PLAN2NEWS

1. P2SA Elections

Today is the last day to sign up to run to be a P2SA officer. Sign up in the Plan II Office.

If you are interested in running for P2SA next year, the time has come to make your intentions known! Only candidates for Co-President need to have been officers before, otherwise anyone is welcome to run by signing up in the Plan II office this week.

The P2SA meets every two weeks throughout the school year and plans a variety of social and academic events for the Plan II community. We work closely with the Plan II advisors and faculty to enhance the overall undergraduate experience of Plan II students.

All positions except for Volunteer Chair are filled by two people, so it is customary for students to run for these positions as a partnership.

The following offices are open to students.

- Co-Presidents (2)
- Co-Vice Presidents (2)
- Co-Treasurers (2)
- Academic Co-Chairs (2)
- Recruitment Co-Chairs (2)
- Communication Co-Chairs (2)
- Social Co-Chairs (2)
- Little P’s Co-Chairs (2)
- Volunteer Chair (1)

All candidates will give short, informal speeches at the end of Spring Getaway, this Sunday, April 25, from 1-3.

Voting will take place in the office next week (4/26-30). Only non-graduating seniors may vote and each candidate for next year's P2SA will be givin' speeches, as well!

Contact Clara for more information: <cfraden@mail.utexas.edu>

2. Plan II Spring Getaway

End-of-the-year crunch got you down? Want to be hurled back to your elementary school's Field Day?

Well, you're in luck! A time portal has arrived. Join us Sunday, from 1-3 p.m. in the Honors Quad, for Plan II's own Field Day (a.k.a. Plan II Getaway! The grills will be going, music will be blaring, eggs will be racing, suns will be shining.

So, come out to the quad, eat some food, and socialize a bit, before next week starts back up again. It's Plan II's second to last event of the year, and candidates for next year's P2SA will be givin' speeches, as well!

4/22 w/ Lecture-6:30 p.m. at the Turtle Pond behind the main building

3. Plan II Logic and Modes of Reasoning News

Plan II Logic (PHL 313Q) and Modes of Reasoning (TC 310) Courses - 2010-2011 Academic Year

Any seniors planning to graduate in Fall 2010 or Spring 2011 who still need to fulfill the Plan II Logic/Modes requirement MUST take Plan II Logic (PHL 313Q) during the Fall 2010 semester. Logic is only offered during the Fall semester. There will be no Modes of Reasoning (TC 310) courses offered during the 2010-2011 Academic Year; we hope to again be able to offer the TC 310 course during the 2011-2012 academic year.

4. Broccoli Project Needs Techies

Broccoli Project's production of Caligula by: Albert Camus will be opening on Thursday 4/22 with a lecture on the absurd by the venerable Dean Woodruff following the performance. But if you can't make it Thursday, no big! Dean Woodruff will be speaking on Friday as well after the performance.

"Caligula is the story of a superior suicide. It is the story of the most human and the most tragic of errors. Unfaithful to man, loyal to himself, Caligula consents to die for having understood that no one can save himself all alone and that one cannot be free in opposition to other men." - Albert Camus

5. Registration News

Course descriptions for all Plan II SS and TC courses offered during the Fall 2010 semester are now available online on the College of Liberal Arts website: <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/resources/syllabi/index.php>

6. Broccoli Project Needs Techies

Broccoli needs your help! Our event, Caligula by: Albert Camus with a preceding lecture on Absurd theatre by Dean Woodruff, needs techies and publicity! Our performances are on 4/22, 4/23, and 4/24. Please contact Alex Reynolds at <alexandra.reynolds@bba08.mccombs.utexas.edu> if you are interested in getting involved.

<http://www.finearts.utexas.edu/>

3. Summer Enhancement Program
To serve its students better, UT is launching a program to expand and improve its course offerings in Summer 2010. Some Colleges/Schools will offer courses that may be hard to get in the long semesters. Some will introduce new specialty courses. More information on special offerings can be found at <http://www.utexas.edu/provost/initiatives/summer/>, but here are just a few sample courses:

ARCHITECTURE: Architecture and Society (ARC s308) with Laurence Speck, the W. L. Moody, Jr. Centennial Professor in Architecture.

LIBERAL ARTS: Creative Writing (E f325) with Professor Oscar Casares, acclaimed author of Amigoland. Introduction to International Relations and Global Studies (IRG s301), with Michael Brenner, incoming Director of IRG.

