2. Rowe Koehl Travel Scholarship

Do you have a great idea for a trip that is not directly tied to your academic career?

The Rowe Koehl Travel Scholarship might just be right for you.

This annual award is given to a Plan II student in good standing with the program whose travel promises to address the most interesting idea or question proposed. The award winner is determined by the Director and a committee of his/her choosing.

Applicants should submit a single page description of their intended travel abroad, including an indication of their motivation and what their expectations might be.

Preference will be given to applicants whose travel will be abroad to a country or countries with which they have no close family ties or extensive previous experience.

Note that this scholarship is not intended to be coupled with an already-planned Study Abroad experience, nor is it intended to be coupled with or pay for a for-credit program. The spirit in which the award has been given is to encourage travel and learning in a non-traditional setting.

For that reason, this is not a need-based nor is it a scholastic achievement grant. Grade point averages or financial need will not be considered, only the merit of the proposal.

The award winner will be expected to write a letter of thanks as well as a brief narrative account of their travels. Photos are welcomed but are not required.

Send your letter of application to:

3. Plan II/KIPP Partnership Program

Explore UT Workshop – March 6, 2010

All Plan II students are invited to attend the Plan II/KIPP Partnership Program workshop that will be held as part of Explore UT on Saturday, March 6, 2010 from 11:00-11:40 a.m. in PAR 1. Attendees will learn about this innovative service opportunity and community outreach effort that matches selected Plan II students as mentors with mentee students from KIPP Austin Schools (charter schools serving low-income minority students). Plan II mentors, KIPPster mentees and Program organizers all will be on hand to offer their reflections on the Program and their experiences.

4. Plan II Continuing Scholarship Applications

Monday, February 22, 2010 the electronic application system for Plan II Honors Continuing Scholarships will open for applications for 2010/2011 Plan II Honors scholarships. You must apply even if you currently hold a Plan II Honors scholarship.

Plan II has transitioned to an online scholarship and grant application process. If you have already prepared and/or submitted the paper application for Continuing Scholarships, you will need to go online and complete the electronic application. This application process is for Continuing Scholarships. The travel and thesis grant information is forthcoming.

ACADEMIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Law School Discussion with Cale McDowell
Cale McDowell will hold an informal discussion with interested pre-law students on preparing for law school and in particular how the study of the great books can prepare one for success in law school, the legal profession, and careers in politics. Mr. McDowell, a recent graduate of UT Austin Law School, is now an attorney in the corporate and securities section of the Austin law firm Jackson Walker L.L.P. The talk will be in the Joynes Reading Room, in the basement of Carothers hall, on April 7 at 7 p.m.

2. Undergraduate Research Applications
We are now accepting Undergraduate Research applications for our oral symposium that will be held on Tuesday, April 13, and Thursday, April 15, as well as poster presentations for Honor’s Day on Saturday, April 10. The poster presenters will also have the opportunity to have their poster professionally printed and showcased at the Undergraduate Research Week Bazaar on Wednesday, April 14.

Please forward this information to any students who might be interested.

The application can be found on our website at <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/student-affairs/Programs/Research-Opportunities.php#URWeek>. The deadline for students to apply is Friday, March 12.

If you have any questions about research week or the application, please contact Monica Horvat at <monicah@austin.utexas.edu>.

3. Bridging Disciplines Programs
Come to an Information Session with BDP Advisors

Every Tuesday, 11:00 a.m. -12:00 p.m.
and
Every Wednesday, 3:00 - 4:00 p.m.

If you cannot attend one of these information sessions, please call 232-7564 to make an appointment.

Spring BDP Application Deadline is Friday, March 12

4. Department of Computer Sciences Transfer Sessions
The Department of Computer Sciences restricts upper-division courses to declared CS majors beginning in Spring 2010. In anticipation of this change, we encourage students who are considering a dual degree or major degree change to attend one of our Internal Transfer Sessions. Major admission requirements and procedures will be reviewed prior to the April 15th application deadline. An academic advisor will also discuss opportunities for students to maximize their career potential, including an 18-hour Elements of Computing Certificate, 5-year BS/MS Integrated Degree, and more. RSVP to: <under-info@cs.utexas.edu>

Spring 2010 Major Applications Due:
THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 2010

5. Texas Institute for Literary & Textual Studies
The inaugural year of the Institute (2009-2010) is focused on "Literature and Religious Conflict in the English Renaissance." Considering the contemporary and global concern with religious conflict, the Institute will concentrate on the myriad connections between literature and the religious conflict that permeated the Renaissance, from the Reformation to the Counter-Reformation to the seeds of Enlightenment tolerance sown at the end of the period. The subject has elicited a great deal of interest among Renaissance scholars in recent years, and it should be compelling for a large audience of non-specialists as well.

