual Meeting, Toronto, Ontario, November 9-12, 2017.

"From Tropicality to Biodiversity," Biodiversity and its Histories, Columbia University and the New York Botanical Garden, New York, NY, April 24-25, 2017.

Session chair, "Science and the State in China, Mexico, and the U.S.," History of Science Society Annual Meeting, Atlanta, Georgia, November 3-6, 2016.

- “Species Richness and Revolution in the Caribbean: Transforming Tropical Diversity into a ‘Global Resource,’” VIII Simposio de la Sociedad Latinoamericana y Caribeña de Historia Ambiental (SOLCHA), Puebla, México, August 3-5, 2016.
- “Diversity and the Tropics: The ESA and a Century of Tropical Ecology,” in session “The ESA at 100: Historical Perspectives on Ecology and Ecological Management,” Ecological Society of America 100th Annual Meeting, Baltimore, Maryland, August 9-14, 2015.
- “Landscapes of Leisure or Labor?: Making a Place for U.S. Field Biology in the Caribbean.” History of Science Society Annual Meeting, Chicago, Illinois, November 6-9, 2014.
- “Perspectives on Science and Mathematics: Interactive Presentation,” with Van Herd, UTeach Conference, Austin, Texas, May 20, 2014.
- “A ‘Little Panamanian Community’: Science and Labor on Barro Colorado Island.” American Historical Association Annual Meeting, Washington, DC, January 2-5, 2014.
- “Institutionalizing ‘Tropical Biology’: U.S. Science in the Postcolonial Caribbean.” Southern Historical Association Annual Meeting, St. Louis, Missouri, October 31-November 3, 2013.
- “‘Nature’s own laboratory?’: The Construction of Barro Colorado Island a Site for Tropical Ecology.” American Society for Environmental History Annual Meeting, Toronto, Ontario, April 3-6, 2013.
- “‘A Scientist’s Eden’: Disciplining Tropical Biology at Barro Colorado Island.” History of Science Society Annual Meeting, San Diego, California, November 15-18, 2012.
- “A Place for ‘Pure Botany’: The Cinchona Station, Jamaica, and the Origins of American Tropical Ecology,” American Society for Environmental History Annual Meeting, Madison, Wisconsin, March 28-31, 2012 (Session organizer).
- “The Cinchona Botanical Station: American Botany in British Jamaica,” Columbia History of Science Group Annual Meeting, Friday Harbor Biological Research Station, March 9-11, 2012.
- “Sixty-one Years of Soledad: University and Corporate Science at Harvard’s Research Station in Soledad, Cuba, 1898-1959,” History of Science Society Annual Meeting, Montréal, Quebec, November 4-7, 2010 (Session organized with Christine Manganaro).
- Participant in the ASU-MBL History of Biology Seminar: “From Linnaeus to the Encyclopedia of Life: Tracking Diversity in the Natural World,” Woods Hole, Massachusetts. May 19-26, 2010.
- “Imagining a Tropical Laboratory: U.S. Science in the Caribbean after 1898,” History of Science Society Annual Meeting, Phoenix, Arizona, November 19-22, 2009.
- “‘Birdskins are capital’: Western Expansion and the Geography of Nineteenth-Century American Ornithological Collection,” American Society for Environmental History Annual Meeting, Boise, Idaho, March 12-16, 2008.
- “Names and Places: The American Ornithologists’ Union Code of Nomenclature and the Geography of Collection in the U.S. West,” 4th Annual Michael P. Malone Memorial Conference: “Natural and Unnatural Geographies,” Chico Hot Springs, Pray, Montana, January 17-21, 2007.
- “‘Without rule or example...’: Nineteenth Century Codes of Zoological Nomenclature,” Columbia History of Science Group Annual Meeting, Friday Harbor Biological Research Station, February 24-26, 2006.

