1. Plan II Poetry Organization
   Come to a brainstorming meeting to reenergize the defunct Plan II poetry organization. We will meet in the Joynes Conference Room 007B at 9 p.m. on Wednesday, April 14. Students with an interest in writing and reading poetry, as well as spoken word and other kinds of free writing, should come by to chat and plan for the rest of the semester. Even if you are convinced poetry is stupid, come for the snacks! E-mail Audrey White - <afwhite91@gmail.com>, or Reagan Tankersley - <jr.tankersley@gmail.com>, with any questions.

2. Registration News
   Course descriptions for all Plan II SS and TC courses offered during the Fall 2010 semester are now available online on the College of Liberal Arts website: <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/resources/syllabi/index.php>

3. Broccoli Project Needs Techies
   Broccoli needs your help! Our event, Caligula by: Albert Camus with a preceding lecture on Absurd theatre by Dean Woodruff, needs techies and publicity! Our performances are on 4/22, 4/23, and 4/24. Please contact Alex Reynolds at <alexandra.reynolds@bba08.mccombs.utexas.edu> if you are interested in getting involved.

4. Thesis Advising and Registration
   Students planning to register for the Plan II Thesis Course (TC 660HA) in the fall semester must complete the following registration steps:

   1. Complete Part One of the Thesis Registration form (available in the Plan II office and online at <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/progs/plan2/advising/thesis/>)

   Bring the form with you to a meeting with either Dr. Alexandra Wettlaufer or Dr. Wendy Domjan to obtain approval of your topic and planned supervisor. Once Part One is approved, you will be cleared to add the appropriate thesis course during your normal registration period.

   2. Complete Part Two of the Thesis Registration form and turn it into the Plan II office by Friday, May 14th. Failure to turn in both forms by the deadline will result in being dropped from the thesis course.

   Please read through the Plan II thesis manual (online at: <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/progs/plan2/advising/thesis/>) for more details.

5. Graduating Senior Commencement Speaker
   Students eligible to participate in the May 2010 Plan II Commencement Convocation (those graduating in May 2010 and August 2010) are invited to submit a brief statement (maximum of 500 words) describing the topic of their address and why they would be the best person to give the student address at the Plan II commencement. The student’s résumé should be attached to the proposal. These proposals are due by April 15 at 5:00 p.m. in the Plan II office, addressed to Jennifer Scalora. A committee comprised of the Plan II director and staff will choose the Plan II student speaker. The address itself should be no more than five minutes in length. Contact Jennifer Scalora, <scalora@austin.utexas.edu>, with any questions.

6. Rowe Koehl Travel Scholarship
   Do you have a great idea for a trip that is not directly tied to your academic career?

   This annual award is given to a Plan II student in good standing with the program whose travel promises to address the most interesting idea or question proposed. The award winner is determined by the Director and a committee of his/her choosing.

   Applicants should submit a single page description of their intended travel abroad, including an indication of their motivation and what their expectations might be. Preference will be given to applicants whose travel will be abroad to a country or countries with which they have no close family ties or extensive previous experience.

   Note that this scholarship is not intended to be coupled with an already-planned Study Abroad experience, nor is it intended to be coupled with or pay for a for-credit program. The spirit in which the award has been given is to encourage travel and learning in a non-traditional setting.

   For that reason, this is not a need-based nor is it a scholastic achievement grant. Grade point averages or financial need will not be considered, only the merit of the proposal.

   The award winner will be expected to write a letter of thanks as well as a brief narrative account of their travels. Photos are welcomed but are not required.

   Send your letter of application to: Phillip Dubov <planiischolarships@austin.utexas.edu> (512) 471.2960

   Plan II Office
   Application deadline is April 16.

ACADEMIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Research Bazaar
   Are you interested in learning more about research opportunities for undergraduates at UT?

   Join us for the Longhorn Research Bazaar on Wednesday, April 14, 11:30 a.m.-2 p.m. at Gregory Gym Plaza (GRE).

