Broccoli Project: Lachrymosia

Deadline for Undergraduate Research Award Application
1. Winter Voltaire’s Coffee Series

Everyone’s favorite Plan II event from their freshman year is now open to ALL Plan II students in our new Winter Voltaire’s Coffee Series! Join us for an evening of all your favorite things: interesting books, stimulating discussion, amazing professors, engaging fellow students, and food, of course! All VCs will be held between January 21 and January 29, before the homework really starts piling up. Locations will be on campus for easy access, exact location TBA. All VCs are scheduled for 7 p.m. so that the fewest number of classes will conflict as possible. Limited spots are available, so registration is required! Students can register by accessing the link to the registration form on the Plan II website beginning at noon on Monday, November 30th. Registration will close on midnight of Friday, December 4th. Registration is limited to one VC per student. See the Plan II website for more details.

2. “Dionysus in ‘69” Performance

This play by the Rude Mechanicals will be performed at the Off Center starting December 4. Professor Paul Woodruff, one of the hosts for the Winter Voltaire’s Coffee Series, has the following to say about this play: "I saw that play in 1969 when it was a new thing to see a troupe of actors performing naked, and it was also new to see them make use of birthing rituals from New Guinea. I hope that some of you will see "Dionysus in '69" so that we may talk about it in the coffee, but that is not required. If you see it, you will never forget it." More info at <http://rudemechs.blogspot.com/2009/11/dionysus-in-69.html>.

The Broccoli Project Presents: Chaos by Plan II Sophomore, Hannah Bisewski

What starts out as the simple tale of an old man recounting a story from his past quickly becomes an odd kitschy sort of drama, one of scandalous betrayal, pirates, whimsical suicides, or none of that at all. The truth of the matter remains evasive, forcing us to confront the truth behind fiction and the falsity behind perceived reality. Or, to just celebrate the extremity of theatre.

LOCATIONS AND DATES

11/13 - 7 p.m. - ART Auditorium
11/14, 11/15, 11/20, 11/21, and 11/22-7 p.m. - BUR 106 (Burdine Auditorium)

Tickets are $5 at the door.

4. Open Seats in Spring 2010 Graduate Course E 392M

Professor MacKay is opening a few seats in her spring 2010 Graduate Course “E392M: The Melodramatic Impulse in Victorian Literature” to Plan II Students. The course meets MW 3:30-5:00 p.m. in PAR C (unique 35285). Interested students should contact Dr. MacKay <mackay@mail.utexas.edu> directly regarding enrollment. Check the COLA website for more information and a course description.

5. New Spring TC 125K Civic Viewpoints

This course is taught by Lee Walker on Mondays from 1-3:15 p.m. (7 sessions over the semester) in PAR 301. “The purpose of this class is to define and explore civic engagement, with the intention of inspiring students to become civic entrepreneurs themselves in their respective areas of interest. We will survey the topics of Justice, Place, Transit, Entrepreneurship, Education, and Healthcare.”

Perspectives on...The Future

This course is taught by Dr. Michael Stoff, the Director of Plan II. Over the semester there will be 7 sessions on Wednesdays from 7-9:15 p.m., January 27 through March 10. CAL 200 Unique number 43565

The topic of this year’s class is “The Future.” We think about the future all the time—from the moment we wake up and consider the day before us to the moment we go to sleep and wonder what tomorrow will bring. The Perspectives course rings together a panel of faculty members from various disciplines to discuss their views on a given topic.

6. Plan II/KIPP Program

The Plan II/KIPP Partnership will be starting its second annual PlanTutoring program this semester for the 2009-2010 school year. KIPP Austin Collegiate is looking for energetic and hardworking Plan II students to assist them in tutoring high school students in all subjects. PlanTutoring allows tutors to volunteer as many hours as they would like but requires a one-hour commitment per week. KIPP Austin Collegiate has expressed a high demand for tutors this semester. If there are any sophomores or juniors interested in being involved in the growing Plan II/KIPP Partnership, then PlanTutoring is a great program to join. Please contact Jessica Collins by email <jessann@mail.utexas.edu> if you are interested.

ACADEMIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Paper Submissions for History Conference

Beta Alpha Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta (University of Texas at Austin) announces a CfP for its 2010 regional conference. The conference will be hosted by the Department of History at the University of Texas at Austin with an informal gathering on the evening of Friday, February 26, and all day Saturday, February 27, 2009. At the conference, papers will be augmented by a keynote speech at lunch, roundtables and professional sessions.

