1. Winter Voltaire’s Coffee Series

Everyone’s favorite Plan II event from their freshman year is now open to ALL Plan II students in our new Winter Voltaire’s Coffee Series! Join us for an evening of all your favorite things: interesting books, stimulating discussion, amazing professors, engaging fellow students, and food, of course! All VCs will be held between January 21 and January 29, before the homework really starts piling up. Locations will be on campus for easy access, exact location TBA. All VCs are scheduled for 7 p.m. so that the fewest number of classes will conflict as possible. Limited spots are available, so registration is required! Students can register by accessing the link to the registration form on the Plan II website beginning at noon on Monday, November 30th. Registration will close on midnight of Friday, December 4th. Registration is limited to one VC per student. See the Plan II website for more details.

2. “Dionysus in ’69” Performance

This play by the Rude Mechanicals will be performed at the Off Center starting December 4. Professor Paul Woodruff, one of the hosts for the Winter Voltaire’s Coffee Series, has the following to say about this play: “I saw that play in 1969 when it was a new thing to see a troupe of actors performing naked, and it was also new to see them make use of birthing rituals from New Guinea. I hope that some of you will see”Dionysus in ’69” so that we may talk about it in the coffee, but that is not required. If you see it, you will never forget it.” More info at <http://rudemechs.blogspot.com/2009/11/dionysus-in-69.html>.

3. Open Seats in Spring 2010 Graduate Course E 392M

Professor MacKay is opening a few seats in her spring 2010 Graduate Course “E392M: The Melodramatic Impulse in Victorian Literature” to Plan II Students. The course meets MW 3:30-5:00 p.m. in PAR C (unique 35285). Interested students should contact Dr. MacKay <mackay@mail.utexas.edu> directly regarding enrollment. Check the COLA website for more information and a course description.

4. New Spring TC 125K

This course is taught by Lee Walker on Mondays from 1-3:15 p.m. (7 sessions over the semester) in PAR 301. “The purpose of this class is to define and explore civic engagement, with the intention of inspiring students to become civic entrepreneurs themselves in their respective areas of interest. We will survey the topics of Justice, Place, Transit, Entrepreneurship, Education, and Healthcare.”

5. Plan II/KIPP Program

The Plan II/KIPP Partnership will be starting its second annual PlanTutoring program this semester for the 2009-2010 school year. KIPP Austin Collegiate is looking for energetic and hardworking Plan II students to assist them in tutoring high school students in all subjects. PlanTutoring allows tutors to volunteer as many hours as they would like but requires a one-hour commitment per week. KIPP Austin Collegiate has expressed a high demand for tutors this semester. If there are any sophomores or juniors interested in being involved in the growing Plan II/KIPP Partnership, then PlanTutoring is a great program to join. Please contact Jessica Collins by email <jessann@mail.utexas.edu> if you are interested.

ACADEMIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. ApplyGenie Focus Group Opportunity

ApplyGenie, Inc., an exciting web-based start-up targeted at college-bound students, is looking for focus group participants to join in a short series of interactive group discussions about the college admissions process. Focus group members will meet three times in the next three months to talk with the ApplyGenie team about their respective experiences and review software that ApplyGenie is creating for the college admissions process.

All participants will receive a gift certificate at the end of the focus group program. There also is an opportunity to extend this experience into a marketing or software development internship during the Spring semester and participate in the company’s exciting beta testing and official launch initiatives. Please contact Neena Gupta at <neena@applygenie.com> by December 15 if you are interested in joining the focus group or would like more information about the program.

2. Middle Eastern Languages Placement Exams

The Department of Middle Eastern Studies is holding placement exams for Arabic, Hebrew, and Persian on Friday, January 15, 9-12. Please pass on the following information to any of your students who are interested. Also please note that this is for placement into the appropriate language course; the exam is not for students who do not intend to register for a language course but who only want credit-by-exam. CBE evaluations will be held in April.