   The Bazaar is a festive, outdoor event where departments, colleges, programs and student organizations from across campus will highlight their undergraduate research activities and opportunities for student involvement. Over 30 student researchers will present their projects and be on hand to talk about what it’s like to do research.
There will be free t-shirts and other fun giveaways. Pizza, sno cones, and popcorn, too!

The Bazaar is one of many events going on all over campus as part of Research Week 2010! See the full calendar at: <http://www.utexas.edu/ugs/researchweek/>

2. Summer Statistics Institute
Special UT Discount - One Week Only

For one week only, UT students can register for a limited number of seats in the SSI at a 50% discount rate. Register between April 12th and April 16th in select courses to receive the discounted rate ($125 for UT students and $250 for UT staff and faculty).

Eligible Courses for 50% Discount:
- Bayesian Statistics for the Social Sciences
- Data-Driven Policy Assessment
- Event History Analysis
- Introduction to SPSS
- Introduction to Stata
- JMP - An Analysis, Design, and Teaching Tool
- Measurement and Evaluation
- Power Analysis for Proposal Writing
- Questionnaire Design & Survey Analysis

Students should use discount code 1_WEEK_STUDENT at checkout. For the discount to be processed correctly, if you are also registering for courses not on this list you must register for those separately.

The Summer Statistics Institute will be held in Mezes Hall on May 24th - 27th and classes are offered in the mornings and afternoons. Please visit ssc.utexas.edu for more information. Please contact <admin@ssc.utexas.edu> with questions.

3. Summer Enhancement Program

To serve its students better, UT is launching a program to expand and improve its course offerings in Summer 2010. Some Colleges/Schools will offer courses that may be hard to get in the long semesters. Some will introduce new specialty courses. More information on special offerings can be found at <http://www.utexas.edu/provost/initiatives/summer/>, but here are just a few sample courses:

ARCHITECTURE: Architecture and Society (ARC s308) with Laurence Speck, the W. L. Moody, Jr. Centennial Professor in Architecture.

LIBERAL ARTS: Creative Writing (E f325) with Professor Oscar Casares, acclaimed author of Amigoland. Introduction to International Relations and Global Studies (IRG s301), with Michael Brenner, incoming Director of IRG.

NATURAL SCIENCES: Humans and a Changing Ocean (MNS f309), with Professor Tracy Villareal, Department of Marine Science. Physical Chemistry Laboratory (CH f153K).

SOCIAL WORK: Working with Youth Gangs (SW f360K) with Professor Michael Lauderdale, the Clara Pope Willoughby Centennial Professor in Criminal Justice.

PELL GRANTS are available for eligible students taking 3 or more semester credit hours in the summer. These are IN ADDITION TO the Pell Grants provided in the long semesters. For details contact the Office of Student Financial Services at <http://finaid.utexas.edu/>.

4. DMES CBE Evaluations

DMES offers credit-by-exam evaluations for Arabic, Hebrew, Persian, and Turkish once per semester. Spring CBE evaluations will be held:

Friday, April 23, 9a-12p

CBE evaluations are offered only to students who seek credit to fulfill their language requirement but who DO NOT intend to continue their study of that language at UT.

Students who want to place out of SOME language courses, but who do wish to study at UT should take the placement exam on May 7 or August 18.

Please see <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/depts/mes/languages/testing.php> for more information and to reserve a spot for either exam.

5. SummerStay Program

The College of Liberal Arts encourages you to consider our new SummerStay program. To participate, you will select two courses in the same summer session from a cluster of related courses. Each cluster will require an additional meeting time for “bonuses,” including faculty visits, outside speakers, and community events.

Each summer session offers SummerStay clusters. Remember: you must pick two courses from a given cluster to get access to the bonuses. Just notify the advisor coordinating each cluster to assure your enrollment in the exclusive bonuses!

Brief descriptions of the cluster themes appear below, along with the session offered; for more information on clusters, including complete course listings, go to: <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/student-affairs/Programs/Summer-Programs/summer-stay.php>

6. Psychology Internal Transfer Sessions

On the website below is a list of transfer information sessions for summer/fall admission to the psychology major. Students interested in switching to or adding psychology as a major, should plan to attend one of the sessions found on the website. Attendance at one of the sessions is mandatory for admission purposes.

