1. The Broccoli Project Presents: The Master and Margarita by: Mikhail Bulgakov

Mikhail Bulgakov’s devastating satire of Stalin and his informants combines two distinct yet interwoven parts—one set in ancient Jerusalem, one in contemporary Moscow—the novel veers from moods of wild theatricality with violent storms, vampire attacks, and a Satanic ball; to such somber scenes as the meeting of Pilate and Yeshua to the substanceless, circus-like reality of Moscow. Its central characters, Woland (Satan) and his retinue-including the vodka-drinking, black cat, Behemoth; the poet, Ivan; Pontius Pilate; and a writer known only as The Master, and his passionate companion, Margarita—exist in a world that blends fantasy and chilling realism, an artful collage of grotesqueries, dark comedy, and timeless ethical questions.

The second weekend of performances will be accompanied by a professorial panel from the Eurasian studies department to give background and context for the play. There will be a brief Q&A session following with Dr. Thomas Garza, University Distinguished Teaching Associate Professor and Director, Texas Language Center.

http://www.utexas.edu/cola/depts/slavic/faculty/garzati

Performances @ 7:30 p.m. are on: Saturday 11/6, Sunday 11/7, Thursday 11/11, Friday 11/12, Saturday 11/13

$5 at the door

2. LAUNCH for Theses

Any students working on a thesis or any research projects are invited to have their research featured on the LAUNCH (Liberal Arts Undergraduate Chapter for Research) Blog. It’s a great way to get some exposure, get feedback about your insights, and learn to synthesize and discuss your findings.

LAUNCH also hosts the Student Research Forum, which gives students the opportunity to present their research projects to a faculty panel, which selects four to five students each year for a sponsored trip to the National Convention of Undergraduate Research. If you are interested in having your research featured on the LAUNCH blog, email publicity_chair@launchut.org and for more information about LAUNCH visit www.launchut.org

3. Spring Thesis Registration Information

In order to register for the Plan II thesis class (T C 660HA), you MUST read through the Plan II Thesis Manual and complete the registration steps outlined on the Plan II website: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/progs/plan2/advising/thesis/

For Spring registration, your topic proposal must be approved by either Dr. Wettlaufer or Dr. Domjan by Friday, November 5th. Your primary supervisor and second reader must be confirmed by Friday, December 17th. Failure to meet these deadlines will result in the course being dropped from your schedule during January add/drops.

Dr. Alexandra Wettlaufer, awk@mail.utexas.edu, office hours: WCH 4.104, T/Th 3:30-5:00 p.m. and by appointment

Dr. Wendy Domjan, wdomjan@mail.utexas.edu, office hours: WCH 4.104 MW 2-2:45; SEAY 3.234 MWF 12-12:45, and by appt.

If you are a Junior who plans to start your thesis next Fall but will be going abroad in the Spring, it is in your best interest to take care of these steps before you leave, as trying to arrange everything via email while overseas can be quite difficult.

4. David Foster Wallace Reading Group

Honors students who are fans of the writer David Foster Wallace can sign up for a reading group that will meet with DFW’s biographer, David Lipsky, at the Harry Ransom Center in mid October. Lipsky is an award winning writer for Rolling Stone magazine. The first ten students to sign up will have a guaranteed spot at the meeting with Lipsky and will receive a free copy of the book Although of Course You End Up Becoming Yourself: On the Road with David Foster Wallace. Sign up at the Joynes Reading Room front desk (CRD 007).

5. Plan II Grants

The online applications for the Spring 2011 Thesis and Travel Grants have been set up and they will be available at the UTDirect Scholarship Portal (https://utdirect.utexas.edu/scholarship/student/menu.WBX) from October 1 through October 30.

The deadline for both grant applications is October 30, 2010.

Plan II Travel Grant: http://www.utexas.edu/cola/progs/plan2/current_stdnts/scholarship/travel-grant.php

Call or write with questions or concerns.

6. Plan II Study Abroad in Costa Rica

In May 2011, the Plan II Honors Program will offer a TC 357 Junior Seminar course as part of the Costa Rica Program. Lead by Professors Ruth Buskirk and Moon Draper

Maymester Application Deadline: Nov 1

4. Pre Grad Internship Opportunity

The Intellectual Entrepreneurship (IE) "Pre-Graduate School Internship." This internship is open to students in all UT colleges/schools and departments. You may earn one, two or three hours of academic credit (CMS 164M/264M/364M) by participating in the internship. You may read more about this program (including FAQ's, examples of internship activities and an easy to complete internship contract) on the web: http://communication.utexas.edu/ie/

NOTE: Because of the generosity of several UT deans, undergraduates who do their pre-grad internship in programs in the following colleges will be eligible to receive travel grants to help cover part of the cost of attending an academic conference (with their grad mentor)--- Law, Public Affairs, Communication, Engineering, Liberal Arts, Pharmacy, Business, Social Work, Education, Natural Sciences, Fine Arts.

A wonderful UT web feature about this program is at: http://www.utexas.edu/features/2008/ie-2/

If after examining these materials you have questions, please feel free to contact me at: spaj737@uts.cc.utexas.edu
5. LBJ School GRE Prep Sessions
The LBJ Public Affairs Alliance for Communities of Color (PAACC) would like to personally invite you to help publicize a unique event sponsored by our organization in collaboration with the LBJ School of Public Affairs.

