1. Plan II scholarship
Application opens: Monday, February 13
Application closes: Tuesday, March 31 at midnight

Apply using the College of Liberal Arts Online Scholarship Portal: https://utdirect.utexas.edu/scholarship/student/menu/WBX?
s_scholarship_owner=LPL2&s_user_role=S.

Almost all of these are year-long scholarships and require full-time fall and spring registration. You may not receive the scholarship if you are studying abroad during the fall or spring of the scholarship year unless it is a UT affiliated (exchange) program and you are registered for twelve (12) or more University of Texas course hours. In most cases, but not all, you can receive a Continuing scholarship if you also receive Plan II study abroad, research, thesis or travel funding.

2. Joynes Writing Fellowships
Application deadline: Friday, February 17 before 5 p.m.

The Joynes Reading Room will award scholarships to a small number of Plan II students to support their development as creative writers. Applicants must be current students in the Plan II Honors Program with an expected graduation date no sooner than December 2012. Winners will each receive a $1000 scholarship and will have future opportunities to meet with distinguished visiting writers in the Joynes Literary Series. Applicants should submit a writing sample of no more than 12 pages of fiction or poetry. Prose should be double spaced. Include a cover page with your name and contact information. Submit your application in a sealed manilla envelope to Matt Valentine's mailbox in the Plan II Office before 5 p.m. Friday, February 17. Manuscripts will not be returned.

3. Medical ethicist Walter Glannon lectures on "Neuroscience, Free Will and Moral Responsibility"
Wednesday, February 8 at 7 p.m.
The Joynes Reading Room (CRD 007)

Dr. Glannon is an associate professor of philosophy at the University of Calgary. He has published four books on medical ethics, including his most recent, Brain Body, and Mind: Neuroethics with a Human Face. He will speak in the Joynes Reading Room (CRD 007) at 7PM on Wednesday, February 8, in an event open to everyone. No RSVP is required. Call (512) 471-5787 or write to mvalentine@mail.utexas.edu with any questions.

4. Update your contact information
Please be sure to keep your e-mail address updated with the Plan II Honors Program office. Unfortunately, updating your e-mail (or home address, parents’ address, phone, etc.) on UTDirect will not update the Plan II database. Please e-mail Jennifer Scalora at scalora@austin.utexas.edu if you need to change any of your contact information.

5. Plan II World Lit ambassadors
Share your Plan II pride! The Plan II Office is looking for first-year students to act as escorts for prospective applicants (high school juniors and seniors). World Lit ambassadors take visitors from Plan II admission information sessions in WC Hogg to selected World Literature classes and/or escort the visitors back to the Meyerson Room (WCH 4.118) after the World Lit class. Prospective students will visit Professors Bertelsen’s, Devorkian’s, Garrison’s, Hoad’s, and Christian’s MWF 11 a.m. World Lit classes in the spring 2012 semester. Some ambassadors join prospective students and parents for lunch or give the prospective student a quick tour of one of the honors residence halls.

Ambassadors should be free from 10 - 11 a.m. on MWF. You do not have to belong to one of the MWF 11:00 classes. We ask ambassadors to arrive at the Meyerson by 10:40-10:45 a.m. to ensure that everyone arrives to the class on time. Information sessions begin on Friday, February 3. To volunteer, please contact P2SA Recruitment Chairs Austin Rogers or Will Gorman at p2recruitment@gmail.com.

ACADEMIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Dialogue on Free Speech
Thursday, February 9 from 7 - 9 p.m.
Flawn Academic Center (FAC) Room 21

The event is free and open to the public, but intended primarily for our undergraduate students, so anything you could do to spread the word to students would be greatly appreciated.

The focus this term is Freedom of the Press and the Publication of Government Secrets.

Speakers:
• Linda Greenhouse, Pulitzer Prize-winner, former New York Times correspondent covering the Supreme Court, and now a lecturer at Yale Law School
• Jack Shafer, press and politics columnist for Reuters, after a long career at Slate
• Michael Kent Curtis, professor of constitutional law at Wake Forest University

Further description: Wikileaks’ disclosures over the last year are an obvious flashpoint, but panelists will also consider such questions as: Should the press enjoy broader rights of free expression than others? Does the mission of public service license special immunities? Who, exactly, qualifies as the press in the age of bloggers and do-it-yourself journalism? Does the public have a “right to know?” Does government secrecy undermine accountability?