Please visit our website for more details about admission criteria: <www psy.utexas.edu/>

7. Department of Computer Sciences Transfer Sessions

The Department of Computer Sciences restricts upper-division courses to declared CS majors beginning in Spring 2010. In anticipation of this change, we encourage students who are considering a dual degree or major degree change to attend one of our Internal Transfer Sessions. Major admission requirements and procedures will be reviewed prior to the April 15th application deadline. An academic advisor will also discuss opportunities for students to maximize their career potential, including an 18-hour Elements of Computing Certificate, 5-year BS/MS Integrated Degree, and more.
8. Texas Institute for Literary & Textual Studies
The inaugural year of the Institute (2009-2010) is focused on "Literature and Religious Conflict in the English Renaissance." Considering the contemporary and global concern with religious conflict, the Institute will concentrate on the myriad connections between literature and the religious conflict that permeated the Renaissance, from the Reformation to the Counter-Reformation to the seeds of Enlightenment tolerance sown at the end of the period. The subject has elicited a great deal of interest among Renaissance scholars in recent years, and it should be compelling for a large audience of non-specialists as well.

We have scheduled a variety of TILTS activities for Spring 2010. We hope you will be able to join us for at least some of these activities and we welcome any questions you might have.

For more information concerning the spring speakers and the Renaissance Institute generally, go to: <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/insts/tilts-current/>.

9. New B.S. Degree in Environmental Science
Dr. Stoff would like to inform the Plan II Honors Program that UT-Austin will offer a new B.S. degree in Environmental Science. Several innovative new courses will be taught as part of the degree plan, including two that will be offered this semester as small pilot courses.

Please consider learning more about the courses and degree plan. More information can be found at <http://www.esi.utexas.edu/education/education.html>. There will be an information session on these courses and the new degree plan on

EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIPS

1. Student Internship Presentations (SIP)
Want to know how students manage to snag those amazing internships?

Come SIP on delicious drinks while listening to students speak about their internship experiences in Finance, Marketing, Accounting and MIS. Companies the student speakers have interned at and will be speaking about include JP Morgan Chase, Goldman Sachs, Accenture, Washington Mutual and more! Afterwards, you may ask the speakers any questions you have.

Students will discuss: how they received their internship, how to interview successfully, the projects/tasks/responsibilities they had, the advantages/disadvantages of their internship and more. This insightful and specific advice will help you find a winning internship that best aligns with your personality and goals.

Wednesday, April 21 (Finance/Accounting internships) 6-7 p.m., CBA 4.338
Thursday, April 22 (Marketing/MIS internships) 5-6 p.m., CBA 4.340

3. LLILAS Internship Position Available
There is one internship position open for the Fall 2010 semester at the the Teresa Lozano Long Institute of Latin American Studies (LLILAS). The internship would be a great opportunity for those students interested pursuing graduate degrees or working in Latin American affairs; international public policy; international education as well as in any Social Sciences discipline. The position is not a benefits-eligible one, but there is a stipend of $1500 per semester, for which the intern is expected to put in a 10-hour work week. The Intern will have the opportunity to get familiar with the work of multiple centers within LLILAS as well as a broad range of international initiatives organized by our Institute. Depending on specific background or skills, some interns may be assigned to particular LLILAS centers or programs.

TO APPLY: The application deadline is April 20, 2010 Please submit all application materials directly to Paloma Diaz (Senior Program Coordinator, LLILAS) - office location SRH 1.314D. Application package should include a resume indicating language and computer skills, and a cover letter stating why you are interested in this position. Please make sure that you demonstrate basic knowledge of our programs in your cover letter (visit the LLILAS website), also include a letter of recommendation from a UT faculty member or someone who knows the candidate's professional qualification pertinent to this internship. Also include information about your Fall schedule and available hours.

