

War and Conflict

Hemispheres Summer Institute 2014

Tuesday, June 10, 2014

8:30 am	Continental Breakfast
9:00 – 9:15 am	Welcome and Introductions Hemispheres Staff
9:15 – 10:30 am	Keynote presentation: A Long Century of Wars and their Continuing Legacies Dr. Jeremi Suri, Mack Brown Distinguished Chair for Leadership in Global Affairs
10:30 – 10:45 am	Break
10:45 – 12:00 am	Russia and Conflict in the 21st Century: What We've Learned from Chechnya, The Sochi Olympics, and Ukraine Dr. Thomas Garza, Department of Slavic and Eurasian Studies
12:00– 1:00 pm	Catered Lunch
1:00– 2:15 pm	Alternative Histories of the First World War Dr. Philippa Levine, Department of History
2:15 – 2:30	Break
2:30 – 4:00 pm	Docent Tour of the Harry Ransom Center's World War I Exhibit

Wednesday, June 11, 2014

- 8:30 am Continental Breakfast
- 9:00 – 10:15 am The Evolution of Mexico’s Drug War and Its Implications for the U.S.
Dr. Ricardo Ainslie, Department of Educational Psychology
- 10:15 – 10:30 am Break
- 10:30 – 11:45 am Memories of the American War in Vietnam
Jessica Lockrem, PhD Candidate in Anthropology, Rice University
- 11:45 am – 12:45 pm Catered Lunch
- 12:45 – 2:00 pm Humanity in War: Engaging Students as Global Thinkers
Dr. Shirin Khosropour, Psychology, Coordinator of Peace and Conflict Studies, Austin Community College
- 2:00 - 2:15 pm Break
- 2:15 – 3:30 pm Voces Oral History Project: Documenting the Latino/a Experience during times of War
Dr. Maggie Rivas-Rodriguez, School of Journalism
- 3:30 – 4:00 pm Classroom Resources: Applying the TEKS to Primary Sources at the Briscoe Center for American History
Catherine Bell, Information Studies, UT Austin

Thursday, June 12, 2014

- 8:30 am Continental Breakfast
- 9:00 – 10:15 am An Analysis of Media Coverage of the Egyptian Demonstrations of 2011
Bahaa Ghobrial, doctoral student, Radio-Television-Film
- 10:15 – 10:30 am Break
- 10:30 – 11:45 am Child Soldiers in Nepal: A Case-Study in Global Awareness and Teaching About Violence with Compassion in ‘Non-Conflict’ Zones” Part I
Dr. Kathleen M. Gallagher, International Relations, St. Mary’s University
- 11:45 am – 12:45 pm Catered Lunch
- 12:45–2:00 The Shatter Zone: Russia’s Neo-Imperialist Policies in the Post-Soviet Space
Dr. Bella Jordan, Department of Slavic and Eurasian Studies
- 2:00–2:15 Break
- 2:15–3:30 The EU’s Role in European Security: Inscrutable, Incapable, or Invisible?
Dr. Michael Moser, Department of Government
- 3:30 – 4:00 pm Classroom Resources: Child Soldiers In Nepal, Part II
Vincent Sanchez, International Relations and Conflict Transformation, St. Mary’s University

Friday, June 13, 2014

8:30 am	Continental Breakfast
9:00 – 10:15 am	Geography, Climate Change, Disease, and Conflict Christopher Rose, History and Middle Eastern Studies
10:15 – 10:30 am	Break
10:30 – 11:45 am	Classroom Resources and Applications Neil Loewenstern, Liberal Arts and Science Academy, Austin
11:45 am – 12:00	Wrap Up; Completion of Evaluation Forms