If you have any questions, please contact my assistant, Victor Mendoza, at: vicmen32@live.com.

More information about the Free Speech Dialogue can be found on our website: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/orgs/bbtobjectivism/Dialogues/About%20the%20Series.php

2. Nominate professors for Friar Centennial Teaching Fellowship
Deadline: Friday, March 9

The Friar Society, the University’s oldest and most prestigious honor society, is now accepting nominations for the 2012 Friar Centennial Teaching Fellowship (FCTF). This Fellowship, which is awarded annually to one outstanding undergraduate professor, is the largest undergraduate faculty award at the University with an endowment of over $500,000 and an annual award of $25,000.

We invite you to nominate a professor who, in your experience, is deserving of this honor. The nomination form is available online at https://www.soa.utexas.edu/admissions/internalfaq and can also be found on the Friar Society Web site, www.friarsociety.org. Please note that only tenured or tenure-track faculty who teach undergraduate courses are eligible to receive the FCTF.

Please submit all nomination forms to 2012FCTF@gmail.com by Friday, March 9, 2012. Late submissions will not be considered.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact us at natalie.e.butler@gmail.com<mailto:natalie.e.butler@gmail.com> or dfornash@gmail.com<mailto:dforinash@gmail.com>. We look forward to receiving your nominations!

3. Two-time Pulitzer Prize-winner Nicholas Kristof addresses human trafficking

Monday, February 13 at 7 p.m.
Auditorium of the LBJ Library
Writing for the New York Times, Kristof has travelled the globe to document the ongoing traffic of women and girls sold into sexual slavery. Through his column, which won the Pulitzer Prize in 2006, Kristof has introduced readers to heroes fighting against human trafficking and survivors who have become activists themselves. Kristof will deliver the 2012 Liz Carpenter Lecture on Monday night, February 13, at 7 p.m. This event is free and open to the public. No RSVP is required. While supplies last, honors students may request (in person) a free copy of Kristof's book Half the Sky at the front desk of the Joynes Reading Room.

4. Reading by author Mark Long

Tuesday, February 21 at 7 p.m.
The Joynes Reading Room

In a new graphic novel, author Mark Long presents a true story of the civil rights movement in Texas. The Silence of Our Friends recounts the stories of two families in Houston, one black and one white, at a critical point during the civil rights movement. Author Mark Long will discuss the story and his collaboration with illustrator Nate Powell. While supplies last, honors students may request (in person) a free copy of The Silence of Our Friends at the front desk of the Joynes Reading Room.

5. Actuarial Information Session

Thursday February 9
4 - 5 p.m. in ECJ 1.202

An individual who wants to become an actuary must excel at challenging courses in mathematics, have some interest in using these skills to analyze and solve business problems, be willing to spend many hours preparing for professional examinations, and possess good communication skills.

Actuarial program director Mark Maxwell will briefly describe the actuarial profession, the professional actuarial organizations, the actuarial credentialing process, and the UT actuarial program/degree.

Is the profession right for you? Characteristics of both successful and unsuccessful students will be discussed so that you can judge for yourself.

A significant portion of time will be reserved to answer questions from those in attendance.

6. Internal Transfer Application for the School of Architecture

Deadline: Thursday, March 1

To be eligible to apply a student must have the following:
• 3.25 UT GPA (now, and after the end of this spring semester)
• At least 24 hours completed in residence at UT by the end of this spring semester

Emphasis is given to strong performance in university courses, especially those relevant to the degree program to which the applicant is applying. However, meeting these requirements does not guarantee admission into the School of Architecture.

An Internal Transfer FAQ is available at http://www.soa.utexas.edu/admissions/internalfaq.

Decisions are made at the end of the spring semester, after spring grades are posted. This semester's grades do matter! Students will receive notification of our decision via mail and email.

The application is available at http://www.soa.utexas.edu/admissions/internaltransfer, and is also prominently displayed on the School of Architecture home page.