QUESTIONS? - Please contact: Paloma Diaz, <p.diaz@austin.utexas.edu> / (512) 232-2415

4. Harry Ransom Center Internships
Plan II offers an internship program at the Harry Ransom Center that is designed to provide advanced undergraduates with experience in the nature and operations of a major humanities research center. The experience gained by interns will benefit them in their own research projects, in possible graduate studies, and even as a career option in such fields as librarianship, museum studies, archival or curatorial work, as well as public affairs, marketing, public programming and event management. The internship will be for the entire academic year (fall and spring semester). There will be opportunities to work in a number of different departments of the Center, learning multiple skills, from preservation to collection processing and editorial work. There will be an orientation period during the last week of August. Internships run for three months in the fall: September, October, and November; and three in the spring: February, March, and April. Thus, the internship will end each semester before finals begin.

The position is not a benefits-eligible one, but there is a stipend of $1500 per semester, for which the intern is expected to put in a 10-hour work week. The student must be registered for a minimum of six hours of coursework. In addition there is the possibility of academic credit if the student registers for a conference course (either TC or English) with an appropriate supervising professor.

Applying
An applicant should provide the following:

- a one-page résumé, a letter from the student describing his/her interest and qualifications,
- a letter of recommendation from a UT faculty member or someone who knows the candidate's professional qualification pertinent to this internship

Both letters should be addressed to Danielle Sigler, Curator of Academic Affairs, but should be attached to the résumé and delivered to the Plan II office.

Note: Students may only apply through one program (Liberal Arts Honors, Plan II, Bridging Disciplines, or Fine Arts).

Deadline for applications is EXTENDED to April 14, 2010.

5. Farley Capital L.P. Analyst
Farley Capital L.P. was formed in 1990. We are a long only investment partnership that strives to produce superior returns for investors by employing the philosophy of value investing. We conduct careful fundamental research on all of our investments. Our culture is very entrepreneurial and provides ample opportunity for advancement.

This is an entry level position suitable for a Spring 2010 graduate or a professional with less than two years of finance experience.

Start date: immediate or June 2010
Please e-mail resume to: <eallende@farleycap.com>

6. House Select Committee Internship
The House Select Committee on Government Efficiency and Accountability, a committee tasked with making recommendations to eliminate inefficiencies in state government, including finding best practices for purchasing state goods and services and reviewing advantages and disadvantages of privatization, is seeking interns. These unpaid positions will focus primarily on reading and summarizing reports about similar past initiatives in Texas and in other states and will help prepare hearing materials and briefs. For more information becoming an intern for the House Select Committee on Government Efficiency and Accountability, please contact Jose Aguayo, <Jose.Aguayo_HC@house.state.tx.us >.

7. Intellectual Entrepreneurship "Pre-Graduate School Internship."
This internship is open to students in all UT colleges/schools and departments. You may earn one, two or three hours of academic credit (CMS 164M/264M/364M) by participating in the internship.

In addition, you may read more about this program on the web: <http://communication.utexas.edu/ie/>

NOTE: Because of the generosity of several UT deans, undergraduates who do their pre-grad internship in programs in the following colleges will be eligible to receive travel grants to help cover part of the cost of attending an academic conference (with their grad mentor)--- Law, Public Affairs, Communication, Engineering, Liberal Arts, Pharmacy, Business, Social Work, Education, Natural Sciences, Fine Arts.

A wonderful UT web feature about this program is at:<http://www.utexas.edu/features/2008/ie-2/

If after examining these materials you have questions, please feel free to contact Rick Cherwitz at <spaj737@uts.cc.utexas.edu>