Invited Presentations

- American Tropics: The Caribbean Roots of Biodiversity Science*, Tropical Conservation and Development Program, Center for Latin American Studies, University of Florida, November 27, 2018.
- Seminar and author question and answer session on American Tropics: The Caribbean Roots of Biodiversity Science, Earth and Environmental Sciences Working Group, Consortium for the History of Science, Medicine, and Technology, Philadelphia, PA, online via web conferencing software, October 3, 2018.
- “Perspectives on Science and Mathematics,” Pre-Conference Retreat, UTeach Conference: Broadening Participation in STEM, Austin, Texas, May 22, 2018.
- “Ecology and U.S. Empire: Tensions of a Place-Based Science,” 10th Anniversary Symposium: Advancing the Interdisciplinary Environment, University of Wisconsin-Madison, Madison, WI, November 3-5, 2017.
- “Tropical Biology and the History of Biodiversity,” Smithsonian Botanical Symposium: Exploring the Natural World: Plants, People and Places, National Museum of Natural History Department of Botany and United States Botanic Garden, Washington, DC, May 19 2017.
- Seminar and author question and answer session on “‘The Jungle at Our Door’: Panama and American Ecological Imagination in the Twentieth Century,” Caribbean and Atlantic Studies Working Group, Texas A&M University, February 2, 2017.
- Seminar and author question and answer session on “Ark and Archive: Making a Place for Long-Term Research on Barro Colorado Island, Panama,” Biological Sciences Working Group, Consortium for the History of Science, Medicine, and Technology, Philadelphia, PA, online via web conferencing software, October 27, 2016.
- “Making ‘Jungle Island’: How Barro Colorado Became a Place for Science,” Bambi Seminar, Barro Colorado Island, Panamá, June 16, 2016.
- “The Panama Canal: From the Conquest of Nature to the Construction of New Ecologies,” with Marixa Lasso, Ciudad del Saber, Panamá, June 15, 2016.
- “Why do Biologists Work Where They Work in the Tropics?: The History and Geography of Tropical Research Stations,” Tupper Seminar, Smithsonian Tropical Research Institute, Panamá, Panamá, June 14, 2016.
- “A Laboratory for Tropical Ecology: Colonial Models and American Science at Cinchona, Jamaica,” Spaces of Ecological Knowledge: Exploring the Geographies of a Field Science, Interdisciplinary Workshop, Faculty for Arts and Culture, Maastricht University, Netherlands, November 20-21, 2014.
- Discussant of “Oceanic environment(s): Places of Marine Botany in the 19th and 20th Centuries,” by Franziska Torma, Spaces of Ecological Knowledge: Exploring the Geographies of a Field Science, Interdisciplinary Workshop, Faculty for Arts and Culture, Maastricht University, Netherlands, November 20-21, 2014.
- “Tropical Encounters and the Idea of Biodiversity,” Food for Thought Lecture Series, Austin, Texas, August 18, 2014.
- “A Tale of Two Research Stations,” Smithsonian Institution Archives, Washington, DC, October 23, 2013.

“Mapping the History of Botany: Using JSTOR Plant Science for Historical Research,” 4th Global Plants Initiative Meeting, Smithsonian Tropical Research Institute, Panamá, Panamá, January 10-14, 2011.

“From Luxuriant Tropics to Biodiversity Hotspot: A History of U.S. Biology in the Caribbean,” poster presentation, Conference for Sustainability IGERTS 2, Tempe, Arizona, October 8-10, 2009.

“Situating Biogeography: Toward a Historical Account of Post-Darwinian Distribution Studies,” poster, 2008 IGERT Project Meeting, Arlington, Virginia, May 18-20, 2008.

Presentations at UT Austin

Panelist, “Difficult Dialogues/Planet Texas 2050 Teaching Workshop,” Office of the Vice President for Research, Planet Texas 2050, and the Humanities Institute, August 31, 2018.

“American Tropics,” History Faculty New Book Series, Institute for Historical Studies, February 8, 2018.

