1. Plan II Chamber Music Society Event

Enjoy an evening of beautiful chamber music as members of the Plan II Chamber Music Society perform works by Mozart, Shostakovich, Brahms, Prokofiev, songs from Wicked, and more! The recital is this Friday, November 13 at 5:30 p.m. in Jessen Auditorium (located in Homer Rainey Hall, HRH) and will be followed by a reception sponsored by the UHC.

Admission is free. E-mail <planiiichambermusic@gmail.com> for more information. Join the Facebook event: <http://www.facebook.com/event.php?eid=171473214915> if you are interested.

2. Broccoli Project Presents: “Lachrymosia: a tale of woeful dissolution”

The Broccoli Project Presents: Chaoes by Plan II Sophomore, Hannah Bisewski

What starts out as the simple tale of an old man recounting a story from his past quickly becomes an odd kitschy sort of drama, one of scandalous betrayal, pirates, whimsical suicides, or none of that at all. The truth of the matter remains evasive, forcing us to confront the truth behind fiction and the falsity behind perceived reality. Or, to just celebrate the extremity of theatre.

LOCATIONS AND DATES

11/13 - 7 p.m. - ART Auditorium
11/14, 11/15, 11/20, 11/21, and 11/22-7 p.m. - BUR 106 (Burdine Auditorium)

Tickets are $5 at the door.

3. Open Seats in Spring 2010 Graduate Course E 392M

Professor MacKay is opening a few seats in her spring 2010 Graduate Course “E392M: The Melodramatic Impulse in Victorian Literature” to Plan II Students. The course meets MW 3:30-5:00 p.m. in PAR C (unique 35285). Interested students should contact Dr. MacKay <mackay@mail.utexas.edu> directly regarding enrollment.

Check the COLA website for more information and a course description.

4. New Spring TC 125K Civic Viewpoints

This course is taught by Lee Walker on Mondays from 1-3:15 p.m. (7 sessions over the semester) in PAR 301. “The purpose of this class is to define and explore civic engagement, with the intention of inspiring students to become civic entrepreneurs themselves in their respective areas of interest. We will survey the topics of Justice, Place, Transit, Entrepreneurship, Education, and Healthcare.”

Perspectives on...The Future

This course is taught by Dr. Michael Stoff, the Director of Plan II. Over the semester there will be 7 sessions on Wednesdays from 7-9:15 p.m., January 27 through March 10. CAL 200 Unique number 43565

The topic of this year’s class is “The Future.” We think about the future all the time—from the moment we wake up and consider the day before us to the moment we go to sleep and wonder what tomorrow will bring. The Perspectives course rings together a panel of faculty members from various disciplines to discuss their views on a given topic.

5. Plan II Spring Receptionist Needed

Plan II is in need of an afternoon receptionist for the Spring 2010 semester. The hours for the position will be 3:00 - 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday and the pay will be between $8.75 and $9.00 per hour DOE. Plan II receptionists are an integral part of the Plan II team with primary responsibilities that include greeting visitors, answering and routing phone calls, providing clerical assistance to Plan II staff, and ensuring that the Plan II suite stays neat and tidy. This position is open only to Plan II students who are available to work the M-F 3:00-5:00 PM shift in its entirety. Applications are available online at <http://www.utexas.edu/hr/forms/student_nonbenefits_eligible_emp_app.pdf> Please submit completed applications to the Plan II front desk by Monday, November 16th. For additional information, email Laurie at <L.Gonzales@email.utexas.edu>

6. Plan II/KIPP Program

The Plan II/KIPP Partnership will be starting its second annual PlanTutoring program this semester for the 2009-2010 school year. KIPP Austin Collegiate is looking for energetic and hardworking Plan II students to assist them in tutoring high school students in all subjects. PlanTutoring allows tutors to volunteer as many hours as they would like but requires a one-hour commitment per week. KIPP Austin Collegiate has expressed a high demand for tutors this semester. If there are any sophomores or juniors interested in being involved in the growing Plan II/KIPP Partnership, then PlanTutoring is a great program to join. Please contact Jessica Collins by email <jessann@mail.utexas.edu> if you are interested.

EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIPS

1. Teach For America Seeks Operations Coordinators

In the summer of 2010, Teach For America will run eight institutes in Atlanta, Chicago, Houston, Los Angeles, New York City, Philadelphia, Phoenix, and the Mississippi Delta. Across the eight institutes, about 4,900 new Teach For America corps members will come together for an intensive five-week, pre-service training program. The purpose of the institute is to prepare corps members to produce significant academic gains with their students and assume full-time teaching responsibilities in the fall. Each institute team works closely with local school districts so that new corps members can deliver a rigorous academic summer school program to more than 1,500 children in that school district.

Teach For America seeks operations coordinators to support the organization’s efforts to manage a summer training institute that serves over 500 new teachers and 120 staff members. Operations coordinators play an integral role in the daily operations at institute. Operations coordinators are guaranteed a salary of $2,500—$3,000 and lodging and food will be provided by Teach For America.

Operations Coordinators:
• Implement and maintain staffing operational systems at the host university site
• Work with a direct manager to coordinate special projects for the institute community
• Develop excellent organizational and time management systems
• Learn to develop detailed project plans to attain ambitious goals

Application deadline: January 24, 2010
For a complete job description and application instructions, visit <http://www.teachforamerica.org/careers/institute>
Please contact <institutestaff@teachforamerica.org> with any questions.

Scholarships

1. Atlas Shrugged Undergraduate Essay Contest

The BB&T Chair for the Study of Objectivism, held by Dr. Tara Smith in the Philosophy Department, is sponsoring the Second Annual Undergraduate Essay Contest on Ayn Rand’s novel, Atlas Shrugged.

First prize is $1750, second prize is $1250, and third prize is $1000. All full-time undergraduates registered at UT for the 2009-2010 academic year – including those students who participated in last year’s contest – are eligible to submit an entry.

The submission deadline is February 3, 2010, which is shortly after the spring semester begins, so we are encouraging students to use the winter break to read the novel and work on their essays.

For the essay questions and full details, please visit http://links.utexas.edu/sites/bbtchair/essay-contest/ or email bbtchair@austin.utexas.edu.

2. Fellowship Opportunities for Undergraduate Sophomores

Are you a sophomore interested in a career in international affairs? Want to get funding for study abroad, language study, and grad school?

The IIP Fellowship is one of the most prestigious fellowships in international affairs available to minority students, helping students gain practical skills necessary for success in foreign policy careers in the public, private, and non-profit sectors.

APPLICATION WEBSITE: http://www.uncfsp.org/register

DEADLINE: March 15, 2010
3. Undergraduate Research Award
The Senate of College Councils and the School of Undergraduate Studies invite you to apply for this semester’s Undergraduate Research Award. The award seeks to encourage students to get involved in research early in their undergraduate experience. Eligible applicants include students assisting a faculty member with a research project as well as students conducting independent research.

Applicants must be enrolled for 12 hours of coursework at the University of Texas at Austin. Preference will be given to first-year and second-year students, though all undergraduates are encouraged to apply.

One winner will receive a $1,000 award from the Senate of College Councils. The award recipient will be expected to compose a brief paper reflecting on their experiences at the end of the academic year.

The deadline for all materials is November 20, 2009 at 5 p.m.. Submit your application in person to Becky Carreon in the Senate of College Councils’ office, SSB 4.206. Please contact Austin Gunter at <a_gunter@mail.utexas.edu> with questions regarding the application.

4. Elie Wiesel Essay Contest
Every year the Elie Wiesel Foundation sponsors an essay competition. This year the suggested topics are:

What does your own experience tell you about the relationship between politics and ethics and, in particular, what could be done to make politics more ethical?

Articulate with clarity an ethical issue you have encountered and analyze what it has taught you about ethics and yourself.