7. 3 Day Startup (3DS)

Application deadline: Thursday, March 1
Rolling admissions

Information sessions:
Monday, February 6
Thursday, February 16
5 p.m. in JGB 2.216

The idea of 3 Day Startup is to start a technology company over the course of three days. We invite students from numerous backgrounds - liberal arts, computer science, design, engineering, MBAs, neuroscience, law, etc - and provide guidance through the early stages of the startup experience. Over one intense weekend, 3DSparticipants brainstorm ideas, conduct market validation, devise business models, build prototypes, create branding, and pitch to investors and successful entrepreneurs. The result is an experience that challenges participants to innovate, build and launch real companies. Find out more at http://austin.3daystartup.org/. If you have any questions contact Rishi Shah (rishi09@gmail.com).

8. Texas Equity Group seeks new members

Application deadline: Thursday, February 9
Information session: Monday, February 6 at 5:30
The EDS Financial and Trading Technology Center

The Texas Equity Group is a select student-run investment group that manages a real-money portfolio and also serves as a network to meet other highly qualified students interested in finance and investing. Alumni have interned or joined full-time at McKinsey, Greenhill, Citigroup, and Barclays Capital. This semester, the group is currently looking to recruit several students, especially freshmen and sophomores, regardless of major or career goal.

To find out more, TEG will be holding an info session on Monday, February 6 at 5:30 in the EDS Financial and Trading Technology Center. For those who cannot attend but are still interested in applying, please email texasequitygroup@gmail.com for an application and more information.

9. FAFSA completion sessions for continuing students

Thursday, March 15
The time has once again arrived for students to begin applying for financial aid for the upcoming 2012-2013 school year. The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is the only application needed at UT-Austins to apply for grants, work-study, and student loans. Financial aid counselors will be available to assist current students completing the online FAFSA application (paper FAFSA's available upon request). Sessions are held in a computer lab setting on a walk-in basis. More information at http://finaid.utexas.edu/spotlights/FAFSA120_sessions.html.

10. Bevonomics
Bevonomics is a personal money management education program for UT-Austin students. The program provides information and resources that empower students to make financially responsible decisions that promote financial wellness. Bevonomics workshops help increase awareness of consumer debt while expanding the knowledge and importance of daily money management. http://www.bevonomics.org/

11. Undergraduate Research Journal seeks submissions
Deadline: Wednesday, February 29 at noon

The Undergraduate Research Journal (URJ) is a work of multi-disciplinary research produced and edited by University of Texas at Austin undergraduate students. The journal is published every spring semester and is circulated across campus, and other prestigious universities, including some Ivy League schools, around the United States.

The URJ is looking for interesting, and lucid pieces that present original ideas. It is looking for research which challenges people to see an issue from a different vantage point, consider a new idea, or synthesize existing works. All disciplines are welcome.

Submissions can include: products of coursework, independent study, supervised research, senior theses, etc. All past [within one year of graduation] or current full or part-time undergraduate students in good standing at the University of Texas at Austin are invited to submit their articles for review.

Visit http://texasurj.com/submission for more information.

The selection process will be completed in March of 2012. There is a $250+ award for the best paper by an upper division student and a $100+ award for the best paper by a lower division student.

Copies of the 2011 journals are in circulation! If you would like one or have any questions, please contact Bobby Jenkins, editor-in-chief, at editorinchief@texasurj.com

12. American Shakespeare Company performs two plays on campus
Wednesday and Thursday, February 22 and 23 at 7 p.m.
SAC Black Box Theater

The ASC's touring troupe will perform Shakespeare’s A Midsummer Night's Dream and John Ford's 'Tis Pity She's a Whore. A Midsummer Night’s Dream’s theatrical spell is powerful enough to make audiences of all ages believe in anything. Shakespeare’s mischievous comedy of lovers, heroes, fairies, and rude mechanicals is his tribute to humankind’s power of imagination. John Ford’s brilliant re-imagining of Romeo and Juliet leads audiences deep into a story of passion, lust, vengeance, greed, incest, and murder. After almost 400 years, 'Tis Pity She’s a Whore’s tale of forbidden love remains controversial, shocking, and theatrically spellbinding. Tickets can be purchased online in advance through the Shakespeare at Winedale web site. Seating is limited so advance ticket purchase is recommended.

14. Green Fee Grants
Deadline: Friday, March 9 by 5 p.m.

Applications for the 2012-2013 Green Fee grants are now available on UT-Austin’s Sustainability Portal here: http://www.utexas.edu/sustainability/greenfee.php.

The Committee strongly encourages current students, staff, and faculty to submit creative and thoughtful applications to support initiatives across campus. See the link above for the list of approved 2011-2012 projects. Email greenfee@austin.utexas.edu with any questions.

15. E.D. Farmer International Fellowships for Texans and Mexican Nationals
Application deadline: Friday, February 24

The E.D. Farmer International Fellowship application process is now open for Summer 2012 and the 2012-2013 Academic Year.

The following students are eligible to compete for these funds:
• Mexican students who are current UT Austin undergraduate or graduate students or who are applying to a graduate or undergraduate program at UT Austin may apply for a stipend for living expenses during the academic year. Awardees are also eligible for in-state tuition. Stipends vary from year to year but average $4,000 per student.
• Mexican students who are currently enrolled in a graduate or undergraduate program at UT Austin may apply for funding to support research to be conducted in Mexico. Funding will depend on the research budget presented by the applicant. Exchange program students are not eligible for the award.
• Students from the State of Texas who have satisfactorily completed at least two years of study at an accredited college or university, with one year having been completed at UT Austin, may apply for funding to support research to be conducted in Mexico. The award varies according to the research budget.
Please visit this site for the application and more information: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/insts/lillas/centers-and-programs/mexico/fellowships.php.

For questions, please contact Heather Gatlin at hgstlin@austin.utexas.edu

16. Coffee with Alums
Wednesday, February 8 from 6 - 7 p.m. 3rd floor conference room of GEB

Liberal Arts Council’s Alumni Relations Committee brings you Coffee With Alums, a chance for you to mingle with UT alumni from the College of Liberal Arts. This is a great networking opportunity and a chance to find out how these UT graduates have utilized their degrees and what they have been doing since their time at UT.

Coffee and cookies will be provided!

For more information contact Jenna Beron at: jennaberon@tx.rr.com

17. COLA scholarships for spring 2012
Deadline for most scholarships: Wednesday, February 15

Applications are now being accepted for merit-based, research and study abroad scholarships for spring 2012.

See if you are eligible on the Liberal Arts scholarship website: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/student-affairs/Programs/Scholarships.php.

18. Masters in Education with Secondary English Teaching Certification
Beginning in fall 2012, the College of Education will be offering a masters in education that will include certification to teach secondary English. It is recruiting students who are nearing graduation with degrees in English or closely related disciplines and who are interested in earning a masters in education that will also include Texas teacher certification for grades 8-12 in English.

You can learn more about the program by visiting these sites on the Department of Curriculum & Instruction’s website: http://www.edb.utexas.edu/education/departments/ci/programs/lls/studentinfo/cstudents/grad/degrees/#MEd_EnglishTch and https://www.edb.utexas.edu/education/departments/ci/programs/lls/studentinfo/cstudents/grad/degrees/4288/

You may also contact Allison Skerrett with any questions at ASkerrett@mail.utexas.edu.

19. 1-hour “Social Dynamics in Seinfeld” course
For students interested in taking a 1-hour course this semester, The Democratic Education for Texas (DemTex) program is offering a course titled “Social Dynamics in Seinfeld.”

The “Social Dynamics in Seinfeld” course will cover topics in the fields of psychology and sociology in an attempt to explore and explain the actions of characters and events on the show. Classes will be discussion-based and will link academic subjects to specific episodes and scenes. Basic knowledge of Seinfeld is necessary, and an interest in the show and familiarity with the main characters is sufficient.

If you are interested in joining this course or another DemTex course, please email utdemtex@gmail.com or contact Bala Varadhan at ballah.gee@gmail.com.