We have scheduled a variety of TILTS activities for Spring 2010. We hope you will be able to join us for at least some of these activities and we welcome any questions you might have.

For more information concerning the spring speakers and the Renaissance Institute generally, go to: <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/insts/tilts-current/>.

Further schedule information will be posted there.

6. New B.S. Degree in Environmental Science
Dr. Stoff would like to inform the Plan II Honors Program that UT-Austin will offer a new B.S. degree in Environmental Science. Several innovative new courses will be taught as part of the degree plan, including two that will be offered this semester as small pilot courses.

Please consider learning more about the courses and degree plan. More information can be found at <http://www.esi.utexas.edu/education/education.html>. There will be an information session on these courses and the new degree plan on

7. DMES Summer Language Institutes
DMES is excited to offer three intensive summer language institutes this year in Arabic, Hebrew, and Persian. The institutes offer a fully incorporated cultural program to enhance participants' linguistic advancement as they complete the equivalent of one full year of language study in eleven weeks, June 3 - August 13, 2010.

Applications are due March 15.

ARABIC: First- through Third-Year Arabic I and II <http://utarabicflagship.org/curriculum/arabic_summer_institute.html>
Accountability, please contact Jose Aguayo, <Jose.Aguayo_HC@house.state.tx.us>

3. City Hall Fellows
City Hall Fellows is a non-partisan nonprofit training the next generation of leaders for America’s cities. Our 12-month, paid, post-college Fellowship integrates hands-on experience working within the highest levels of local government with intensive training in how cities work.

The Fellowship is open to students of ALL majors.

A detailed overview of the Fellowship, as well as application materials and instructions, are on our website, <http://www.cityhallfellows.org>.

Applications for our next Fellowship Class are due March 10, 2010. The Fellowship year begins August 2, 2010 and runs through July 29, 2011.

Our staff, Fellows and alumni will be visiting campuses around the country over the next two months. We also will be hosting several free, live webinars for students we are unable to meet in person. All of these are posted on our schedule of events <http://www.cityhallfellows.org/Application_Calendar.html>.

4. Texas Tribune Internship Opportunity

The new, not-for-profit public media organization, the Texas Tribune <http://www.texastribune.org/about/> is looking for two interns to start immediately. The interns will work on marketing, events and development for the launch of the new organization and its media channels. Interns will work 15 hours or less a week and be paid $7.25 hour. Interns will be doing research, data entry, proposals, marketing, and more. As a start-up in the online publishing space, this internship is a great opportunity to learn from top professionals in Austin and the industry in a small, non-hierarchical environment. To apply, please send your resume to <nathan@campus2careers.com>. Note: this search is being performed by <http://campus2careers.com>.

5. Intellectual Entrepreneurship "Pre-Graduate School Internship."

This internship is open to students in all UT colleges/schools and departments. You may earn one, two or three hours of academic credit (CMS 164M/264M/364M) by participating in the internship.

In addition, you may read more about this program on the web: <http://communication.utexas.edu/ie/>

NOTE: Because of the generosity of several UT deans, undergraduates who do their pre-grad internship in programs in the following colleges will be eligible to receive travel grants to help cover part of the cost of attending an academic conference (with their grad mentor)--- Law, Public Affairs, Communication, Engineering, Liberal Arts, Pharmacy, Business, Social Work, Education, Natural Sciences, Fine Arts.

A wonderful UT web feature about this program on the web: <http://communication.utexas.edu/ie/>

If after examining these materials you have questions, please feel free to contact Rick Cherwitz at <spaj737@uts.cc.utexas.edu>

8. College Women's Political Caucus

The College Women's Political Caucus (CWPC) is in its earliest
The goals and possible projects of CWPC include, but are not limited to:

Volunteering on political campaigns for local women political candidates. Putting on and participating in trainings on a variety of topics related to political leadership and political campaigns. Mentoring under-served middle & high school girls to help develop their leadership abilities.

Working to get the ERA ratified. Networking with women political leaders. Finally, the president of NWPC also sees the CWPC as THE place to start identifying, and training future political leaders.

If you are interested in being an officer in CWPC, please email Harmony Eichsteadt at <harmonyeverafter@gmail.com>.