Responder, “How Louisiana’s Boomtowns Created—and Lost—An Oil Boom, 1901-1935,” by Henry Alexander Wiencek, Workshop, Institute for Historical Studies, January 29, 2018.

“Climate Change Denial: Why History Matters,” Notwithstanding the Evidence: Historians on Denialism Series, Institute for Historical Studies, October 5, 2017.

Introductory speaker, “Bridging the Two Cultures: Perspectives on Teaching STEM Educators the History of Science,” Summer Teachers' Institute: What's STEM got to do with it? Teaching Social Studies in a Science and Tech-Obsessed World, Hemispheres: the International Outreach Consortium, College of Liberal Arts, June 6, 2017.

Panelist, “Deep History,” Institute for Historical Studies, April 13, 2017.

Panelist, “The Age of Man: What are the Scientific and Social Implications of the Anthropocene?” 10th Annual Polymathic Scholars Chautauqua, College of Natural Sciences, April 4, 2017.

“Tropical Field Stations and the Global Distribution of Ecological Knowledge: Some Historical Perspective,” PopBio Seminar, Department of Integrative Biology, March 2, 2017.

Responder, “Habitat and Habitus: Woodland Peoples in an Agrarian Society,” by Sumit Guha, Workshop, Institute for Historical Studies, November 14, 2016.

“The History and Geography of Tropical Science: The Legacies of Field Stations,” Geography Colloquium, September 2, 2016.

“Biological Diversity: From a ‘Tropical Problem’ to a ‘Global Crisis,’” Workshop, Institute for Historical Studies, February 8, 2016.

Responder, “Writing a Deep History of ‘Humboldt’s Current,’” by Kristin Wintersteen, Workshop, Institute for Historical Studies, December 1, 2014.

“The Tropics and the Idea of Biodiversity,” History and Philosophy of Science Colloquium, September 12, 2014.

Presentations at UW Madison

“Taming ‘Jungle Island’: The Transformation of Barro Colorado Island into a Field Station for Tropical Biology,” History of Science Colloquium, September 7, 2012.

“Sixty-one Years of Soledad: University and Corporate Science at Harvard’s Research Station in Soledad, Cuba, 1898-1959,” History of Science Brownbag, October 22, 2010.

- “Imagining a Tropical Laboratory,” Center for Culture, History, and Environment Graduate Student Symposium, April 4, 2009.
- “Placing the Idea of Biodiversity: U.S. Tropical Biology in the Caribbean after 1898,” History of Science Brownbag, October 23, 2009.
- “People, Plants, and Culture: Bringing Humanistic Inquiry to a Botanical Database,” with Gregg Mitman, Sara Hotchkiss, and Lynn Nyhart, Center for Culture, History, and Environment Colloquium, October 22, 2008.
- “The Natural History of Nearly Everything: A Publishing Trend,” with Lynnette Regouby and Meridith Beck Sayre, History of Science Brownbag, March 7, 2008.
- “‘Birdskins are capital’: Western Expansion and the Geography of Nineteenth-Century American Ornithological Collection,” Center for Culture, History, and Environment Colloquium, March 5, 2008.

TEACHING

Courses Taught at UT Austin

Undergraduate

- “History of the Modern Life Sciences,” HIS 322G.
- “Perspectives on Science and Math,” HIS 329U/UTeach Natural Sciences.
- “Global Environmental History,” HIS 350L.

Graduate

- “Introduction to Environmental History,” HIS 381.
- “Independent Study: History and Epistemology of Science in Science Pedagogy,” HIS 391C.