Call for papers: We solicit papers that present current and recent undergraduate and graduate research, on all historical time periods and geographical areas. Papers should be written in English, discuss a topic from the disciplinary perspective of history, art history, or historically-
2. Submissions for The Student Journal of Latin American Studies

The Student Journal of Latin American Studies at The University of Texas at Austin is accepting papers from graduate and undergraduate students. The Student Journal of Latin American Studies is an interdisciplinary journal that seeks to foster student research on topics relating to Latin America, promote a better understanding of the region, and link the research of graduate and undergraduate students around the world.

We invite all students conducting research related to Latin America to contribute to the journal and encourage faculty and staff across colleges and disciplines to promote this opportunity among their students. In order to be considered for publication, the articles must be submitted by January 4th, 2010.

Articles may be written in English or Spanish and a maximum of 8000 words long.

Those interested in contributing to the Student Journal of Latin American Studies or promoting it will find more information on our website: http://www.SJofLAS.org or http://www.SJofFlAS.org/

If you have any questions or comments, please contact us at sjoflas@gmail.com

3. Undergraduate Research Journal Submissions

Submit your research to the The Undergraduate Research Journal! All research and disciplines welcome. Build your resume and be recognized for your work! Articles can either fall into the long or short article categories- the prize for the top long article is $250; $100 for the short article. Check out this website for more details: http://www.utexas.edu/research/student/uri

Submission deadline is February 1st, 2010.

Employment and Internships

1. Teach For America Seeks Operations Coordinators

In the summer of 2010, Teach For America will run eight institutes in Atlanta, Chicago, Houston, Los Angeles, New York City, Philadelphia, Phoenix, and the Mississippi Delta. Across the eight institutes, about 4,900 new Teach For America corps members will come together for an intensive five-week, pre-service training program. The purpose of the institute is to prepare corps members to produce significant academic gains with their students and assume full-time teaching responsibilities in the fall. Each institute team works closely with local school districts so that new corps members can deliver a rigorous academic summer school program to more than 1,500 children in that school district.

Teach For America seeks operations coordinators to support the organization’s efforts to manage a summer training institute that serves over 500 new teachers and 120 staff members. Operations coordinators play an integral role in the daily operations at institute. Operations coordinators are guaranteed a salary of $2,500—$3,000 and lodging and food will be provided by Teach For America.

Operations Coordinators:
- Implement and maintain staffing operational systems at the host university site
- Work with a direct manager to coordinate special projects for the institute community
- Develop excellent organizational and time management systems
• Learn to develop detailed project plans to attain ambitious goals

Application deadline: January 24, 2010

2. Texas Tribune Internship Opportunity
The new, not-for-profit public media organization, the Texas Tribune <http://www.texastribune.org/about/> is looking for two interns to start immediately. The interns will work on marketing, events and development for the launch of the new organization and its media channels. Interns will work 15 hours or less a week and be paid $7.25/hour. Interns will be doing research, data entry, proposals, marketing, and more. As a start-up in the online publishing space, this internship is a great opportunity to learn from top professionals in Austin and the industry in a small, non-hierarchical environment. To apply, please send your resume to nathan@campus2careers.com. Note: this search is being performed by campus2careers.com <http://campus2careers.com/>.

3. Eastside Community Connection Internship Opportunity
Eastside Community Connection’s mission is to channel the immense potential of hundreds of thousands of young in people in our institutions of higher learning and give them the medium and the training to address some of the biggest issues in the community. Eastside Community Connection offers unparalleled internship opportunities. Our interns have significant responsibilities, including designing our programs, maintaining our budget, and supervising other volunteers. This is not a "sit at your cubicle and make copies" internship - you will make a real impact in our organization and in the community.

Application Due: Friday, November 27th
Application information available at <www.austinecc.org>
Questions? Email <volunteer@austinecc.org>

4. Intellectual Entrepreneurship "Pre-Graduate School Internship."

5. Liberal Arts Career Services Updates
Join the LACS LinkedIn group!
LinkedIn is the most widely used online professional networking site with over 50 million members in over 200 countries. This a great tool in creating your professional network – students are invited to take part – you do not have to be a current working professional to become involved. There are also thousands of jobs posted on LinkedIn nationwide. Once your profile is created, you can join the LACS LinkedIn group and participate in career and job/internship search discussions, special resume collections for employers, notice of job postings, and possible direct contact with employers. Just search for “Liberal Arts Career Services” after your profile is created at http://www.linkedin.com/.

