1. Anti-Hunger Empowerment Corps
   Please join Plan II alumnus and Truman-Albright Fellow Marissa Duswalt on November 30th, 11:30 a.m., in the Plan II lobby, WCH 4.104, for a presentation about the newly established Anti-Hunger Empowerment Corps. Applicants selected by AmeriCorps*VISTA will help food banks and other anti-hunger and anti-poverty organizations across the country to build capacity, implement new projects, and provide technical support to organizations in under served communities. Because the program runs from December to December of each year, this presentation is especially relevant for seniors graduating in December and for current juniors, but all interested students are encouraged to attend. A light lunch will be served. For additional information about the Anti-Hunger Empowerment Corps, please visit my.americorps.gov/mp/listing/viewListing.do?fromSearch=true&id=12812.

2. Plan II Receptionist
   The Plan II Honors Program seeks a part-time hourly receptionist for the Spring 2011 semester to work 4:00 - 5:00 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, and 3:30 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Primary responsibilities of the position are answering the phone, greeting visitors, signing in students for appointments, and maintaining the tidiness of the Plan II lobby and computer lab. The position pays $9.00 per hour. If you are available to work all of the listed hours and are interested in working in a fun office environment, please see the Plan II receptionist for an application. Completed applications are due to Laurie by November 19th.

3. Fall Senior Thesis Symposium
   Sunday, November 14th, 1:00 p.m.

4. The Broccoli Project Presents:
   The Master and Margarita by: Mikhail Bulgakov
   Mikhail Bulgakov's devastating satire of Soviet life under the boot of Stalin and his informants combines two distinct yet interwoven parts—one set in ancient Jerusalem, one in contemporary Moscow—the novel veers from moods of wild theatricality with violent storms, vampire attacks, and a Satanic ball; to such somber scenes as the meeting of Pilate and Yeshua to the substanceless, circus-like reality of Moscow. Its central characters, Woland (Satan) and his retinue—including the vodka-drinking, black cat, Behemoth; the poet, Ivan; Pontius Pilate; and a writer known only as The Master, and his passionate companion, Margarita—exist in a world that blends fantasy and chilling realism, an artful collage of grotesqueries, dark comedy, and timeless ethical questions.

   The second weekend of performances will be accompanied by a professorial panel from the Eurasian studies department to give background and context for the play. There will be a brief Q&A session following with Dr. Thomas Garza, University Distinguished Teaching Professor and Director, Texas Language Center. http://www.utexas.edu/cola/depts/slavic/faculty/garzatj

   Performances @ 7:30 p.m. are on: Saturday 11/6, Sunday 11/7, Thursday 11/11, Friday 11/12, Saturday 11/13
   $5 at the door

5. LAUNCH for Theses
   Any students working on a thesis or any research projects are invited to have their research featured on the LAUNCH (Liberal Arts Undergraduate Chapter for Research) Blog. It's a great way to get some exposure, get feedback about your insights, and learn to synthesize and discuss your findings.

   LAUNCH also hosts the Student Research Forum, which gives students the opportunity to present their research projects to a faculty panel, which selects four to five students each year for a sponsored trip to the National Convention of Undergraduate Research. If you are interested in having your research featured on the LAUNCH blog, email publicity_chair@launchut.org and for more information about LAUNCH visit www.launchut.org.

6. Spring Thesis Registration Information

   For Spring registration, your topic proposal must be approved by either Dr. Wettlaufer or Dr. Domjan by Friday, November 5th. Your primary supervisor and second reader must be confirmed by Friday, December 17th. Failure to meet these deadlines will result in the course being dropped from your schedule during January add/drops.

   Dr. Alexandra Wettlaufer, akw@mail.utexas.edu, office hours:
Italian, Norwegian, Polish, Danish, Dutch, Modern Greek, a priority is Portuguese. Czech, European language that is defined as priority languages as defined by the European Studies scholars.

Roughly 25% of the awards must go to students who are working on priority languages as defined by the Dept. of Ed. The only strictly European language that is defined as a priority is Portuguese. Czech, Danish, Dutch, Modern Greek, Italian, Norwegian, Polish, Portuguese, Serbian/Croatian, and Swedish. Students studying non-European languages--such as Arabic, Persian, Hindi, Russian, and Turkish--are encouraged to apply when a contemporary application of those language skills will significantly enhance their work as distinctly European Studies scholars.

English, French, German, and Spanish are not approved languages for this undergraduate fellowship.

2. TC 125 Civic Viewpoints

   Looking for an exciting one hour course to take next semester? Sign up for T C 125K - Civic Viewpoints. The purpose of this class is to define and explore civic engagement, with the intention of inspiring students to become civic entrepreneurs themselves in their respective areas of interest. Topics to be explored include justice, place, transit, education, entrepreneurship, and health care. The class offers something for everyone. Students are required to attend all seven class meetings and submit a short reflection paper. The class is held Mondays from 5 to 7:15 p.m. and is taught by Lee Walker, the winner of the best teacher award in the McCombs School of Business, Outstanding Philanthropist of the Year in 1998.

