

Students are encouraged to apply as early as possible. Application deadline is February 15th, 2021.

PLEASE RETURN THIS APPLICATION to:
 Prof. Antonella Del Fattore-Olson, Program Director, HRH # 2.106 B, via email: adolson@austin.utexas.edu

The Rome Study Program (RSP) offers the opportunity to earn three or six credit hours at UT.

Please indicate which class/classes you will take in Rome:

_____ - ITL 320 – Advanced Italian (Francesca Beretta, AI, PhD Candidate) Prerequisite: ITL 611 C

The course is taught in Italian.
 You will improve your skills in writing, speaking and reading in Italian, as well as increase your level of comprehension. You will review grammatical structures and elaborate the more complex ones. Furthermore, you will expand your knowledge of Italian culture through the use of educational videos and through live interaction with Italians whom you will encounter in Rome.

_____ - ITC 330 – Rome Sets the Stage: Historical and Social Changes in Italy
 (Antonella Del Fattore Olson, Distinguished Senior Lecturer, Program Director) Prerequisite: None

The course is taught in English.
 You will acquaint yourself with Rome and a passage of time in the Eternal City through frequent field trips. You will interactively explore and analyze Italian history and social changes from the unification of Italy to the new immigration and current events. Guest speakers such as writers and documentaries directors will enrich your knowledge.

_____ -ITL 365 – Conference Course (Olson, Beretta) Prerequisite: ITL 320 and/or any other upper-division Italian course

The course is taught in Italian. Content will be discussed individually with students.

Suggested sequence of courses in Italian in relation to the Rome Study Program (RSP):

Fall '20	Spring '21	Summer '21 in Rome - First Summer Session
ITL 601 C	ITL 611 C	ITL 320 and ITC 330
X	ITL 601 C	ITC 330
All upper-division courses		ITL 365 and ITC 330

For Students on Financial Aid: Please be aware that it is required that you take SIX credit hours in the summer in order to be eligible for financial aid. If students can only take THREE credit hours in Rome, they should take the remaining THREE credit hours in the second summer session at UT.

Please write a brief paragraph in which you specify the reason/s for going and comment on your ability to adapt to foreign ways of living (i.e. a host family) and to immerse yourself in a new cultural environment:
