Plan II Pre-Med Meeting
Monday, September 24 from 7 p.m. - 8 p.m.
Joynes Reading Room 007A

Join your favorite Pre-Med group from 7:00-8:00 p.m. on Monday, September 24 in the Joynes Reading Room 007A as we listen to some words of wisdom from Dr. Stanley Wang.

After graduating from UT in 1994, he went on to get his JD from the University of Pennsylvania Law School, his MD from Southwestern, and his MPH from the Harvard School of Public Health. Although his current specialization is cardiovascular disease, he's board-certified in not two, but three branches of medicine: internal medicine, cardiovascular disease, and nuclear cardiology. He's made a number of appearances on TV and radio shows to talk about heart health in addition to authoring more than a few books concerning cardiovascular disease and disease prevention.

In short, he makes the words "qualified" and "legitimate" seem like understatements, and he'll be there, in the same room with you, along with free pizza, so really, why wouldn't you come?

Tickets for The Merchant of Venice available at the Plan II Office

A select number of student tickets for performances of The Actor's from the London Stage's The Merchant of Venice are currently available at the front desk in the Plan II Office. Tickets are available for performances on 10/3, 10/4, and 10/5 at 7:30 p.m. in the Hogg Auditorium.

On opening night (10/3), the actors will have a Q&A session after that performance only. More on the Shakespeare program and the play can be found here: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/depts/english/shakespeare-studies/AFTLS/Schedule-.php

Tickets will be offered on a first-come, first-serve basis. Only one ticket may be picked up per student. Students can not pick up a ticket for their friend, and this opportunity is only available for Plan II students.

Upcoming visit by Award-winning novelist Karen Russell
Thursday, September 27 at 7 p.m.
Joynes Reading Room

The free Karen Russell books are all gone, but everybody is still welcome to attend Karen Russell’s reading!

Karen Russell, author of Swamplandia! and St. Lucy's Home for Girls Raised by Wolves, will give a guest lecture in the Joynes Reading Room at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 27th. This event will be free and open to the public, with Q&A, light refreshments and a book signing to follow. Russell was a 2012 Pulitzer Prize finalist for fiction, and is one of the 20 writers under 40 featured by the New Yorker magazine. For more information, call 512-471-5787 or write to matt.valentine@austin.utexas.edu.

Plan II Honors Overnight Ambassadors Needed

Are you an on-campus dorm resident eager to show off Plan II and UT Austin? If so, Plan II needs volunteers to host visiting prospective students for an overnight stay in a dorm. Hosts provide visitors with (utterly reliable) solid contact information, a firm meeting time, directions around campus and to the cafeteria, and a floor to sleep on for the night. Honors dorms, Duren, and San Jacinto are the most often requested, but hosts from all on-campus dorms are appreciated. Both male and female hosts are needed. Overnight ambassadors will be asked to house overnight visitors only once or twice throughout the year. These overnight visits are an important part of many college choice decisions.

Volunteers are not expected to play tour guide or babysitter during a visit, but we expect our Plan II hosts are gracious ambassadors for Plan II and UT, and hope they will proudly include visitors in activities. To volunteer, contact P2SA Recruitment Chairs Kelsey McKinney (mckinney.kelsey@gmail.com) & Sara Saastamoinen (sara.saastamoinen@gmail.com) p2recruit ment@gmail.com ASAP!

Lost and Found at Getaway

A UT burnt orange large bath towel was left at Getaway. Please come to the Plan II Office to claim ASAP.

Texas Tribune Festival needs volunteers
Saturday, September 22

Learn about the Harvard Graduate School of Education

Monday, September 24 from 5 p.m. - 6 p.m.
Parlin 204

Join dual alumni of both UT Austin and the Harvard Graduate School of Education (HGSE) to learn more about HGSE's master’s programs in education:

Harvard Graduate School of Education Information Session
Monday, September 24
5:00-6:00 p.m.
Parlin 204
RSVP here: ow.ly/dgVra

Whether you are thinking about graduate study now or down the road, this session is a great opportunity to gather information and make connections. Since its founding in 1920, the Ed School has been training leaders to transform education in the United States and around the globe. Today, the faculty, students, and alumni are studying and solving the most critical challenges facing education: student assessment, the achievement gap, urban education, and teacher shortages, to name just a few. Their work is shaping how people teach, learn, and lead in schools and colleges as well as in after-school programs, high-tech companies, and international organizations. The HGSE community is pushing the frontiers of education, and the effects of our entrepreneurship are improving the world.