20. Leadership certification with the Leadership Series Workshop
First workshop: Wednesday, February 8 5:30 - 6:45 p.m.

The Leadership Series is a series of workshops designed to develop both individual student leaders as well as provide resources for growth and change for student organizations. Workshops are held twice a month in the fall and spring semesters. Students who participate in the Leadership Series workshops have the opportunity to gain leadership certification. Workshop details and certification requirements can be found at http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/glie/lei/leadership_series.php. The first workshop of the spring semester will be on February 8, 2012 from 5:30 - 6:45 p.m. Visit the web address for location information and other details about the certification requirements.

21. Texas Leadership Summit: Shaping Tomorrow by Challenging Today
Saturday, February 18 9:30 a.m. - 5 p.m. in the SAC

The Texas Leadership Summit will be held Saturday, February 18, 2012 from 9:30 a.m. - 5 p.m. at the Student Activities Center. The Summit provides a unique opportunity for all students at The University of Texas at Austin to develop and refine their leadership skills. All students attending this event have the opportunity to meet and interact with other student leaders by participating in breakout sessions and group activities. Visit http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/glie/lei/leadership_conference.php for more information.

22. Join an LEI Committee
Interested in helping coordinate leadership development programs? Join one of the four LEI Committees this spring and start your leadership journey! The four committees include: First-Year Initiatives, Campus and Community Outreach, Leadership Development and Training, and Recognition and Awards. Visit our Web site for information about the committees and how to join at http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/glie/lei/leadership_committees.php.

23. DELL Social Innovation Challenge
University students of the world – share your innovative ideas for solving a social or environmental problem and compete for $750,000 in prizes and awards! Connect with students, find a mentor through our global community and get inspired to put your ideas into action.

The challenge is open to students in all fields of study with any social impact innovation (from charitable to for-profit and even blended projects) and in any phase of development (from early ideas to complete operations fully up and running).

If you plan to on submit a project, use reference code DSICKM for the chance to win laptops and other prizes. If you are interested or have questions, please contact Kajal Mehta at kaj.mehta@gmail.com.

24. Scholarship opportunity for students interested in careers in journalism
Application deadline: Friday, February 24
The Headliners Foundation of Texas applications for the 2012-2013 school year have been posted here: http://headlinersfoundation.org/scholarships.

Applications are open to strong writers in any major who participate in school media.

This year, the scholarship awards have doubled from $3,000 to $6,000 per year to better reflect the true cost of an education. The downside is that the Foundation is unable to offer as many scholarships as in the past. But in addition to these larger scholarships, it continues to offer a few smaller ones with specific designations as you will read online.

Headliners Foundation is one of the most prestigious scholarships in the state, not just because of the money awarded, but because of the recognition it provides. Students are invited to the awards luncheon in Austin each fall. In addition, this year it will identify other ways to mentor its scholars throughout the year.

25. Texas Master of Science in Finance
Program information sessions Thursday, February 9 at 5 p.m.
ACE 2.402 Thursday, February 16 at 5 p.m.
GSB 3.104

The Texas Master of Science in Finance (MSF) Program at the McCombs School of Business provides a unique opportunity for students to receive graduate-level training in order to prepare for careers in finance, especially those requiring analytic rigor and quantitative skills. The Program is explicitly designed for students from non-business backgrounds, or from business disciplines other than finance. No previous work experience is required, and the program can be completed in less than a calendar year.

For more information, visit http://www.mccombs.utexas.edu/msf.

26. The Liberal Arts Entrepreneur class offered by LA Career Services
Liberal Arts Career Services is offering a new course this spring, LA 325: The Liberal Arts Entrepreneur (unique #30142) which meets on Thursdays from 3:30 - 6:30 p.m.

This upper-division course is designed to help you use your creativity, innovative ideas and skills to create an entrepreneurial business. By the end of the course you will have a fully developed launch-ready business plan. Whether you choose to immediately embark on your entrepreneurial career is up to you. Each entrepreneurial project will receive a $300 scholarship to use as seed money to prepare your project for an eventual launch.

Projects can be profit-making or nonprofit service-based ventures. The instructors are just as open-minded as you are creative. That said, your idea needs to be well-conceived, feasible, and within your area of expertise. If you're committed to your idea, the instructors are interested in hearing about it. Check out a list of student start-up ideas at the learn more link below.

