1. Plan II Sophomore Summit 2009

Wednesday, September 16, 2009 6:00 p.m.–7:15 p.m. • Mezes 1.306

Sophomore Summit is an event where we welcome students back for their second year at UT Austin and gather them together as members of the Plan II Community. The purpose of the Sophomore Summit is to briefly introduce students to several offices/resources on campus, provide guidance on tailoring a degree plan for the required Plan II thesis, and explain the Sophomore Advising process. It is our hope that students leave the Summit with the information and tools they need to investigate the many opportunities that lay before them and start thinking about their future.

Representatives from campus offices such as the Liberal Arts Career Services and the UT Study Abroad Office will discuss career and internship planning, useful and exciting foreign travel, study and research as well as how students can incorporate these opportunities their academic plan.

Plan II Associate Director, Professor Alex Wettlaufer and Plan II Assistant Director, Professor Wendy Domjan, will discuss appropriate preparation for the required senior thesis.

All second year Plan II students are required to attend.

2. The Plan II Chamber Music Society

The first meeting of the semester is this Sunday, September 13th at 7:30 p.m. in CRD 007B. We'll have Tiff's Treats. While you're enjoying your cookies, learn about the Plan II Chamber Music Society's activities for the semester, and about forming into chamber groups.

Here is a link to the Facebook event: <http://www.facebook.com/event.php?eid=143789544680>

For further information contact: <planiichambermusic@gmail.com>; or contact Elana Estrin, Melissa Wyatt, Hannah Lee, Ashley Liou, or Jimmy Wang.

3. Plan II Website Updates

The Plan II organizations page on the Plan II website has been updated. Check here for more information on the myriad of opportunities that await: <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/progs/plan2/current_stdnts/activities/orgs.php>. Also, see the NEW Plan II Pledge and Double Major Bingo!

4. Worthington Essay Prize Competition

Plan II alumnus, Roger Worthington, and his wife, Ann, provided funding for the annual Worthington Essay Prize beginning in 2002. Originally a single prize, now Plan II awards 3 prizes each year to Plan II students, including a first-year student prize. The essay topics have ranged from hypothetical scenarios to real-world events and always challenge students to form an argument on one side of a debate, then present it convincingly. Plan II recruits UT faculty members to be judges of the competition each year. In the spring semester, Plan II traditionally hosts a dinner for the winners and their guests.
ALL Plan II students are eligible to enter. Grand Prize: $2500; First-Year Student Prize: $1500 (unless Grand Prize winner); Second Prize: $1000. Check here for more information on the essay topics and entry instructions: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/progs/plan2/news/1099

5. Plan II to offer new Maymester Program in Costa Rica – May 2010
Plan II is pleased to announce the creation of a new Maymester Study Abroad Program in Costa Rica to be offered in May 2010. The Program is titled “Costa Rica: Issues in Rainforest Conservation” and will be co-taught by Professors Ruth Buskirk and Moon Draper of the School of Biological Sciences in the College of Natural Sciences. Course credit for either TC 357 or BIO 337 can be gained from participation in the Program. For detailed information attend an information session (see schedule below) and visit the Costa Rica page on the Plan II website: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/progs/plan2/current_stdnts/abroad/costa-rica.php

REGISTRATION DUE by September 10th; registration forms available at the Plan II front desk
Plan II Getaway kicks of the social year with great food (including vegetarian options), volleyball, swimming, frisbee, soccer, and Shakespeare. Every first-year attends this annual event so don’t be the one who misses out. Get to know Plan II faculty, staff, and peer advisors in a great setting away from campus—the Shady Springs Party Barn! Buses start loading at 3:30 p.m. in front of the Littlefield Fountain on 21st Street, leave by 4 p.m.

7. Plan II World Lit Escort Ambassadors Needed
Are you in Mia Carter’s, Brian Doherty’s or Jim Garrison’s MWF 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. section of World Literature? If so, Plan II needs your help to give visiting prospective students a great experience by escorting them from Plan II information sessions to your World Literature class. As an escort ambassador, you will be asked a few times during the semester to pick up visiting high school seniors from the Meyerson Conference Room (WCH 4.118) at 10:45 a.m. and bring them to your class. It works best if volunteers do not have a 10:00 a.m. MWF class since we need you to drop in at the information session by 10:40 a.m. If a volunteer’s schedule allows, after the class, our visitors and their parents always appreciate it when you share your Plan II experience. To volunteer, please contact P2SA Recruitment Chairs Megan Sanders and Emily Hawthorne, p2recruitment@gmail.com.
8. Plan II Honors Overnight Ambassadors Needed
Are you an on-campus resident who is eager to show off UT and Plan II? If so, Plan II needs volunteers to host a prospective student for an overnight stay in a dorm (especially in the honors residences). Volunteers are not expected to play tour guide or babysitter during a student’s visit. Essentially, volunteers should provide visitors with solid contact information and a firm meeting time, directions around campus and to the cafeteria, and a floor to sleep on for the night. Honors dorms, Duren, and San Jacinto visits are most often requested, but all on-campus housing offers are always appreciated. Both male and female volunteer hosts are needed. Overnight ambassadors will be asked to house overnight visitors only once or twice at most. These overnight visits are often what make a prospective student choose Plan II and UT over other excellent schools. To volunteer, please contact P2SA Recruitment Chairs Megan Sanders and Emily Hawthorne, <p2recruitment@gmail.com>.