Students with previous knowledge of a Middle Eastern language and students returning from language study at another institution must take a placement exam before enrolling in any course in that language. Placement exams will include evaluations of speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills. Students may sign up for the exam at http://www.utexas.edu/cola/depts/mes/languages/testing.php.

Placement exam dates for spring 2010 are:
- Arabic placement exam – January 15, 9-12 – MEZ 2.120
- Hebrew placement exam – January 15, 9-12 – MEZ 2.118
- Persian placement exam – January 15, 9-12 – TBA

3. Paper Submissions for History Conference

Beta Alpha Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta (University of Texas at Austin) announces a CIP for its 2010 regional conference. The conference will be hosted by the Department of History at the University of Texas at Austin.
with an informal gathering on the evening of Friday, February 26, and all day Saturday, February 27, 2009. At the conference, papers will be augmented by a keynote speech at lunch, roundtables and professional sessions.

Call for papers: We solicit papers that present current and recent undergraduate and graduate research, on all historical time periods and geographical areas. Papers should be written in English, discuss a topic from the disciplinary perspective of history, art history, or historically-oriented cultural studies, and should be about 1520 minutes long. Papers may be proposed singly or in panels of 3-4. We also seek to include sessions of nontraditional presentations (e.g., audio-visual projects or web design) on original research.

Participation: The conference is sponsored by Beta Alpha chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, but non-members are encouraged to participate.

Prizes: National Phi Alpha Theta awards several prizes to the best papers by Phi Alpha Theta members. In addition, Beta Alpha chapter will award the following awards, open to all participants: $400 to the best paper of the conference; $100 each to three runners-up; and some other miscellaneous prizes for best paper in individual fields. Prize awards are limited to undergraduates. Awards are based both on the content of the submitted paper and the quality of its delivery. Double-blind judging will be conducted by a panel of two members of Beta Alpha chapter and two UT faculty members. To submit your paper for prize consideration, email the following materials as .pdf or .doc files to <philalphetatexas@yahoo.com> by 5 p.m. on February 5, 2010: a copy of the paper with nothing that identifies you as author; and a separate cover sheet with your name, email, and the paper title.

Conference Fee: $30 includes continental breakfast and lunch followed by keynote address on Saturday; coffee breaks; a T-shirt; and eligibility for the prize competition.

Deadlines: register for the conference by February 5, 2010; submit paper by February 5, 2010, to be eligible for prizes.

Contact us at <philalphetatexas@yahoo.com> or Susan Boettcher, chapter adviser, at <susan.boettcher@mail.utexas.edu> or (512) 475-9297.

4. Submissions for The Student Journal of Latin American Studies

The Student Journal of Latin American Studies at The University of Texas at Austin is accepting papers from graduate and undergraduate students. The Student Journal of Latin American Studies is an interdisciplinary journal that seeks to foster student research on topics relating to Latin America, promote a better understanding of the region, and link the research of graduate and undergraduate students around the world.

We invite all students conducting research related to Latin America to contribute to the journal and encourage faculty and staff across colleges and disciplines to promote this opportunity among their students. In order to be considered for publication, the articles must be submitted by January 4th, 2010. Articles may be written in English or Spanish and a maximum of 8000 words long.

Those interested in contributing to the Student Journal of Latin American Studies or promoting it will find more information in our website: http://www.SJoFLAS.org

If you have any questions or comments, please contact us at <sjoflas@gmail.com>

5. Undergraduate Research Journal Submissions

Submit your research to the The Undergraduate Research Journal! All research and disciplines welcome. Build your resume and be recognized for your work! Articles can either fall into the long or short article categories- the prize for the top long article is $250; $100 for the short article. Check out this website for more details: <http://www.utexas.edu/research/student/urj>

Submission deadline is February 1st, 2010.