Liberal Arts students who have 60 or more credit hours by the start of the semester are eligible to enroll.

Explore course details and complete the online application form at: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/orgs/lacs/Students/Courses/Entrepreneurship.php.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

1. Swing Out Awards for organizations
Deadline: Friday, February 24

If you are interested in recognizing a significant accomplishment of your organization this past year and raising awareness of it on campus, then apply for a 2012 Swing Out Award! If selected as a finalist for a particular category, your organization could be represented at the annual Evening of the Stars in April where we will reveal each category winner and the overall most outstanding campus organization for the 2011-2012 academic year. Each category winner will receive $300, with the most outstanding organization receiving an additional $1000. Visit our website at http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/glie/lei/leadership_swingout.php for more information, or attend the optional Swing Out Awards info session on February 1st at 5:00 p.m. in SSB 3.406!

To learn more, visit http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/doscentral/legendsofchina.php or contact the Office of the Dean of Students at (512) 471-5017, or by e-mail at utloc@austin.utexas.edu.

2. First Abroad Scholarships
Application deadline: Thursday, March 1

The Study Abroad Office encourages you to apply for a brand new UT Austin study abroad scholarship. Approximately 25 First Abroad Scholarships of $3,000 will be awarded to UT Austin students in 2012. The application is simple, no recommendations are required, and you can select your program AFTER you win the award! The application is attached. Do you fit the eligibility requirements below? Here’s the information:

STUDY ABROAD

1. Legends of China cultural exchange program
Information sessions:
• Tuesday, February 7, DoS Conference Room, SSB 4.486, 5 – 6 p.m.

The Division of Student Affairs proudly presents a cultural exchange program, offered through the Office of the Dean of Students, which aims to enrich the educational journey by providing opportunities for students from around the world to share their stories, vision and learning experiences with students from The University of Texas at Austin. The 2012 program, World Peace: China – U.S. Friendship, is in partnership with the Beijing Educational Committee and the Legends of China Foundation.

Participating students, faculty and staff are offered opportunities for profound academic dialogue, increased cultural awareness and interaction with peers, while touring historical sites and visiting Beijing's finest universities.

Five trips to choose from. Prices range from approximately $1,486.00 to $3,350. Cities include Beijing, Hangzhou, Suzhou, Xian, Shanghai, Hong Kong and Seoul, South Korea. Price includes international and domestic (in China) airline tickets, 4/5 star hotels, 3 meals/day, ground transportation, educational programs, historical site tours and tickets, travel insurance and guides.

To learn more, visit http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/doscentral/legendsofchina.php or contact the Office of the Dean of Students at (512) 471-5017, or by e-mail at utloc@austin.utexas.edu.
The First Abroad Scholarship provides first-generation in college students with the opportunity to study abroad by reducing the financial barrier that may prevent some students from considering study abroad during their undergraduate career. Approximately 25 recipients a year will receive a one-time scholarship of $3,000 to help cover the cost of the UT-approved study abroad program of their choice. Recipients have up to two academic years to select a program and participate, ensuring sufficient time to plan the study abroad experience. For example, a student who is awarded a First Abroad Scholarship in May 2012 may use the scholarship in any term between fall 2012 and summer 2014.

First Abroad Scholarship winners who choose a UT-approved program in mainland China will automatically receive the Coca-Cola Foundation China Scholarship for an additional $2,000.

Eligibility:
■ financial need (current FAFSA on file with UT Austin),
■ first-generation in college student (neither parent has graduated from 4-year college),
■ first time in college, and
■ less than 60 hours earned at UT Austin

More scholarships can be found here: http://world.utexas.edu/abroad/funding

The First Abroad Scholarship application can also be found here: http://world.utexas.edu/abroad/funding/scholarships/first

7. The Archer Fellowship Program
Application deadline for 2012-2013: Friday, February 17

The Archer Center—the Washington, D.C., campus of the University of Texas System—strives to promote a love of public service by educating the next generation of future leaders of not only Texas, but the world. Each fall and spring, 32 undergraduate students are selected to participate in the undergraduate Archer Fellowship Program, where they will earn 15 hours of in-residence course credit by taking classes on policy, politics and advocacy and interning in Washington, D.C. Archer Fellows come from all academic backgrounds and choose their internships based on personal, professional, and academic goals. From Capitol Hill to the White House, federal agencies to nonprofit organizations, Archer Fellows gain invaluable real world experience in D.C.’s most prestigious institutions. Take a look at our current Archer Fellows at http://www.archercenter.org/fellowship/current.html.

