5. Worthington Essay Prize Competition
Plan II alumni, Roger Worthington, and his wife, Ann, provided funding for the annual Worthington Essay Prize beginning in 2002. Originally a single prize, now Plan II awards 3 prizes each year to Plan II students, including a first-year student prize. The essay topics have ranged from hypothetical scenarios to real-world events and always challenge students to form an argument on one side of a debate, then present it convincingly. Plan II recruits UT faculty members to be judges of the competition each year. In the spring semester, Plan II traditionally hosts a dinner for the winners and their guests. ALL Plan II students are eligible to enter. Grand Prize: $2500; First-Year Student Prize: $1500 (unless Grand Prize winner); Second Prize: $1000. Check here for more information on the essay topics and entry instructions: <http://www.utexas.edu/cola/progs/plan2/news/1099> Deadline: 5 p.m., October 2, 2009 Submit your essay to the Plan II Honors front desk. NO LATE ENTRIES.

7. Plan II Honors Overnight Ambassadors Needed
Are you an on-campus resident who is eager to show off UT and Plan II? If so, Plan II needs volunteers to host a prospective student for an overnight stay in a dorm (especially in the honors residences). Volunteers are not expected to play tour guide or babysitter during a student’s visit. Essentially, volunteers should provide visitors with solid contact information and a firm meeting time, directions around campus and to the cafeteria, and a floor to sleep on for the night. Honors dorms, Duren, and San Jacinto visits are most often requested, but all on-campus housing offers are always appreciated. Both male and female volunteer hosts are needed. Overnight ambassadors will be asked... to house overnight visitors only once or twice at most. These overnight visits are often what make a prospective student choose Plan II and UT over other excellent schools. To volunteer, please contact P2SA Recruitment Chairs Megan Sanders and Emily Hawthorne, <p2recruitment@gmail.com>.

5. University History Society presents: Michael Collins
Following defeat at the hands of British forces during the Easter Rising of 1916, Michael Collins develops new strategies for the independence of Ireland. He devises tactics which make him the father of urban guerilla warfare. By 1921, he has brought the British Empire to its knees, or so he thinks. President Éamon de Valera sends Collins to negotiate with the British for Irish independence. When Collins returns with a compromise of a divided Ireland and an Irish Free State, not a Republic, a rift develops among the IRA. Collins is now faced with civil war as he struggles against those who insist on complete freedom for all of Ireland.

Directed by Neil Jordan. Featuring Liam Neeson as Michael Collins, Alan Rickman as Éamon de Valera, Julia Roberts as Kitty Kiernan, and Aidan Quinn as Harry Boland.

Come join us for a night of history and popcorn.
What: Michael Collins
Where: GAR 1.122
When: Wed. Sept 26 at 7pm

USEFUL MISCELLANY

1. Submitting to the Plan II Newsletter
The Plan II newsletter is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to <planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu>. News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association, as well as performances and exhibits by Plan II students. Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events. Personal and political announcements will not be published in the newsletter; and internships and job announcements should normally be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter.

Please keep in mind that although the Plan II newsletter enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as an employer's only means of advertising for a position, a group's only advertisement for an event, etc. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.

To place a news item in the Plan II newsletter, you must do the following, or your messages will not be included:
- Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to <planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu>.
- In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
- Give the name of a contact person with phone number or e-mail address.
- Provide an activity date or a deadline, whichever is appropriate.
- Do not use “we” or “I.” Please write your submission in third person.
- Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
- News items will run until your deadline, or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.
- The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly-lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.
- Send your news item to <planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu> no later than 3:00 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 3:00 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 3:00 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.