2. Koch Internship Program

   Washington, DC

The Charles G. Koch Charitable Foundation Internship Program was established to develop the next generation of liberty-minded leaders and entrepreneurs. Over the course of the program, Interns engage in key Foundation projects while learning and applying Market-Based Management®.

The project assignments cover fascinating areas including policy research, leadership and talent development, grassroots education, marketing, and network development. This hands-on experience gives interns the chance to explore the non-profit sector while applying the management philosophy they are learning from the Foundation, and allows them to build a network of like-minded friends and associates.

Each Intern is assigned a Foundation mentor for the duration of the program. The mentor will guide the Interns through assignments, assist them in learning the management framework and applying it to their non-profit work, and encourage them to become effective entrepreneurs for social change.

Spring and fall Internships are part-time and flexible, but Interns must be available at least 20 hours each week, including all day on Tuesdays. Summer Interns are also part-time, but Interns work regular schedules, 8:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m., Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday. Spring, summer, and fall Interns do not work on Thursdays. Spring and fall Interns are paid an hourly rate of $12.00. Summer Interns are paid an hourly rate of $13.00. Metro assistance is available only for summer Interns. Unfortunately, housing is not provided.

If you have any questions about the Koch Internship Program, contact recruiting@cgkfoundation.org.

Deadline: December 4th, 2009

3. 2010-2011 Koch Associate Program

The Koch Associate Program is a challenging job opportunity for professionals who are passionate about free-market ideas, and want to become more effective at advancing liberty throughout their careers. The Charles G. Koch Charitable Foundation’s aim is to develop the capabilities of each Associate through the program by providing management training, professional development, and the knowledge and skills necessary to achieve their career potential.

The program offers promising leaders and entrepreneurs the opportunity to work within non-profit organizations while learning and applying Market-Based Management®. During the year-long program, Associates spend four days each week at non-profit organizations working in full-time positions and one day each week at the Charles G. Koch Charitable Foundation immersed in a Market-Based Management® curriculum.

The non-profit roles cover fields such as policy analysis, research, legal reform, marketing and public relations, communications and new media, non-profit operations and grants administration, fundraising and development, grassroots education, and program management and logistics. Associates witness first-hand the nuts and bolts of non-profit work, including how decisions are made, how projects are prioritized, which capabilities are necessary for an organization to operate smoothly, and the challenges faced in a non-profit environment. Over the course of the year, Associates share their diverse experiences with the group, creating a unique learning opportunity unparalleled in other development programs.

Requirements:
- Solid understanding of and commitment to limited government, free-market principles, and individual liberty
- Solid academic record
- 0-10 years of work experience
- Minimum of a bachelor's degree

For more information and application requirement please visit the website: http://www.cgkfoundation.org/associate-program/ or contact Thomas Russell by e-mail thomas.russell@cgkfoundation.org.

Deadline: January 28, 2010

4. Bain & Company Summer Internship

Bain & Company would like to invite you to apply for a position in its Summer 2010 Associate Consultant Internship program. Bain is currently accepting applications from talented Plan II Juniors graduating in December 2010 or May 2011.

Bain is a top-tier management consulting firm that helps clients make their biggest decisions on strategy, operations, mergers & acquisitions, technology, and organization. As an Associate Consultant Intern, you will spend your summer staffed as an integral member of the case team and will work on the most pressing issues faced by leading companies and organizations.

To apply: please upload your resume (with SAT score broken out), cover letter, and interactive degree audit to BOTH your career center’s website & our online application at <http://www.joinbain.com>. Please contact a member of the UT Plan II recruiting team (below) if you have any questions about the internship position, the recruitment process, or Bain itself.

5. NIH Center for Cancer Research 2010 Summer Internship Program

The focus of this program is to increase diversity among our student trainees. A selection panel, composed of NCI scientists and administrators, will review the application packages and interview prospective fellows with a GPA of 3.0 or higher from under-represented groups or financially disadvantaged backgrounds.

