1 hr (choose 1 of 2) --

*Summarize recent evidence concerning the consequences of marriage for the spouses' physical and mental health. Discuss the evidence concerning the social causation and selection explanations for the relationship between marital status and well-being.

*In most industrialized nations, women appear to be more religious (by virtually any conventional indicator) than men. Summarize and critique the relevant theories and evidence bearing on this issue, citing specific work where feasible.