NATURAL SCIENCES: Humans and a Changing Ocean (MNS f309), with Professor Tracy Villareal, Department of Marine Science. Physical Chemistry Laboratory (CH f153K).

SOCIAL WORK: Working with Youth Gangs (SW f360K) with Professor Michael Lauderdale, the Clara Pope Willoughby Centennial Professor in Criminal Justice.

PELL GRANTS are available for eligible students taking 3 or more semester credit hours in the summer. These are IN ADDITION TO the Pell Grants provided in the long semesters. For details contact the Office of Student Financial Services at <http://finaid.utexas.edu/>.

4. DMES CBE Evaluations
DMES offers credit-by-exam evaluations for Arabic, Hebrew, Persian, and Turkish once per semester. Spring CBE evaluations will be held:

Friday, April 23, 9a-12p

CBE evaluations are offered only to students who seek credit to fulfill their language requirement but who DO NOT intend to continue their study of that language at UT.

Please see <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/depts/mes/languages/testing.php> for more information and to reserve a spot for either exam.

5. SummerStay Program
The College of Liberal Arts encourages you to consider our new SummerStay program. To participate, you will select two courses in the same summer session from a cluster of related courses. Each cluster will require an additional meeting time for “bonuses,” including faculty visits, outside speakers, and community events.

Each summer session offers SummerStay clusters. Remember: you must pick two courses from a given cluster to get access to the bonuses. Just notify the advisor coordinating each cluster to assure your enrollment in the exclusive bonuses!

Brief descriptions of the cluster themes appear below, along with the session offered; for more information on clusters, including complete course listings, go to: <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/student-affairs/Programs/Summer-Programs/summer-stay.php>.

6. Psychology Internal Transfer Sessions
On the website below is a list of transfer information sessions for summer/fall admission to the psychology major. Students interested in switching to or adding psychology as a major, should plan to attend one of the sessions found on the website. Attendance at one of the sessions is mandatory for admission purposes.

Please visit our website for more details about admission criteria: <www.psy.utexas.edu/>

7. Texas Institute for Literary & Textual Studies
The inaugural year of the Institute (2009-2010) is focused on "Literature and Religious Conflict in the English Renaissance." Considering the contemporary and global concern with religious conflict, the Institute will concentrate on the myriad connections between literature and the religious conflict that permeated the Renaissance, from the Reformation to the Counter-Reformation to the seeds of Enlightenment tolerance sown at the end of the period. The subject has elicited a great deal of interest among Renaissance scholars in recent years, and it should be compelling for a large audience of non-specialists as well.

We have scheduled a variety of TILTS activities for Spring 2010. We hope you will be able to join us for at least some of these activities and we welcome any questions you might have.

For more information concerning the spring speakers and the Renaissance Institute generally, go to: <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/insts/tilts-current/>.
8. New B.S. Degree in Environmental Science
Dr. Stoff would like to inform the Plan II Honors Program that UT-Austin will offer a new B.S. degree in Environmental Science. Several innovative new courses will be taught as part of the degree plan, including two that will be offered this semester as small pilot courses.

Please consider learning more about the courses and degree plan. More information can be found at <http://www.esi.utexas.edu/education/education.html>. There will be an information session on these courses and the new degree plan on

EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIPS

1. Liberal Arts Dean’s Office Student Job
We are looking to hire at least one peer advisor for the summer. Please forward this to anyone who might be interested. Interviews will begin in early May. Because of the long training process, we prefer candidates whose graduation dates are later than May 2011.

Job Description
Peer Advisors act as the administrative "front line" for the advising suite for undeclared Liberal Arts students. They provide accurate information to the students, faculty, and staff who rely on the Student Division for information on University and College policies and procedures. Peer Advisors are responsible for providing accurate information over the phone, through email, and in person to students, faculty, and staff.

Qualifications
Currently enrolled undergraduate or graduate student at UT
Customer service experience
Detail-oriented
Good communication skills
Fast learner
Ability to handle confidential information
Ability to work 15-20 hours per week in summer/fall

$10/hr. Position will carry forward into fall semester. Turn in cover letter and resume to GEB 2.200 by 5/3/10, or email to <maggie.wilhite@austin.utexas.edu>. Call (512) 471.4271 with your questions.