1. Civil Rights Symposium
24th Annual Heman Sweatt Symposium Examines Civil Rights at University of Texas at Austin

Sixty Years of Integration: Civil Rights Then and Now is the theme of the 24th Annual Heman Sweatt Symposium on Civil Rights to held April 22-23 on the University of Texas at Austin campus. The symposium will reflect on the history and progress of civil rights at UT, and what the future might bring. A highlight of the symposium will be "Historic Conversations: Sitting at the Knees of Our Elders," a panel discussion that includes some of the first African American students to be admitted to the university. Dr. Edmund Gordon, the head of the new Department of African And African Diaspora Studies at UT and Dr. Raymond Johnson, a UT alum who attended graduate school at Rice University and was the first African American to graduate from Rice University, will provide the keynote addresses. Dr. Johnson was the first African American professor at the University of Maryland and is currently the distinguished W. L. Moody Jr. Visiting Professor in mathematics at Rice University. For more information and a complete schedule, visit <http://www.utexas.edu/diversity/events/hemansweatt/>

If you have additional questions or need special accommodations, please... contact Choquette Hamilton at (512) 475-6061.

The symposium is sponsored by the Division of Diversity and Community Engagement at The University of Texas at Austin, with support from The Precursors, an organization of the students who attended the university during the early years of integration. Participating symposium sponsors include many University of Texas at Austin colleges, departments and administrative units.

3. Test Anxiety Workshop
TRUE OR FALSE?
When I take a test…

True/False 1. My anxiety keeps me from performing to my potential.
True/False 2. I feel prepared before the test but then my mind goes blank.

True/False 3. My heart races and all I can think about is failing.

If you answered “true” to any of the above questions, you may benefit from this workshop in which you will learn to…

A) Improve study skills and habits
B) Challenge anxious thoughts and use anxiety to your advantage
C) Practice mindful test-taking
D) All of the above

A workshop for UT students led by Diana Damer, Ph.D.

Wednesday, April 14th
or
Thursday, April 29th
5:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Please RSVP to Diana at <dedamer@mail.utexas.edu> with your EID, contact information, and workshop date preference.

4. Human Rights Student Advisory Council Accepting Member Applications for 2010-2011
The Human Rights Student Advisory Council (HRSAC) is sponsored by the Rapoport Center for Human Rights and Justice at the UT School of Law. Its membership is open to all registered student organizations on campus that focus on addressing international or transnational human rights. The Council represents the undergraduate voice in the Rapoport Center’s human rights work and increases collaboration amongst undergraduate human rights organizations to build greater undergraduate awareness and participation in human rights-oriented activities. There are currently eight members in HRSAC: FaceAIDS, the White Rose Society, Oxfam, Amnesty International, Texas Feminists, Liberty in North Korea, Nourish International, and Rapoport Service Scholars.

The 2010-2011 membership application is open to all registered student organizations and will be due on April 18th at 5 p.m. Please email Jiacheng Yu at <jiacheng.yu@gmail.com> for an application and if you have any questions.

5. Research Project to Improve Body Image

Do you like what you see in the mirror? If the answer is “No” and you want to feel better about your body, we’d like to invite you to participate in The Body Project - a research study designed to promote body acceptance! The Body Project is funded by the National Institutes of Health, and it is specifically designed to help young women feel better about their bodies.

The study is open to any female student at UT and it consists of four assessments spread out over the next two years. Each assessment involves completion of an interview and short written survey, and you can receive up to $180 for participating.

Some participants will also have the opportunity to attend a free 4 hour workshop designed to improve your body image.

Useful Miscellany

1. Submitting to Plan2News
Plan2News is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to <planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu>. News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association, as well as performances and exhibits by Plan II students. Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events. Personal and political announcements will not be published in the newsletter; and internships and job announcements should normally be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter.
Please keep in mind that although Plan2News enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as an employer's only means of advertising for a position, a group's only advertisement for an event, etc. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.
To place a news item in Plan2News, you must do the following, or your messages will not be included:
- Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to <planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu>
- In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
- Give the name of a contact person with phone number or e-mail address.
- Provide an activity date or a deadline, whichever is appropriate.
- Do not use “we” or “I.” Please write your submission in third person.
- Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
- News items will run until your deadline, or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.
- The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly-lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.
- Send your news item to <planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu> no later than 3:00 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 3:00 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 3:00 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.
I pledge allegiance to Plan II and the University of Texas at Austin. And to the program for which it stands underfunded, indescribably awesome, with liberty and cookies for all.”