3. Carnegie Endowment Junior Fellows Program

   Nominations are now being accepted for The University of Texas at Austin selection of candidates for the 2010 – 2011 Carnegie Endowment Junior Fellows Program. Eligible students will be in their senior year or alumni who have graduated within the past academic year and have not yet started graduate studies. Criteria for selection include outstanding academic achievement, demonstrated leadership ability, excellent communication skills and interest in developing a global perspective on world events. Applicants should have completed a significant amount of course work in international affairs, political science, economics, history, mathematics, Russian, Mandarin Chinese, native or near-native Arabic, Middle East studies, energy or climate studies and/or communications.

   Interested students can learn more about the application process at www.utexas.edu/ugs/uhc/awards/carnegie. DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 18, 2010

4. Pre Grad Internship Opportunity

   The Intellectual Entrepreneurship (IE) "Pre-Graduate School Internship." This internship is open to students in all UT colleges/schools and departments. You may earn one, two or three hours of academic credit (CMS 164M/264M/364M) by participating in the internship.

   You may read more about this program (including FAQ's, examples of internship activities and an easy to complete internship contract) on the web: http://communication.utexas.edu/ie/

   NOTE: Because of the generosity of several UT deans, undergraduates who do their pre-grad internship in programs in the following colleges will be eligible to receive travel grants to help cover part of the cost of attending an academic conference (with their grad mentor)-- Law, Public Affairs, Communication, Engineering, Liberal Arts, Pharmacy, Business, Social Work, Education, Natural Sciences, Fine Arts.

   A wonderful UT web feature about this program is at: http://www.utexas.edu/features/2008/ie-2/

EMPLOYMENT AND INTERNSHIPS

1. National Career Development Week – Sanger Learning & Career Center
The week of November 15th is National Career Development Week. To celebrate, the Sanger Learning & Career Center will be hosting two events.

During the week of November 15th-19th students can sign up to use DISCOVER, a career assessment and online exploration tool for free! We typically need to charge $15 to recover the costs of our DISCOVER license, so this is a super deal! To receive access, students can come by the Center to meet with one of our Graduate Assistants during our walk-in hours (M-F, 11-5 p.m.) or attend our “Discover Your Passion” presentation on Monday, November 15th at 5:00 p.m. in JES A115. Of course, they can also gain access to this opportunity by scheduling to meet with a career counselor that week.

On Wednesday, November 17th from 3:30-6 p.m. in UTC 2.102a, we will be hosting a panel on Careers in Video Game Development. There will be six Austin game developers talking about their careers and answering questions from the audience. They will discuss programming careers as well as design, art, writing, and production. There will also be an opportunity for students to network with these professionals in small groups.

For both events, space will be limited and an RSVP is requested on the Event Calendar at lifelearning.utexas.edu.

2. ActiveATX Internship for Plan II Students
ActiveATX.com is now opening its doors to Plan II go-getters who live and breathe Austin. Our interns enjoy ample responsibility, the freedom to be creative, and the opportunity to experience Austin’s greatest active events. This internship is for proactive, entrepreneurial Austinites with big ideas and the wherewithal to bring these ideas to life.

During a typical week, the intern will work primarily on a project of his or her choice — be it writing columns, taking pictures, or developing partnerships with Austin’s biggest fitness business. The intern will spend the rest of his/her time finding cool active events, representing ActiveATX at fun runs and health fairs, and problem-solving during weekly staff meetings. Apply by submitting a cover letter and resume to owen@activeatx.com by Friday November 19th. This internship is unpaid with the possibility of commission depending on the intern’s chosen project.

3. Plan II Honors Program Internship at the LBJ Library
The Plan II Honors Program and the Lyndon Baines Johnson Library and Museum are proud to announce the start of a new internship program for Plan II students. This internship program would be a great opportunity for any student interested in history, government, politics, international affairs, domestic affairs, public policy, and education.

The intern may be asked to work in any or all of the following areas:
Plan II Office by 5 p.m. on Friday, submitted to Melissa Ossian in the All application material should be education

• conduct document and audio-visual research on specified topics to supplement distance learning curriculum, aligning with Texas and national social studies standards
• conduct document and audio-visual research on specified topics relating to revised museum exhibit, aligning with Texas and national social studies standards

Archives
• assist with reference in the archival holdings
• perform systematic preservation in the archival holdings
• prepare finding aids to be posted on the Library’s web site
• edit databases to standardize entries for the web
• do research for web exhibits

The time commitment is 10 hours per week for the spring 2011 semester. This internship opportunity is paid; the student selected will receive a $1500 stipend.

All applicants should provide the following:
- a one-page resume
- a letter from the applicant describing his/her interest and qualifications
- a letter of recommendation from a UT faculty member or someone who knows the candidate’s professional qualifications pertinent to this internship

Preferred Qualifications:
- coursework in History or Government (a plus)
- demonstrated organizational skills
- demonstrated regular and punctual attendance at work and professional demeanor
- knowledge and interest in U.S. history (a plus)
- UTeach student or College of Education student (a plus)

All application material should be submitted to Melissa Ossian in the Plan II Office by 5 p.m. on Friday, November 12th, 2010.