Questions? Please contact Natalie Van Kleef at vanklena@gse.harvard.edu.

Talk on the role of religion in American politics

Monday, September 24 from 5:30 p.m. - 7 p.m.
SAC 2.302

The departmental representatives committee of Liberal Art's Council will be hosting "You know You’re in Liberal Arts When Politics is Like a Religion." Dr. Michael White and Dr. Eric McDaniel will be discussing the role of religion in American politics, focusing on this election year. A casual reception will follow with an opportunity to mingle with the professors and ask any questions. Sandwiches, Tiff's Treats and sodas will be provided. The event will take place Monday, September 24th, 2012, from 5:30 P.M. to 7:00 P.M. in SAC 2.302.

Open Discussion on the 2012 Presidential Election

Tuesday, September 25 at 6 p.m.
MEZ 1.306

Interested in the upcoming Presidential Election? The Liberal Arts Council presents an open discussion with Dr. Albertson, Dr. Edwards, and Dr. Henson regarding the latest on the exciting 2012 Presidential Campaign. Come engage in discussion about one of the year’s most interesting topics and be better prepared for the election in November. Tiff’s treats and drinks will be offered! This event is open to all UT students. Contact Sonali Kalvala (972)746 3388 or lac.academicaffairs@gmail.com with questions.

INSPIRE Peer Program recruiting first year students

Tuesday, September 25 from 6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.
PAR 302

Are you a first year student that wants to get involved in a Women and Gender Studies program? The INSPIRE Peer Program is a great way to give first year, female students the opportunity to explore majors and careers, get off of campus and experience Austin, and offer a networking/support group by connecting first year students with fourth year students.

If you are interested in joining INSPIRE, please send us an email to inspire.peer.program@gmail.com.

There is also an open info session this coming Tuesday, September 25, between 6:30pm and 8:30pm, at PAR 302. Snacks and refreshments will be served.

Actuarial Studies Info Session

Thursday, September 27 from 4 p.m. - 5 p.m.
RLM 6.124

An individual who wants to become an actuary must excel at challenging courses in mathematics, have some interest in using these skills to analyze and solve business problems, be willing to spend many hours preparing for professional examinations, and possess good communication skills. Actuaries use mathematical skills, business knowledge, and understanding of human behavior to manage risk.

An information session is scheduled for Thursday, September 27, 4-5 pm and will take place in RLM 6.124.

Actuarial program director Mark Maxwell will briefly describe the actuarial profession, the professional actuarial organizations, the actuarial credentialing process, and the UT actuarial program/degree.

A significant portion of time will be reserved to answer questions from those in attendance.

Take a Writing Center Internship course

RHE 368C is a course designed to prepare students to serve as peer tutors in the Undergraduate Writing Center (UWC). During the first part of the term, the class covers issues relating to writing center theory and practice. Students analyze the goals and practices of writing centers; examine elements of contemporary rhetorical and composition theory (including the writing process); survey typical course syllabi and assignments; and review basics of grammar, mechanics, and usage. During the final five weeks of RHE 368C, members of the class work under supervision for six hours a week as consultants (unpaid) in the Undergraduate Writing Center.

Any undergraduate who meets the upper-division requirement and gains permission from the instructor to register for the course. Priority is given to students who can give the UWC several semesters of... service as a tutor. We actively seek students from across various majors and disciplines, especially from business and the sciences.

Early in the fall semester (before registration) email John Ruszkiewicz at <jr@Austin.utexas.edu>, indicating that you would like permission to register for his section of RHE 368C. Attach one or more writing samples to this email. This work should represent your recent academic or professional writing. You may, for example, include a research paper, a detailed lab report, or an article you have written for The Daily Texan or other campus publications. You should also ask an instructor familiar with your academic work to send Professor Ruszkiewicz an email endorsement. Just a very brief note is all that is necessary.

Email Professor Ruszkiewicz with any additional questions.

Become a TIP Peer Mentor
Apply by: Friday, September 28 at 5 p.m.