9. Mortar Board Society
Apply to be a member of Mortar Board, a national honor society that recognizes college seniors for distinguished ability and achievement in scholarship, leadership, and service. The UT chapter strives to uphold the national Mortar Board's ideals of scholarship, leadership, and service by developing relationships between influential student leaders and serving as the capstone leadership and service experience for UT seniors.

Requirements for membership in the Visor Chapter of Mortar Board at The University of Texas at Austin include:

a minimum of 75 hours of coursework completed by May 2010 (i.e. Senior Classification) a university GPA of 3.4 or above demonstrated achievement in the areas of scholarship, leadership, and service. Apply to be a member of the Mortar Board at <https://surveystation.austin.utexas.edu/ TakeSurvey.aspx?SurveyID=96K01514> All applications must be completed no later than 5 p.m. on Monday, March 8, 2010. If you have any questions please email <mailto:txasmortarboard@gmail.com>

10. Peer Academic Coaching Program
The Peer Academic Coaching program is open to any student interested in receiving coaching from a trained UT student on how to prepare effectively for UT classes. Peer coaches are trained by learning specialists, and the program as a whole is certified by the College Reading and Learning Association. Common topics include note-taking and reading techniques, time management and concentration, and test taking and test preparation. Participants can expect to learn how to match the ways in which they study to the unique demands of each course.

The cost is covered by the UT Learning Center; potential participants should be open to trying new study techniques and be willing to meet privately once a week for an hour with a peer coach. Participants are admitted to the program on a rolling basis, subject to coach availability.

Students new to the university should visit the UT Learning Center in Jester A332A; all other students can complete a participation request questionnaire online by going to <http://enroll.utlc.utexas.edu/>* and clicking on “Academic Coaching – Get a Coach.”

*S tudents who have never used UT Learning Center services will need to start with “claim a password” when first visiting this site. If assistance is needed, call 471-3614 between 9 and 5, M-F

11. Spring Bevonomics
Bevonomics, the new money management program from the Office of Student Financial Services at UT Austin, gives you the information and tools you need to learn how to make good financial decisions about your money and money and your future! Our workshops are open to anyone in the UT Austin community, and you don’t need to bring anything to a workshop — just show up!

Contact BEVONOMICS for more information: Bevonomics is located in the Office of Student Financial Services (OSFS). Please contact us at <info@bevonomics.org> or (512) 475.6231/6282.

Check the website for a full schedule: <http://www.bevonomics.org/>

12. NSCS Invitations
The National Society of Collegiate Scholars is inviting high-achieving students at The University of Texas at Austin to become members of The National Society of Collegiate Scholars (NSCS). NSCS offers more in undergraduate scholarships than any other honor society nationwide.

If you received an invitation, complete your membership application online by visiting <http://join.nscs.org/join>. If you have any questions about your username or password, contact <mailto:nscs@nscs.org> or call 1.800.989.6727.

13. MATHCOUNTS Competition Volunteers
Each year the Texas Society of Professional Engineers (TSPE)/Texas Engineering Foundation (TEF) sponsors the MATHCOUNTS® Program in Texas. We hope the members of the student chapter of SP2E will join our engineers as volunteers.

The competition will be held at the Hilton Austin Airport on Saturday, March 27, 2010 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and we can use volunteers for all or part of the day. Lunch and an official t-shirt is provided.
This group of eager, bright middle school students is a joy to work with and you will find the time you spend volunteering at the event truly rewarding.

If you would like to volunteer, please contact Nancy Rierson at <nancy@tspe.org> or (512) 472-9286 to sign up and get additional details.

14. Psychotherapy with Men Conference
A conference devoted to promoting best practices and increasing treatment accessibility for boys and men. At the University of Texas, Austin June 5th, 2010.

Registration is now open, but space is limited. The first conference sold out and we expect the same this year. If registering after April 1st, contact Aaron Rochlen to inquire about space. Fees are $150 for professionals and $75 for students, which includes breakfast, lunch, and drinks.

For more information check the website: <http://ows.edb.utexas.edu/?q=site/2nd-national-psychotherapy-men-conference/registration>

15. Volunteer for ZAP
ZAP (Zavala Afterschool Program) is a group of students from the University of Texas at Austin who volunteer weekly at Zavala Elementary School in East Austin. ZAP provides an after-school program for underprivileged youth, offering activities and classes ranging from soccer and football to dance and jewelry making. The volunteers also serve as positive influences in the children's lives. Volunteers will help for 1 hour a week from 3:00-4:00 on either Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday. Classes will begin February 16th and run for 9 weeks, with no classes the week of Spring Break. Check out the website <http://sites.google.com/site/texaszap/>, and go to the "Links and Documents" page to sign up! For questions, please email <texas.zap@mail.utexas.edu>.