2. U.T. Immigration Clinic Internship
For the 2010-2011 Academic Year
We are recruiting undergraduate students for an intern position with the Immigration Clinic at the School of Law.

This is an unpaid internship sponsored through the Bernard and Audre Rapoport Center for Human Rights and Justice (<http://www.utexas.edu/law/academics/centers/humanrights/> ). The commitment for the intern involves 10 hours per week of work in the Immigration Clinic. Hours are divided to support the various aspects of the Clinic’s work.

The Immigration Clinic provides crucial representation to vulnerable low-income immigrants. The cases handled by the Clinic are diverse and illustrate the breadth of immigration practice. The Clinic has handled cases for clients from, among other countries, Colombia, El Salvador, Eritrea, Guinea, Uzbekistan and Zimbabwe. The Clinic's cases range from asylum claims based on political persecution or religious, ethnic or gender-based violence to claims of United States citizenship by individuals born abroad to U.S. citizen parents whose status has not been recognized by immigration authorities. An important component of the Clinic's caseload involves work at the T. Don Hutto Detention Center in nearby Taylor, Texas. The controversial facility previously held families and now holds women immigrants who are seeking asylum. For more information, see the clinic website (<http://www.utexas.edu/law/academics/clinics/immigration/> ).

This internship would be an ideal position for students interested in applying to law school and/or working in the fields of immigration and human rights.

Details for the internship position follow:

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Command of the Spanish language, demonstrated organizational skills, demonstrated regular and punctual attendance at work and professional demeanor, as well as experience with internet research, printers, Microsoft Word.

PURPOSE OF THIS POSITION: To provide support to Immigration Clinic faculty and students through case work, research, translation and interpreting (English-Spanish). Assist with other projects and tasks directly related to clinic work as assigned.

The interns should be ready to start this position no later than September 2010.

TO APPLY PLEASE SEND A COVER LETTER, TRANSCRIPT AND RESUME TO: Sonja Hartley (<shartley@law.utexas.edu>) by May 1, 2010.

Application package should include a resume indicating language and computer skills, a cover letter stating why you are interested in this position, and a copy of your most recent transcript. Please make sure that you demonstrate basic knowledge of our programs in your cover letter (visit the website). We will be interviewing applicants in mid-May. If you have any questions, please email us at <shartley@law.utexas.edu>.

3. Farley Capital L.P. Analyst
Farley Capital L.P. was formed in 1990. We are a long only investment partnership that strives to produce superior returns for investors by employing the philosophy of value investing. We conduct careful fundamental research on all of our investments. Our culture is very entrepreneurial and provides ample opportunity for advancement.

This is an entry level position suitable for a Spring 2010 graduate or a professional with less than two years of finance experience.

Start date: immediate or June 2010
Please e-mail resume to: <eallende@farleycap.com>

4. House Select Committee Internship
The House Select Committee on Government Efficiency and Accountability, a committee tasked with making recommendations to eliminate inefficiencies in state government, including finding best practices for purchasing state goods and services and reviewing advantages and disadvantages of privatization, is seeking interns.
These unpaid positions will focus primarily on reading and summarizing reports about similar past initiatives in Texas and in other states and will help prepare hearing materials and briefs.
For more information becoming an intern for the House Select Committee on Government Efficiency and Accountability, please contact Jose
Aguayo,
<Jose.Aguayo_HC@house.state.tx.us>

5. Intellectual Entrepreneurship
"Pre-Graduate School Internship."

This internship is open to students in all UT colleges/schools and departments. You may earn one, two or three hours of academic credit (CMS 164M/264M/364M) by participating in the internship.

In addition, you may read more about this program on the web:
<http://communication.utexas.edu/ie/> NOTE: Because of the generosity of several UT deans, undergraduates who do their pre-grad internship in programs in the following colleges will be eligible to receive travel grants to help cover part of the cost of attending an academic conference (with their grad mentor)--- Law, Public Affairs, Communication, Engineering, Liberal Arts, Pharmacy, Business, Social Work, Education, Natural Sciences,
Fine Arts.