Carefully examine the ethical aspects or implications of a major literary work, a film or a significant piece of art.

Clearly analyze the relationship between religion and ethics in today's world.

How does a recent political or cultural event shed light on the ethics of rebellion/revolution?

Contest Deadline: January 8, 2010

There are very substantial rewards for the winners: Winning students receive $10,000 in cash prizes, an internship, and a chance for their essay to be published in a nationally recognized publication.

Awards: First Prize - $ 5,000; Third Prize - $1,500; Second Prize - $ 2,500; Two Honorable Mentions - $500 each

1. Humanity in Action Summer Fellowships

Humanity in Action (HIA) is now accepting applications for the 2010 summer fellowship programs in Europe and the United States. See: <http://www.humanityinaction.org/mission> (information on HIA & its mission, programs, application and contact information)

HIA invites applications from college students (current sophomores, juniors, and seniors) and recent graduates (classes of 2008 and 2009) who are intellectually gifted, mature, independent, and passionate about human rights and social justice.

The HIA summer fellowship programs bring together international groups of Fellows to study minority rights and human rights doctrines in democratic societies. Separate programs will take place for five weeks in Amsterdam, Berlin, Copenhagen, New York, and Warsaw. Applications are due on January 23, 2010

2. UT Pre-Health Trip to Costa Rica and Nicaragua

A team of UT Pre-Med students will be going to Costa Rica and Nicaragua from January 2-15 through International Service Learning. They will be setting up and treating patients in rural clinics in both countries. All UT Pre-Health students are welcome, and there are two students from Plan II confirmed for the trip. The trip will cost $1885/person and the student will be responsible for airfare, which currently is about $500 at the cheapest. Plan II students are working together to raise funds. There will be a team manager from International Service Learning with the students at all times in Central America. The team needs a minimum of 6 people, and there are only 4 currently signed up. For more information, please contact Plan II Pre-Medical Society Student Liaison Saloni Singh at <salonisingh9@gmail.com>.

3. The Teresa Lozano Long Institute of Latin American Studies Travel Grants
The Teresa Lozano Long Institute of Latin American Studies is pleased to announce a competition for nine $5,000 travel grants for study abroad in Latin America in spring 2010, and, possibly, in summer 2010 (summer is still to be determined). We invite all majors from the College of Liberal Arts who are planning study abroad to Latin America to apply. Applications, including one professor recommendation per student, must be completed and received by us by November 30, 2009. 6. UT in D.C. Archer Program
November 16, 2009 (Monday) at 12:00 p.m. in FAC 4
November 17, 2009 (Tuesday) at 12:30 p.m. in FAC 4
If you would you like to spend a fall or spring semester in Washington, D.C. involved in an internship and taking in-residence UT Austin classes, please see <http://www.utexas.edu/ugs/utindc> and then come to one of the information sessions listed above to find out more. The UT Austin campus coordinator and former Archer Fellows will give an overview of the program and provide you with tips on submitting a competitive application.

Please feel free to make an appointment with Katrina Kosted, coordinator, if you would like to discuss your interest in the program, or if you are unable to attend an info session.

USEFUL MISCELLANY

1. Submitting to the Plan II Newsletter
The Plan II newsletter is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to <planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu>. News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association, as well as performances and exhibits by Plan II students. Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events. Personal and political announcements will not be published in the newsletter, and internships and job announcements should normally be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter. Please keep in mind that although the Plan II newsletter enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as an employer's only means of advertising for a position, a group's only advertisement for an event, etc. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.

To place a news item in the Plan II newsletter, you must do the following, or your messages will not be included:
- Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu.
- In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
- Give the name of a contact person with phone number or e-mail address.
- Provide an activity date or a deadline, whichever is appropriate.
- Do not use “we” or “I.” Please write your submission in third person.
- Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
- News items will run until your deadline, or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.
- The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly-lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.
- Send your news item to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu no later than 3:00 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 3:00 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 3:00 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.