Applications for the 2012-2013 academic year can be found at: http://www.archercenter.org/fellowship/application_process.html.

EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIPS

1. Penn State College of Medicine Summer Undergraduate Research Internship Program for 2012 (SURIP 2012)
   Application deadline: Monday, February 6 at 12 p.m.
   The Penn State College of Medicine Summer Undergraduate Research Internship Program for 2012 (SURIP 2012) brings undergraduates to our campus for a “summer-immersion” in biological research and an orientation to a career in biological sciences. The typical intern will be between their Sophomore and Junior year or between their Junior and Senior year of undergraduate studies. Students who will have a BA or BS prior to the start of the internship on June 1 should not apply. SURIP 2012 would be most appropriate for students considering applying to PhD programs in the Biological/Biomedical Sciences and is not intended for students who will apply to Medical School. There is no clinical shadowing component to the internship.
   Our goals are to provide a meaningful educational experience for undergraduates to prepare them for careers in cutting edge fields and to increase the pool of students considering graduate education in the life sciences. Participating faculty have a strong interest in mentoring young scholars as an integral part of their academic experience. Each student accepted into this program will be matched to one of these faculty mentors for a ten-week laboratory and research experience.

   Integral to our program are twice weekly research/career seminars, a capstone presentation experience, and additional introductory experiences related to the professional culture of biological research. Research interns will have the opportunity to live on our campus, and will receive a stipend of $3,000 each to cover their living expenses during the summer. The majority of our interns choose to live on campus and those that do so find living on campus a very positive experience.

   For more information and an online application form you may access our website at http://www.pennstatehershey.org/web/summerresearch/home.

2. Latin American Studies FLAS Fellowship
   Application deadline: Monday, February 6.
   The Lozano Long Institute of Latin American Studies FLAS Fellowship applications are available for Summer 2012 and the 2012-2013 Academic Year. The competition is open to current UT-Austin undergraduate students (in good standing), who are interested in studying Portuguese or another arranged Amerindian language at the intermediate or advanced level.

   Eligibility:
   • citizen/permanent resident
   • shows potential for superior academic achievement as indicated by a long-term interest in Latin America
   • an undergraduate student in good standing at UT-Austin
   • language study at the intermediate or advanced level

   Please visit our website for the application and more information: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/insts/lillas/undergraduate-program/financial-aid/flas-undergraduate.php.

   Questions? Please contact Kimberly Terry at kterry@austin.utexas.edu.

3. National Security Clinic seeks undergraduate intern
   Application deadline: Rolling, with cutoff on Friday, February 10
   The National Security Clinic at the University of Texas School of Law is seeking an undergraduate intern (junior or senior) to assist in the coordination of an access to justice project regarding constitutional issues in federal national security prosecutions. The intern will assist with monitoring and analyzing court cases, under the supervision of Professor Ranjana Natarajan and Clinical Instructor Ahmed Ghappour. The role will include review of legal documents, data entry and answering phones. Familiarity with Microsoft Office tools (Word, Excel) is required. Knowledge of Arabic or Urdu is a plus.

   The internship is unpaid and will start immediately and last through the spring semester. The time commitment is ten to fifteen hours a week, during 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., M to F. If you are interested, please send an email to Ahmed Ghappour, at aghappour@law.utexas.edu, with “Clinic Internship” in the subject line. Please including your resume, transcript, and a brief statement of your interest in working with the clinic.

4. HOPE Farmers Market seeks Public Relations intern
   HOPE Farmers Market is looking for a Public Relations Intern to facilitate communication and outreach through a variety of innovative avenues. The organization operates as a community space that connects local farmers and their produce to urban consumers in a vibrant artistic environment on Austin’s East side. The market seeks an intern who will act as a liaison between the market and the Austin community by developing web and print communications. This individual will be responsible for improving existing communication methods, as well as developing a new system of outreach. The internship runs from February to May of 2012, with an option for continuation following a positive evaluation. This internship is not paid, however hours remain flexible. Availability on Sundays is a must.