6. “Stress Recess”
Stressed by papers? Tests? Relationship issues? Graduation? For these and other stressors, take a few minutes to check out a new interactive website called “Stress Recess” at <http://www.cmhc.utexas.edu/stressrecess>, a component of the UT Counseling and Mental Health Center. This site is loaded with videos, animation, video games, body scans, quizzes, clickable charts and graphics and practical information tailored to YOU. Learn what causes stress, signs of stress and—most importantly—what you can do to manage stress in healthy ways!

7. Analecta Accepting Entries
Analecta, UT’s official Literary and Arts Journal, is accepting poetry, fiction, drama, and personal essay submissions now through December 4.

16. All winners will be published in Analecta 36 and will receive two free copies of the journal. Prizes of $100 will be awarded to one featured poet and one featured prose writer. Entries are unlimited and will be judged through a blind selection process. Please refer to the detailed submission guidelines at <http://www.utsenate.org/analecta/submissions.htm> before submitting. Entry is open to all students, undergraduate and graduate, at UT and other universities. Email any questions to <analecta.ut@gmail.com>

8. Helping Horns
The University of Texas Student Government is starting a new program called Helping Horns. This program involves University of Texas students going to Crockett High School and/or Reagan High School to "adopt-a-teacher" or Saturday TAKS tutoring. Both of these schools are in great need of help with academic tutoring and are greatly appreciative of our help.

Info sessions will be conducted in the upcoming weeks.

We appreciate you for considering participation in this program. For more information, please contact Aniq Lakhpaty at <aniqlakhpaty@gmail.com> or Scott Trebilcock at <Scottex12@aol.com>.

SCHOLARSHIPS

1. Atlas Shrugged Undergraduate Essay Contest
The BB&T Chair for the Study of Objectivism, held by Dr. Tara Smith in the Philosophy Department, is sponsoring the Second Annual Undergraduate Essay Contest on Ayn Rand’s novel, Atlas Shrugged.

First prize is $1750, second prize is $1250, and third prize is $1000. All full-time undergraduates registered at UT for the 2009-2010 academic year – including those students who participated in last year’s contest – are eligible to submit an entry.
The submission deadline is February 3, 2010, which is shortly after the spring semester begins, so we are encouraging students to use the winter break to read the novel and work on their essays.

For the essay questions and full details, please visit http://laitis.utexas.edu/sites/bbtchair/essay-contest/ or email bbtchair@austin.utexas.edu.

2. Fellowship Opportunities for Undergraduate Sophomores

Are you a sophomore interested in a career in international affairs? Want to get funding for study abroad, language study, and grad school?

The IIP Fellowship is one of the most prestigious fellowships in international affairs available to minority students, helping students gain practical skills necessary for success in foreign policy careers in the public, private, and non-profit sectors.

APPLICATION WEBSITE: http://www.uncfsp.org/register

DEADLINE: March 15, 2010

3. Undergraduate Research Award

The Senate of College Councils and the School of Undergraduate Studies invite you to apply for this semester’s Undergraduate Research Award. The award seeks to encourage students to get involved in research early in their undergraduate experience. Eligible applicants include students assisting a faculty member with a research project as well as students conducting independent research.

Applicants must be enrolled for 12 hours of coursework at the University of Texas at Austin. Preference will be given to first-year and second-year students, though all undergraduates are encouraged to apply.

One winner will receive a $1,000 award from the Senate of College Councils. The award recipient will be expected to compose a brief paper reflecting on their experiences at the end of the academic year.

The deadline for all materials is November 20, 2009 at 5 p.m.. Submit your application in person to Becky Carreon in the Senate of College Councils’ office, SSB 4.206. Please contact Austin Gunter at a_gunter@mail.utexas.edu with questions regarding the application.

4. Elie Wiesel Essay Contest

Every year the Elie Wiesel Foundation sponsors an essay competition. This year the suggested topics are:

What does your own experience tell you about the relationship between politics and ethics and, in particular, what could be done to make politics more ethical?

Articulate with clarity an ethical issue you have encountered and analyze what it has taught you about ethics and yourself. Carefully examine the ethical aspects or implications of a major literary work, a film or a significant piece of art.

Clearly analyze the relationship between religion and ethics in today's world. How does a recent political or cultural event shed light on the ethics of rebellion/revolution?