Advising

Ph.D. Committee Member

- Sarah Jenevein, in progress.
- Zhaojin Zeng, “Nourishing Shanxi: Indigenous Entrepreneurship, Regional Industry, and the Transformation of a Chinese Hinterland Economy, 1907-2004,” 2018.
- Edward Flavian Shore, Ph.D. in History, “Avengers of Zumbi: The Nature of Fugitive Slave Communities and Their Descendants in Brazil,” 2018.
- Felipe Fernandes Cruz, Ph.D. in History, “Flight of the Steel Toucans: Aeronautics and Nation-Building in Brazil’s Frontiers,” 2016.
- Blake Charles Scott, Ph.D. in History, “From Disease to Desire: Panama and the Rise of the Caribbean Vacation,” 2016.
- Trevor Mark Simmons, Ph.D. in History, “Selling the African Wilds: A History of the Safari Tourism Industry in East Africa, 1900-1939,” 2015.

Plan II Honors Thesis Supervisor

- Nina Lemieux, “Australian Eugenics from 1900 to 1961,” 2017.
- Michael E. Baumgartner, “Blind Men and a Neuron: Problems and Perspectives in Neuroscience Research,” 2015. (Selected as a Model Thesis by Plan II.)

Plan II Honors Thesis Second Reader

- Shelley Broman, “Dam It!: Austin's Water Supply, Use, and Technology Past, Present, and Future,” 2016.

Sarah Douglas, “The Sea In-Situ: Using Immersive Experiences to Further the Field of Oceanography,” 2015.

Teaching Assistants Mentored

Sarah Jenevein, “Perspectives on Science and Math,” HIS 329U (two sections), 2019.

John Carranza, “Perspectives on Science and Math,” HIS 329U (two sections), 2018.

Daniel Jean-Jacques, “Perspectives on Science and Math,” HIS 329U (four sections), 2015; HIS 329U (two sections), 2016; “History of the Modern Life Sciences,” HIS 322G, 2017.

Undergraduate Interns Mentored

Nathan Wong, UTeach, 2016.

Participation in Professional Development Activities

Consultations with Faculty Innovation Center, 2016-2018.

Perspectives on Science and Math Workshop, UTeach Institute, May 23, 2017.

Independent Inquiry Flag Lunch Workshop, May 15, 2017.

Cultural Diversity & Global Cultures Flags Faculty Lunch Series, 2017.

University Writing Center Course Specialist Consultant Program support granted for HIS 329U, Fall 2016.

Writing Flag Faculty Retreat, School of Undergraduate Studies, support granted for HIS 329U, May 11-12, 2015.

Perspectives on Science and Math Working Group, UTeach Institute, January 22-23, 2015.

Perspectives on Science and Math Workshop, UTeach Institute, May 20, 2014.

Past Teaching Experience

Saint Olaf College

“American Environmental History,” History Department, Spring 2013.

University of Wisconsin, Madison

“Western Culture: Science, Technology, Philosophy II” and “Science in the 20th Century,” Teaching Assistant, History of Science Department, 2010-2011.

Montana State University

“Darwinian Revolution,” “Latin American History,” “American History Before 1860,” “History of Japan,” Teaching Assistant, History and Philosophy Department, 2005-2007.

SELECTED SERVICE AND RELATED EXPERIENCE

National and International

Peer reviewer for Harvard University Press, Routledge, Swiss National Science Foundation, and the journals Agricultural History, Biotropica, Environmental History, Environment and Planning D: Society and Space, and Historical Studies in the Natural Sciences.

George Perkins Marsh Prize Committee, American Society for Environmental History, 2017-2018.

Co-chair, Women’s Caucus of the History of Science Society, 2015-2017.

History of Science Society Forum for the History of Science in America, Philip J. Pauly Publication Prize Committee, 2011-2013.

History of Science Society Forum for the History of Science in America Steering Committee, 2010-2013.

UT Austin

Faculty panel, Bridging Disciplines Program in Environment and Sustainability, 2017-present.

Co-chair, History and Philosophy of Science, Medicine, and Technology Symposium, 2014-2015.

Department of History, UT Austin

Executive Committee, 2017-2018.

Committee on Equity, Summer 2018-present.