If interested do not hesitate to contact Elizabeth Garrett, the HOPE Farmers Market Project Director, at (434) 242-1619 or elizabeth@hopecampaign.org

5. Math/science homework tutor needed for 9 and 12-year-old
A homework tutor and coach, especially one who is good with math and science, is needed at a Westlake home for two girls (9 and 12 years old). Flexible schedule—two to three afternoons a week. $15/hour.

Contact Bruce McCandless (Plan II, 1983) at (512) 480-5128 |or bmccandless@mnlaw.com.

6. NASA, other science internships

- Free travel to and from campus
- Competitive stipend
- Application deadline is Feb 29, 2012 http://www.umass.edu/massnanotech/SURE.htm

Eligibility is limited to U.S. citizens and permanent residents. Women and others from underrepresented groups are strongly encouraged to apply. The most relevant undergraduate majors for the SURE Program include: Chemical Engineering, Chemistry, Electrical & Computer Engineering, Mechanical & Industrial Engineering, Physics, Polymer Science & Engineering.

Columbia University Summer Public Health Scholars Program (SPHSP)

Application deadline: Tuesday, February 14

The SPHSP is a collaboration between the Colleges of Public Health, Physicians and Surgeons, Dental Medicine, and Nursing. This is a bachelor's-level initiative targeting underrepresented students to learn about public health, specifically minority health disparities. This is a unique program because it is geared towards high-potential students who may or may not have any prior knowledge of public health.

During the program, students are introduced to the field of public health by taking courses in several disciplines. Students are also placed in an internship, which may focus on health policy, environmental health, behavioral health, epidemiology, or another public health field. The common thread between all these internships is the issue of health disparities. The program includes a week-long trip to Atlanta to visit the Centers for Disease Control.

Eligible students will be U.S. citizens or permanent residents; be enrolled in an accredited college or university or be recent graduates (within one year); and have an overall GPA of 2.5 or above.

For more information about SPHSP, please visit http://www.oda-ps.cumc.columbia.edu/programs/about_sphsp.html. The application is available on this website: http://www.oda-ps.cumc.columbia.edu/programs/about_sphsp.html.

8. Intellectual Entrepreneurship (IE) Pre-Graduate School Internship

Are you thinking about whether graduate school is in your future? Are you uncertain about what it would be like to be a graduate student and what academic program may be suited best to your interests and career goals?

If your answer to these questions is yes, you may wish to consider undertaking the Intellectual Entrepreneurship (IE) “Pre-Graduate School Internship.” This internship is open to students in all UT colleges/schools and departments. You may earn one, two or three hours of academic credit (CMS 164M/264M/364M) by participating in the internship.

You may read more about this program (including FAQ’s, examples of internship activities and an easy to complete internship contract) on the web: http://communication.utexas.edu/ie/.

NOTE: Because of the generosity of several UT deans, undergraduates who do their pre-grad internship in programs in the following colleges may be eligible to receive travel grants to help cover part of the cost of attending an academic conference (with their grad mentor).

A wonderful UT web feature about this program is at: http://www.utexas.edu/features/2008/ie-2/. Contact Rick Cherwitz with any questions at spai737@uts.cc.utexas.edu.

USEFUL MISCELLANY

1. About Plan2News

Plan2News is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu. News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association and performances and exhibits by Plan II students.
Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events.

2. Submitting to Plan2News

Please keep in mind that although Plan2News enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as the sole advertisement for a position or an event. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.

Personal and political announcements will not be published in Plan2News. Job and internships announcements must be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter.

To place a news item in Plan2News, you must do the following:

• Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu.
• In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
• Give the name of a contact person with phone number or e-mail address.
• Provide an activity date or a deadline.
• Do not use “we” or “I.” Please write your submission in third person.
• Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
• News items will run until your deadline or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.
• The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.
• Send your news item to planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu no later than 3 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 3 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 3 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.
