

SPN 367P.2

Business in Hispanic Life and Cultures

Fall 2018

INSTRUCTOR: ORLANDO KELM
TTH 11-12:30PM
MEZ 1.212

This course will provide students with practical skills to identify and analyze the cultural issues that come up in interactions between North Americans and Latin Americans, both in professional as well as social situations. Students learn to analyze the cultural aspects of Latin American / North American interactions and current events using these models as foundation.