9. Plan II E-mail Ambassadors Needed
Plan II students volunteers are needed to serve as e-mail ambassadors to prospective students. Volunteers, names, and major(s) will be posted on <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/progs/plan2/applicants/contacts/>. This way, prospective students may contact a real live student with questions about dorm life, UT life, Plan II life, or even what it is like to combine Plan II with another major. There is a need for Plan II student contacts who are combining majors and degrees in fine arts, communication, and architecture. E-mail ambassadors WILL NOT (EVER!) discuss the application process, the Plan II application evaluation process, the required curriculum, testing credits, UT admissions, or any other technical information. All such questions should be referred to Jennifer Scalora or the Plan II website. Send your name, your email address, your year (1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc.) and other majors, degrees, and special interests to <scalora@mail.utexas.edu>.

Specifically Fine Arts and Engineering Majors Needed.

2. Free Seminars Offered at the UT Learning Center
Secrets of Academic Success
9/22 - 10/8 3:00 to 3:50 p.m. TTh 3 weeks
Come learn skills that will, with practice, supercharge your learning. We'll talk about using a systematic approach to studying and learning that can be applied to any class or learning opportunity. In addition to learning a more effective way to study, learn how to more successfully manage time, how to take better notes, and how to utilize specific strategies that will help improve test preparation and test-taking skills. The course also talks about the emotional components of learning and learning style preferences. Take this step toward getting the desired results at UT!

For more information on other free seminars follow this link: <http://www.utexas.edu/student/utlc/classes/>

3. University Extension Launches Five Month Online Courses
Starting September 1, 2009, all University Extension (UEX) independent study online courses will be offered as five month courses. These shorter, faster online courses allow fast and consistent progress. The student sets the pace while engaged, rapid instructor feedback helps students complete a course faster. Depending on the student’s pace, some courses can be completed in a month or two. Students may take up to 30 days to complete a final exam. UEX offers over 60 undergraduate courses from across the curriculum, including many core curriculum courses.

To learn more, visit the "Five month online courses" link on our home-page, <http://www.utexas.edu/ce/uex/>, or contact us by phone or e-mail. (512) 471-2900 <uex@austin.utexas.edu>

4. Howl, Howl, Howl! Does Father Always Know Best?
Professor Elizabeth Richmond-Garza, Department of English, College of Liberal Arts
Wednesday, September 16 at 7 p.m. in ACES 2.302
King Lear is a huge play and a painful one. It asks us to think hard about how we treat our parents and how we wish to be treated in turn as we grow old. In certain periods the world seems especially violently chaotic, and at the same time parents and children feel out of touch. These two fears combined in Shakespeare’s day and perhaps also come together in ours. Whenever King Lear is popular, as it is today, it speaks to us about terror and about whether our families can ease our anxieties. This multimedia presentation will trace through image and film how a play from almost exactly four hundred years ago remains unforgettable and therapeutic for all generations even today.

5. UPDATED: Non-US History Requirement for Students in all Catalogs
Plan II students in all undergraduate catalogs will now be under the updated Non-US History degree requirement which is six hours in the same geographic area (the early/late requirement has been removed). Students can find the list of approved Non-US History courses on the Plan II website on the “Advising Forms and Guides” page: <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/progs/plan2/advising/adv-forms-guides.php>.

EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIPS
1. Internships with Texas State Senators
TC 330: Legislative Health Policy Internships and Seminar Plan II sophomores and juniors interested in medicine, law, or government are invited to apply for selective internships with leading state senators in the Texas Legislature during the 2010 spring semester. The internships and seminar are led by Professor Alfred McAlister of The University of Texas School of Public Health, <alfred.l.mcalister@uth.tmc.edu>, and coordinated by Plan II senior Pallavi Shankar, <pallavi.shankar@gmail.com>. Time commitments generally range from ten to twelve hours a week, divided between time spent at the Capitol, outside research, and seminar time. These unpaid positions provide a unique opportunity to learn about and contribute to legislative deliberation of current health policy issues in Texas. Interested students can apply by providing their name and contact information, expected graduation date, major, plans for postgraduate education, career goals, GPA, résumé, and a brief statement of interests and qualifications. This should be submitted no later than October 2 at 5:00 p.m. in printed form to Melissa Ossian in the Plan II Office, WCH 4.104. Notification of selection will be made by October 12.