Apply for a Peer Mentor position within the Texas Interdisciplinary Plan (TIP) for the Fall 2013-Spring 2014 academic year. Plan II students have an exemplary reputation as part of the mentoring staff and TIP would very much like to work with YOU in the future. If you enjoy working with incoming students and wish to encourage their academic excellence and ease their transition into university life, please go to the TIP Mentor Page and click on the “Apply to be a TIP Peer Mentor” link on the left-hand side of the page. From the Mentor Application Flyer there is a direct link in RED Text that leads you to the application which is housed in ScienceWorks. Applications are due Friday, September 28th, 2012 at 5:00 pm.

Please keep in mind that experience as a student (academic and campus involvement) is highly valued during the selection process. The number of alternate mentors accepted this year will be increased. Please read and review the information on the link provided and if you have additional questions please contact TIP Peer Mentor Coordinator, Jenny Smith at: jsmith@Austin.utexas.edu

Bridging Disciplines Program information sessions
Apply by: October 11

The Bridging Disciplines Programs (BDPs) at The University of Texas at Austin allow you to earn an interdisciplinary certificate in one of eleven different concentration areas:

- Children and Society
- Conflict Resolution and Peace Studies
- Cultural Studies
- Digital Arts and Media
- Environment
- Ethics and Leadership
- Global Studies
- Human Rights and Social Justice
- Innovation, Creativity, and Entrepreneurship
- Social Entrepreneurship and Non-profits
- Social Inequality, Health, and Policy

BDPs combine courses that fulfill core requirements, electives, and courses for your major with unique research and internships that connect your BDP topic with your major and career goals. The BDP helps you choose the courses you already have to take in an integrated way, giving you the opportunity to develop a secondary area of specialization.

Two information sessions are held a week, EVERY Tuesday and Wednesday in FAC 4 (ground floor).
- Tuesdays, 11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
- Wednesdays, 3:00 – 4:00 p.m.

Call 232-7564 or stop by the BDP office in FAC 338 if you cannot make an information session.

Visit the website for more information: http://www.utexas.edu/ugs/bdp

Friar Society is accepting applications
Apply by: October 12 at 5 p.m.

The Friar Society is currently accepting applications for the Fall 2012 semester. In order to be considered, the application should be turned in by 5:00 pm on October 12th to the Student Organization Center desk on the 4th Floor of the Student Services Building. You can also contact Rachel Meyerson (rachel.meyerson@utexas.edu) or Frankie Shulkin (fshulkin@gmail.com) with additional questions.

UT hosts Suicide Prevention Week

Suicide is considered to be the second leading cause of death for college students. That’s why the Counseling and Mental Health Center is organizing UT’s annual Suicide Prevention Week (September 24-28). This week is focused on raising awareness about suicide and engaging students, faculty and staff in suicide prevention. All are urged to “Be That One” to recognize when their student or friend is thinking about suicide and connect them with the help they need. Throughout the week, 23 campus departments and organizations, are sponsoring seven interactive programs as a call to action to prevent suicide within our campus community. For a full schedule of the week’s events and a complete list of counseling and mental health resources available to students, visit cmhc.utexas.edu

Free t-shirts and food at all events (while they last!). All events are free and open to the public.

Law Fair
Thursday, October 4 from 11 a.m. - 3 p.m.
Texas Union Ballroom

Law Fair is an annual event that brings representatives from 100+ law schools to campus to recruit UT students. UT Law Fair is one of the largest school-sponsored law fairs in the nation! This is a unique opportunity to learn a great deal about many different law schools all in one day. Oftentimes the person at the booth is the same person who will be reading your application down the road! Law Fair is free and open to the public. Business casual dress is recommended.

Explore the Law Fair page for details, admissions panel information and to explore the list of attending school. http://www.utexas.edu/cola/orgs/lacs/Students/PL-GS/LawFair.php

If you are attending Law Fair and have special needs, please contact Tatem Oldham (t.oldham@austin.utexas.edu, 471-7900) by September 27th so that our office can make accommodations through Services for Students with Disabilities.

About Plan2News
Plan2News is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu. News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association and performances and exhibits by Plan II students.

Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events.

Submitting to Plan2News
Please keep in mind that although Plan2News enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as the sole advertisement for a position or an event. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.

Personal and political announcements will not be published in Plan2News. Job and internships announcements must be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter.

To place a news item in Plan2News, you must do the following:
• Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu.
• In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
• Give the name of a contact person with phone number or e-mail address.
• Provide an activity date or a deadline.
• Do not use “we” or “I.” Please write your submission in third person.
• Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
• News items will run until your deadline or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.
• The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.
• Send your news item to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu no later than 2 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 2 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 2 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.