Contest Deadline: January 8, 2010

There are very substantial rewards for the winners: Winning students receive $10,000 in cash prizes, an internship, and a chance for their essay to be published in a nationally recognized publication.

Awards: First Prize - $ 5,000; Third Prize - $ 1,500; Second Prize - $ 2,500; Two Honorable Mentions - $ 500 each

Eligibility, FAQs and much more information at: http://www.eliewieselfoundation.org/information.aspx

1. Humanity in Action Summer Fellowships

Humanity in Action (HIA) is now accepting applications for the 2010 summer fellowship programs in Europe and the United States. See: http://www.humanityinaction.org/mission (information on HIA & its mission, programs, application and contact information)

HIA invites applications from college students (current sophomores, juniors, and seniors) and recent graduates (classes of 2008 and 2009) who are intellectually gifted, mature, independent, and passionate about human rights and social justice.

The HIA summer fellowship programs bring together international groups of Fellows to study minority rights and human rights doctrines in democratic societies. Separate programs will take place for five weeks in Amsterdam, Berlin, Copenhagen, New York, and Warsaw. Applications are due on January 23, 2010

2. UT Pre-Health Trip to Costa Rica and Nicaragua

A team of UT Pre-Med students will be going to Costa Rica and Nicaragua from January 2-15 through International Service Learning. They will be setting up and treating patients in rural clinics in both countries. All UT Pre-Health students are welcome, and there are two students from Plan II confirmed for the trip. The trip will cost $1885/person and the student will be responsible for airfare, which currently is about $500 at the cheapest. Plan II students are working together to fundraise. There will be a team manager from International Service Learning with the students at all times in Central America. The team needs a minimum of 6 people, and there are only 4 currently signed up. For more information, please contact Plan II Pre-Medical Society Student Liaison Saloni Singh at salonisingh9@gmail.com.
3. The Teresa Lozano Long Institute of Latin American Studies Travel Grants
The Teresa Lozano Long Institute of Latin American Studies is pleased to announce a competition for nine $5,000 travel grants for study abroad in Latin America in spring 2010, and, possibly, in summer 2010 (summer is still to be determined). We invite all majors from the College of Liberal Arts who are planning study abroad to Latin America to apply. Applications, including one professor recommendation per student, must be completed and received by us by November 30, 2009. Please follow the link for more information: <https://utdirect.utexas.edu/scholarship/student/menu.WBX?scholarship_owner>.

4. International Education Week
International Education week starts November 16th and continues until November 20th. Events will include foreign film screenings, language and culture workshops, funding seminars, mixers and a student panel. Check the website for updates and additional events: <http://utiew.wordpress.com/schedule-of-events/>.

5. Summer Overseas Pre-Law Program Opportunity for Plan II
The Business Law Program in Edinburgh is a five-week intensive summer study abroad program that is designed specifically for undergraduate students at The University of Texas at Austin. The program is offered in conjunction with The University of Edinburgh in Edinburgh, Scotland. The University of Edinburgh is one of Europe’s leading higher education institutions and is annually ranked in the top ten by the TIMES newspaper rankings of UK universities. Summer 2010 will mark the 8th year the Program in Business Law, run by the Center for International Business Education and Research (CIBER) at the UT McCombs School of Business, has been offered. Students take two three-credit hour survey courses, one on American law and one on European Union law; program dates are likely to be June 28-July 29, 2010. Enrollment opens on September 24th and the Program is expected to fill quickly, interested students should visit the Program website (see below) for more information, contact Angie Carter at 471-1625, and plan to enroll early to ensure a spot in the Program. <http://www.mccombs.utexas.edu/research/CIBER/summer/edinburgh.asp>.

Useful Miscellany

1. Submitting to the Plan II Newsletter
The Plan II newsletter is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to <planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu>. News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association, as well as performances and exhibits by Plan II students. Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events. Personal and political announcements will not be published in the newsletter; and internships and job announcements should normally be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter. Please keep in mind that although the Plan II newsletter enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as an employer's only means of advertising for a position, a group's only advertisement for an event, etc. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.

To place a news item in the Plan II newsletter, you must do the following, or your messages will not be included:
- Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to <planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu>.
- In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
- Give the name of a contact person with phone number or e-mail address.
- Provide an activity date or a deadline, whichever is appropriate.
- Do not use “we” or “I.” Please write your submission in third person.
- Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
- News items will run until your deadline, or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.
- The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly-lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.
- Send your news item to <planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu> no later than 3:00 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 3:00 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 3:00 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.