This program offers development and training in the newest biomedical technologies. More than one-third of former interns are currently attending graduate school and others have been selected as post-baccalaureate fellows, providing them with one to two years of full-time training.

Applicants must be:
- In good standing, with a GPA of 3.0 or higher
- U.S. citizens or permanent residents
- 18 years of age or older
- Students with cancer-related research interests
6. Teach For America Seeks Operations Coordinators

In the summer of 2010, Teach For America will run eight institutes in Atlanta, Chicago, Houston, Los Angeles, New York City, Philadelphia, Phoenix, and the Mississippi Delta. Across the eight institutes, about 4,900 new Teach For America corps members will come together for an intensive five-week, pre-service training program. The purpose of the institute is to prepare corps members to produce significant academic gains with their students and assume full-time teaching responsibilities in the fall. Each institute team works closely with local school districts so that new corps members can deliver a rigorous academic summer school program to more than 1,500 children in that school district.

Teach For America seeks operations coordinators to support the organization’s efforts to manage a summer training institute that serves over 500 new teachers and 120 staff members. Operations coordinators play an integral role in the daily operations at institute. Operations coordinators are guaranteed a salary of $2,500—$3,000 and lodging and food will be provided by Teach For America.

Operations Coordinators:
• Implement and maintain staffing operational systems at the host university site
• Work with a direct manager to coordinate special projects for the institute community
• Develop excellent organizational and time management systems
• Learn to develop detailed project plans to attain ambitious goals

Application deadline: January 24, 2010

7. Texas Tribune Internship Opportunity

The new, not-for-profit public media organization, the Texas Tribune <http://www.texastribune.org/about/> is looking for two interns to start immediately. The interns will work on marketing, events and development for the launch of the new organization and its media channels. Interns will work 15 hours or less a week and be paid $7.25/hour. Interns will be doing research, data entry, proposals, marketing, and more. As a start-up in the online publishing space, this internship is a great opportunity to learn from top professionals in Austin and the industry in a small, non-hierarchical environment. To apply, please send your resume to nathan@campus2careers.com. Note: this search is being performed by campus2careers.com <http://campus2careers.com/>

8. Intellectual Entrepreneurship "Pre-Graduate School Internship"

This internship is open to students in all UT colleges/schools and departments. You may earn one, two or three hours of academic credit (CMS 164M/264M/364M) by participating in the internship.

In addition, you may read more about this program on the web: <http://communication.utexas.edu/ie/>

NOTE: Because of the generosity of several UT deans, undergraduates who do their pre-grad internship in programs in the following colleges will be eligible to receive travel grants to help cover part of the cost of attending an academic conference (with their grad mentor)---Law, Public Affairs, Communication, Engineering, Liberal Arts, Pharmacy, Business, Social Work, Education, Natural Sciences, Fine Arts.

A wonderful UT web feature about this program is at: <http://www.utexas.edu/features/2008/je-2/>

If after examining these materials you have questions, please feel free to contact Rick Cherwitz at <spaj737@uts.cc.utexas.edu>

USEFUL MISCELLANY

1. Submitting to the Plan II Newsletter

The Plan II newsletter is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to <planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu>.

News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association, as well as performances and exhibits by Plan II students. Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events. Personal and political announcements will not be published in the newsletter; and internships and job announcements should normally be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter. Please keep in mind that although the Plan II newsletter enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as an employer's only means of advertising for a position, a group's only advertisement for an event, etc. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.

To place a news item in the Plan II newsletter, you must do the following, or your messages will not be included:
- Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to <planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu>.
- In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
- Give the name of a contact person with phone number or e-mail address.
- Provide an activity date or a deadline, whichever is appropriate.
- Do not use “we” or “I.” Please write your submission in third person.
- Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
- News items will run until your deadline, or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.

- The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly-lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.

- Send your news item to <planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu> no later than 3:00 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 3:00 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 3:00 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.