2. Global Leadership Center
The Global Leadership Center (GLC) is looking for talented and motivated individuals to take key roles within the organization to further help empower students and organizations at UT. GLC supports students with international initiatives by developing their roles in the global community.
The Center brings together organizations and campus leaders as well as directly assisting students in their global endeavors, by helping creating a global project from the ground up or tackling an international issue. GLC is a guiding force in every aspect of creating a global leader, from bringing funding and internship opportunities to students' fingertips to introducing them to a campus-wide network of other leaders. At the GLC you'll find that what starts here does change the world.

Please see the description of open application is due Sunday April 25th.

3. Irish Dancing Event
Come learn some traditional Irish social dancing from Inis Ealga members and special guest speaker and World Champion Irish dancer, Eimir NiMhaoileidigh! A "ceili" (pronounced KAY-lee) is an Irish social dance party.
Couples dance together, similar to square dancing. The dances are upbeat and lively, and the movements and steps (that we will teach at the beginning) can easily be picked up.
This culturally rich tradition still continues among young people in Ireland today. Please bring socks or soft soled dance shoes, as street shoes are not allowed on the dance floor.
Definitely bring all your friends! This is all about "craic," or fun!

6. Test Anxiety Workshop
TRUE OR FALSE?
When I take a test...

True/False 1. My anxiety keeps me from performing to my potential.
True/False 2. I feel prepared before the test but then my mind goes blank.
True/False 3. My heart races and all I can think about is failing.

If you answered “true” to any of the above questions, you may benefit from this workshop in which you will learn to...

A) Improve study skills and habits
B) Challenge anxious thoughts and use anxiety to your advantage
C) Practice mindful test-taking
D) All of the above

7. Research Project to Improve Body Image
Do you like what you see in the mirror? If the answer is “No” and you want to feel better about your body, we’d like to invite you to participate in The Body Project - a research study designed to promote body acceptance! The Body Project is funded by the National Institutes of Health, and it is specifically designed to help young women feel better about their bodies.

The study is open to any female student at UT and it consists of four assessments spread out over the next two years. Each assessment involves completion of an interview and short written survey, and you can receive up to $180 for participating.

Some participants will also have the opportunity to attend a free 4 hour workshop designed to improve your body image.

9. College Women's Political Caucus
The College Women's Political Caucus (CWPC) is in its earliest stages, so now is your chance to help shape this national organization! CWPC will be a campus affiliate of the National Women's Political Caucus (NWPC), which exists to help elect pro-choice women candidates to political office on the city, state, and national level.

The goals and possible projects of CWPC include, but are not limited to: Volunteering on political campaigns for local women political candidates. Putting on and participating in trainings on a variety of topics related to political leadership and political campaigns. Mentoring under-served middle & high school girls to help develop their leadership abilities. Working to get the ERA ratified. Networking with women political leaders. Finally, the president of NWPC also sees the CWPC as THE place to start identifying, and training future political leaders.

If you are interested in being an officer in CWPC, please email Harmony Eichsteadt at <harmonyeverafter@gmail.com>.

10. Peer Academic Coaching Program
The Peer Academic Coaching program is open to any student interested in receiving coaching from a trained UT student on how to prepare effectively for UT classes. Peer coaches are trained by learning specialists, and the program as a whole is certified by the College Reading and Learning Association. Common topics include note-taking and reading techniques, time management and concentration, and test taking and test preparation. Participants can expect to learn how to match the ways in which they study to the unique demands of each course.

The cost is covered by the UT Learning Center; potential participants should be open to trying new study techniques and be willing to meet privately once a week for an hour with a peer coach. Participants are admitted to the program on a rolling basis, subject to coach availability.

Students new to the university should visit the UT Learning Center in Jester A332A; all other students can complete a participation request questionnaire online by going to <http://enroll.utlc.utexas.edu/>* and clicking on “Academic Coaching – Get a Coach.”

*Students who have never used UT Learning center services will need to start with “claim a password” when first visiting this site. If assistance is needed, call 471-3614 between 9 and 5, M-F.

USEFUL MISCELLANY

1. Submitting to Plan2News

Plan2News is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to [plan2newsletter@ austindn.edu](mailto:plan2newsletter@ austindn.edu).

News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association, as well as performances and exhibits by Plan II students. Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events. Personal and political announcements will not be published in the newsletter; and internships and job announcements should normally be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter.
I pledge allegiance to Plan II and the University of Texas at Austin.
And to the program for which it stands underfunded,
indescribably awesome,
with liberty and cookies for all.”