The full-day event will include a FREE INTRODUCTION COURSE to the GRE organized by Princeton Review and an "all you ever wanted to know about LBJ" discussion. Complimentary breakfast & lunch with vegetarian options will be provided. All participants will receive a GRE Workbook from Princeton Review. A second workshop is scheduled for November 6, 2010.

Seating is capped at the first 60 applicants, who must RSVP at greworkshopsrsvp@gmail.com. Questions may be directed here as well.

UNIVERSITY WIDE

1. "Ducdame" Shakespeare Lecture
Leah Marcus, one of the world's foremost Shakespeare scholars, will present a lecture entitled "Ducdame: What Deer Have to Do with Female Supremacy in Shakespeare's As You Like It" at 2 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 29th in the Prothro Theater at the Harry Ransom Center. This event is sponsored by the Department of English and the Plan II Honors Program. For more info, contact mvalentine@mail.utexas.edu.

2. Sustainable Film Series
The Center for Sustainable Development hosts a bi-weekly Sustainable Development Film Series. This week's film is Everything's Cool, which explores the public "debate" surrounding the reality of climate change. For the past two decades researchers, activists, scientists, and progressive politicians have struggled to rouse the public and the federal government to take action on global warming. Concurrently, naysayers, industry funded think-tanks and lobbyists have worked tirelessly to challenge, convolute and dismiss the issue as hysterical.

4. University French Club Meetings
The next meetings for the University French Club will be Tuesday, October 26th at 2 p.m. and Wednesday, October 27th at 5 p.m. in HRH 2.118. You do not have to attend both meetings and if you are unable to attend either please check the facebook group (http://www.facebook.com/#!/group.php?gid=87569267944) for updates and a meeting summary.

The last meeting focused on events and projects which include the possibility of field trips, food nights, tastings, conversation nights, volunteer tutoring, and perhaps even a French Film Fest in the Spring!

The French club is open to majors and non-majors alike. Please contact Katherine Hysmith for more information: kcheyenneh@gmail.com

5. Student MIX celebrates opening of "Turner to Monet" at Blanton
MIX is an event for students developed by students. This October, celebrate the opening of "Turner to Monet" and the spookiness of the season with "Art & the Supernatural 19th-Century Style," music, art activities, free food, fortune tellers, haunted tours and more! Also, enjoy an art-inspired audience interactive ghost-story performance with special guests, local improv comedy troupe Snackers, and a performance by the Eastern Sea.

7-10 p.m. on Thursday, October 28
For more information contact Lauren at lauren.bringle@gmail.com

6. Peter Maass “Crude Truths”
On Thursday, Oct. 28 at 7PM in the Joynes Reading Room, New York Times Magazine contributor Peter Maass will present "Crude Truths:
How a Writer Tells Compelling Stories About Oil and War”. Maass has reported from Iraq, Afghanistan, Saudi Arabia and Nigeria and is known for his narrative story-telling. He will explain the ways today's journalists can make Americans pay attention to complicated problems beyond our borders. The first 12 honors students who inquire at the Joynes Reading Room front desk will receive free copies of Maass's new book. For more information, contact maventine@mail.utexas.edu or call 512-415-6430.

7. Analecta seeks Submissions
Analecta, UT's official literary and arts journal, is accepting submissions of all types of creative writing between now and December 15. Winners will have their pieces printed in Analecta 37, to be published this spring, and will receive free copies of the journal. Two featured writers will also receive $100 prizes. Please find detailed submission guidelines and contact information at www.analectajournal.com. Analecta was recently featured in the New York Times ArtsBeat blog, which you can find here http://artsbeat.blogs.nytimes.com/2010/10/15/early-fiction-by-wes-anderson-owen-wilson-and-colum-mccann/?scp=2&sq=wes%20anderson&st=cse.

8. Call for Submissions for the Student Journal of Latin American Studies
The Student Journal of Latin American Studies at The University of Texas at Austin is accepting papers from graduate and undergraduate students. The Student Journal of Latin American Studies is an interdisciplinary journal that seeks to foster student research on topics relating to Latin America, promote a better understanding of the region, and link the research of graduate and undergraduate students around the world.

In order to be considered for publication, the articles must be submitted by November 15th, 2010.

Articles may be written in English or Spanish according to guidelines posted online. Those interested in contributing to the Student Journal of Latin American Studies or promoting it will find more information at our website: http://www.sjofas.org.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact us at sjo_fas@gmail.com

   USEFUL MISCELLANY

   1. Submitting to Plan2News

      Plan2News is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to plan2news@email.utexas.edu

      News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association, as well as performances and exhibits by Plan II students. Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events. Personal and political announcements will not be published in the newsletter; and internships and job announcements should normally be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter.
Please keep in mind that although Plan2News enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as an employer's only means of advertising for a position, a group's only advertisement for an event, etc. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.

To place a news item in Plan2News, you must do the following, or your messages will not be included:
- Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu.
- In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
- Give the name of a contact person with phone number or e-mail address.
- Provide an activity date or a deadline, whichever is appropriate.
- Do not use “we” or “I.” Please write your submission in third person.
- Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
- News items will run until your deadline, or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.
- The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly-lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.
- Send your news item to planiinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu no later than 2:00 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 2:00 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 2:00 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address. No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.

“I pledge allegiance to Plan II and the University of Texas at Austin.
And to the program
for which it stands
underfunded,
indescribably awesome,
with liberty and cookies for all.”
