

Institute for Historical Studies Fellows, 2011-12

Visiting Research Fellows

Brian Cowan

McGill University

The British Coffeehouse and the British Empire, 1650-1850

Linda Darling

University of Arizona

Empire and Elites in the Ottoman Seventeenth Century

Barbara Krauthamer

University of Massachusetts, Amherst

Runaway Slave Women in the Plantation South

Tanalís Padilla

Dartmouth College

The Unintended Lessons of Revolution: Schoolteachers in the Mexican Countryside, 1940-1970

Internal Research Fellows

Virginia Garrard-Burnett

The Material World and the Devil in Mexico and Guatemala

Matthew J. Butler

A Revolutionary Feast? Mexico's Schism & the Politics of Devotion in the Nahua-Totonac Sierra

Neil Foley

Latino USA: Mexicans in the Remaking of America

Penne Restad

The Third Sex: Historians, Desire, and the Conception of the American Consumer

Cynthia Talbot

Recasting the Medieval Indian Past: Delhi in the Making of the "Last Hindu Emperor"

Internal Research Fellow

Robyn Metcalfe

Cash, Commerce, and the City: The Smithfield Cattle Market in 19th Century London

Visiting Research Associates

Christopher Albi

Independent Scholar
Contested Legalities in Colonial Mexico

Christopher Ernst

Independent Scholar
The Transgressive Stage: The Culture of Public Entertainment in Late Victorian Toronto

Luis Gordo Pelaez

Postdoctoral Fellow, Ministry of Education, Spain
Urban Planning and Civic Architecture in the Viceroyalty of New Spain

Rafael Enrique Acevedo Puello

Ph.D. candidate, University of the Andes, Colombia
The political uses of the past. The invention and circulation of a provincial patriotic history in the State of Bolivar, 1830-1860.

Enrique G. Ramirez

Ph.D. candidate, Princeton University
Architecture, Aeronautics, and Air Resistance, 1881-1914

Gerda W. Ray

Associate Professor, University of Missouri, St. Louis
Immigration and private prisons, 1980-2000

Woodruff D. Smith

Professor Emeritus, University of Massachusetts, Boston
A Study of Respectability as a Global Cultural Pattern

Serena Sprungl

Ph.D. candidate, Yale University
Ethnic Mexican Women and the Gendered Politics of Public Debate, 1930s - 1950s

Selina Todd

Associate Professor, St. Hilda's College, Oxford University
The People: A History of the British Working Class Since 1918

Sam C. Vong

Ph.D. candidate, Yale University
Compassionate Politics: Care and Suffering in the History of Southeast Asian Refugee Migrations, 1960s-1980s