2. Teach For America Info Session
Teach For America <https://www.teachforamerica.org/index.htm> is the national corps of outstanding recent college graduates and professionals - of all majors, backgrounds, and career interests - who commit to teach for two years in urban and rural public schools and become lifelong leaders in expanding educational opportunity. This year, 7,300 corps members are teaching in 35 regions across the country while 17,000 Teach For America alumni continue working from inside and outside the field of education for the fundamental changes necessary to ensure educational excellence and equity.

Please join us for an information session and learn how you can make an immediate difference in the lives of your students.
Date: Monday, 9/14/09 & Tuesday, 9/15/09
Time: 7:00 PM – 8:00 p.m.
Location: Mezes 1.306
Food & drinks will be provided

To learn more, visit <http://www.teachforamerica.org/> or contact <admissions@teachforamerica.org>. NEXT Application Deadline: Friday, September 18th, 2009

UNIVERSITY WIDE
1. UT Suicide Prevention Week
The Counseling and Mental Health Center is proud to announce U.T.'s first Suicide Prevention Week starting September 14th through the 18th. This week is dedicated to raising awareness about suicide and suicidal behaviors among our students. It represents a call to action and involvement by all UT staff, faculty, and students to support suicide prevention. Throughout the week, many UT departments and organizations are sponsoring a variety of interactive programs. Be that one who recognizes when your student or friend is thinking about suicide and learn how to help them. For more information about the week's events, check out <http://cmhc.utexas.edu/bethatone>

2. BEVOnomics
Bevonomics, the new money management program from the Office of Student Financial Services at UT Austin, gives you the information and tools you need to learn how to make good financial decisions about your money and money and your future. Our workshops are open to any UT student, and you don’t need to bring anything to a workshop, just yourself. For a full schedule, see <www.bevonomics.org>
Upcoming Sessions:

5. Peer Academic Coaching Program
The Peer Academic Coaching program is open to any student interested in receiving coaching from a trained UT student on how to prepare effectively for UT classes. Peer coaches are trained by learning specialists, and the program as a whole is certified by the College Reading and Learning Association. Common topics include note-taking and reading techniques, time management and concentration, and test taking and test preparation. Participants can expect to learn how to match the ways in which they study to the unique demands of each course. The cost is covered by the UT Learning Center; potential participants should be open to trying new study techniques and be willing to meet privately once a week for an hour with a peer coach. Participants are admitted to the program on a rolling basis, subject to coach availability.

Interested freshmen should visit the UT Learning Center in Jester A332A; all other students can complete a participation request questionnaire online by going to https://enroll.utexas.edu and clicking on “Academic Coaching – Get a Coach.”

Useful Miscellany

1. UT Email Accounts & Policies:
   Please be sure that you are thoroughly familiar with the UT email policies at http://www.utexas.edu/its/policies/emailnotify.php. Item C is most relevant, especially:
   - It is the responsibility of every student to keep the University informed of changes in his or her official e-mail address. Consequently, e-mail returned to the University with "User Unknown" is not an acceptable excuse for missed communication.
   - The University cannot be responsible for the handling of e-mail by outside vendors (e.g., @aol.com, @hotmail.com) or by University departmental servers. A student may provide an official e-mail address resident on, or that forwards to, such a server at his or her own risk.

   Plan II does not receive automatic updates if a student updates an email account on UT Direct. We have to ask you to contact us directly if you change your email, local or permanent address. Email updates: <scalora@mail.utexas.edu>

2. Submitting to the Plan II Newsletter
   The Plan II newsletter is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to <planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu>. News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association, as well as performances and exhibits by Plan II students. Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events. Personal and political announcements will not be published in the newsletter; and internships and job announcements should normally be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter.

   Please keep in mind that although the Plan II newsletter enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as an employer's only means of advertising for a position, a group's only advertisement for an event, etc. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.

   To place a news item in the Plan II newsletter, you must do the following, or your messages will not be included:
   - Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to <planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu>.
   - In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
   - Give the name of a contact person with phone number or e-mail address.
   - Provide an activity date or a deadline, whichever is appropriate.
   - Do not use “we” or “I.” Please write your submission in third person.
   - Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
- News items will run until your deadline, or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.
- The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly-lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.
- Send your news item to <planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu> no later than 3:00 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 3:00 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 3:00 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.