SCHOLARSHIPS

1. Latin America Study Abroad Scholarships
The Teresa Lozano Long Institute of Latin American Studies is pleased to announce a competition for seven $5,000 travel grants for study abroad in Latin America in fall 2010 and spring 2011. These are intended to be used for full-semester study, and the students must bring back 12 hours of college credit from a degree granting institution in Latin America. Although preference will be given to Latin American Studies majors, we invite all majors from the College of Liberal Arts who are planning study abroad in Latin America next academic year to apply. All applications will be considered seriously. Below is the link for your students; the application is all online. Applications, including one professor recommendation per student, must be completed and received by us by March 26, 2010. <https://utdirect.utexas.edu/scholarship/student/menu.WBXs_scholarship_owner=LLAS&s_user_role=S>

2. Gilman International Scholarship
The Gilman International Scholarship Program is pleased to announce the opening of the Fall 2010 online application with over 1,700 scholarships to be awarded. A limited number of summer awards will be available to students majoring in the STEM fields (Science, Technology, Engineering or Math) who meet the program's standard eligibility criteria listed on the website.

Summer 2010 & Fall 2010/Academic Year 2010-2011 applications are now being accepted online and are due April 6, 2010. The deadline for advisors to certify applications is April 13, 2010. For more information about the Gilman Scholarship, application deadlines & timeline, and application process, and resources for advisors, please visit the Gilman website at <www.iie.org/gilman>, contact the Gilman Program at (713) 621-6300 ext. 16 or email <gilmanadvisors@iie.org>.

3. Rapoport Service Scholarship
The College of Liberal Arts invites you to apply for the Bernard and Audre Rapoport Service Scholarship. The scholarship is open to first year students in the College of Liberal Arts.

Rapoport Service Scholars receive a $30,000 scholarship and a brand new Mac laptop. The recipients of the scholarship commit to performing 200 hours of community service each summer for three summers, as well as taking two courses designed specifically for the scholars and participating in service events during the year. Twelve scholars are selected each year. The deadline for the scholarship is 5 p.m. on March 5, 2010.

Bernard and Audre Rapoport Service Scholarship
Deadline: March 5, 2010
Scroll to the bottom of the page to Rapoport Service Scholarship and apply online: <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/student-affairs/Programs/Scholarships.php>
If you have any questions, please email Eric Bowles <bowles@austin.utexas.edu>

4. Upcoming FAFSA Sessions
The time has once again arrived to begin applying for financial aid for the upcoming 2010-2011 school year. The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is the only application needed at The University of Texas at Austin to apply for grants, work-study, and student loans. The Office of Student Financial Services (OSFS) will be hosting sessions in order to assist current students to complete the online FAFSA. We anticipate these sessions will encourage students to apply early and increase their understanding of the financial aid process. Each session will take place in a computer lab setting, where students will be assisted by financial aid counselors on a walk-in basis.
The FAFSA requires income information for both student and parent(s), and thus 2009 tax returns are recommended when completing the application. If the 2009 taxes are not available, students can submit the FAFSA using estimates, and thus bring the 2009 W-2’s, or 2008 tax returns.

UT-Austin’s priority deadline is March 31, 2010.

If you have questions, please contact the outreach section of OSFS at 475-6231. For additional information see spotlight:<http://finaid.utexas.edu/spotlights/FAFSA100_sessions.html>

5. Fellowship Opportunities for Undergraduate Sophomores
Are you a sophomore interested in a career in international affairs? Want to get funding for study abroad, language study, and grad school?

The IIP Fellowship is one of the most prestigious fellowships in international affairs available to minority students, helping students gain practical skills necessary for success in foreign policy careers in the public, private, and non-profit sectors.

Plan II Honors Program

who send their e-mail addresses to <planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu>. News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association, as well as performances and exhibits by Plan II students. Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events. Personal and political announcements will not be published in the newsletter; and internships and job announcements should normally be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter. Please keep in mind that although Plan2News enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as an employer's only means of advertising for a position, a group's only advertisement for an event, etc. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.

To place a news item in Plan2News, you must do the following, or your messages will not be included:
- Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to <planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu>.
- In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
- Give the name of a contact person with phone number or e-mail address.
- Provide an activity date or a deadline, whichever is appropriate.
- Do not use “we” or “I.”
Please write your submission in third person.
- Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
- News items will run until your deadline, or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.
- The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly-lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.
- Send your news item to <planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu> no later than 3:00 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 3:00 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 3:00 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.