4. UTeach Outreach Program Job Opportunities
The UTeach Outreach program is looking for exceptional freshmen, sophomores, or juniors seeking an unparalleled leadership role and looking to make a big difference in the community. We are currently accepting applications for our Spring 2011 Section Leader In Training and Office Manager positions. Each position pays $10/hr and is specialized based on the experience and skills you wish to develop.

Send completed applications or questions to Mary Miller at UTeach.Officeteach@austin.utexas.edu. Or drop the completed application off in the Outreach office (BOT on parking map [http://www.utexas.edu/maps/main/buildings/bot.html]).

5. Spring Internship Opportunities at Eastside Community Connection
Looking for an internship at an up and coming non-profit in Austin? Founded in 2002, Eastside Community Connection is a nonprofit agency founded by UT students who wanted to make a difference in East Austin. In order to prepare the next generation of leaders, Eastside Community Connection offers unparalleled internship opportunities. Our interns have significant responsibilities, including designing programs, maintaining budgets and supervising other volunteers. This is not a "sit at your cubicle and make copies" internship... you will make a real impact on our organization and in the community. The application period for Spring 2011 internships is now open. If you are interested in making a difference while gaining valuable work experience – this opportunity is for you. Check out www.austinecc.org/volunteer to see available positions and to download the internship application.

Application Deadline: Monday, November 15th at 5 p.m.

Questions? Please email volunteer@austinecc.org.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND GRANTS

1. Lozano Long Summer 2011 Travel Grants
The deadline for summer 2011 travel grants for study abroad in Latin America, has been extended to November 18. These are $2,500 grants for study abroad in Latin America; students must bring back six semester hours of college credit from an accredited university in Latin America. It is early to be making these plans; the students do not have to know exactly where they are going yet, just that they are going. Below is the link to the application.

2. Hostelling International Southwest Texas Council Travel Scholarship
The Southwest Texas Council of Hostelling International USA presents its 2nd annual Travel Scholarship in the amount of $1000 to an individual who is just beginning his or her travel experiences in life. It is the goal of the Southwest Texas Council to encourage and promote the pursuit of world exploration and experiential learning (i.e. learning from direct life experiences) through this scholarship. The applicant’s abilities to learn from his or her unique real-world experiences and to share these experiences with HI-USA members, community members and other travelers upon returning from the trip play a large part in the selection process.

In addition to the $1000 award, the Travel Scholarship recipient will be given a Hostelling International-USA Membership (a $28 value). The $1000 will be split into two...
Boren Scholarships are funded by the National Security Education Program (NSEP), which focuses on geographic areas, languages, and fields of study deemed critical to U.S. national security. Boren Scholarships and Fellowships provide funding for U.S. undergraduate and graduate students to study the languages and cultures of Africa, Asia, Central & Eastern Europe, Eurasia, Latin America, and the Middle East.

The UT campus deadline for the undergraduate scholarship will be Tuesday, Jan. 4, 2011, by 5 p.m. More information http://www.borenwards.org

USEFUL MISCELLANY

1. Submitting to Plan2News
Plan2News is published on Tuesdays and Fridays during the semester for students currently registered in Plan II and others associated with Plan II who send their e-mail addresses to plan2newsletter@austin.utexas.edu

News items for the letter include announcements from the Plan II office and the Plan II Student Association, as well as performances and exhibits by Plan II students. Read the newsletter to learn about courses, registration, advising, job opportunities and special events. Personal and political announcements will not be published in the newsletter; and internships and job announcements should normally be sent to the Liberal Arts Career Services office, after which they may be considered for publication in the newsletter. Please keep in mind that although Plan2News enjoys a substantial and diverse readership, its circulation is still relatively small. It should not be relied upon as an employer's only means of advertising for a position, a group's only advertisement for an event, etc. To reach a wider audience, please use university-wide electronic and paper advertising outlets.
To place a news item in Plan2News, you must do the following, or your messages will not be included:
- Type your news item in the body of an e-mail to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu.
- In the subject line, write “Plan2News” exactly.
- Give the name of a contact person with phone number or email address.
- Provide an activity date or a deadline, whichever is appropriate.
- Do not use “we” or “I.”
Please write your submission in third person.
- Write in complete sentences and use correct grammar.
- News items will run until your deadline, or through two issues of the newsletter if no deadline is provided.
- The text of submitted newsletter items (including job and internship postings) must be fewer than 150 words, not including headline and contact information. Please edit your entries to this length before submission. An overly-lengthy entry will be returned to its sender and will not appear until this standard is met.
- Send your news item to planinewsletter@austin.utexas.edu
no later than 2:00 p.m. on Monday (for the Tuesday letter) or 2:00 p.m. on Thursday (for the Friday letter). The 2:00 p.m. deadline is final. Do not send your message to any other address.
No one else can approve news items for inclusion in the Plan II newsletter and no other address will be used to receive entries.
