Thanks to a man who some four hundred years ago was destined to write and play out the first performances of The Tempest, The Merchant of Venice,
and Hamlet,
I'm privileged to dedicate this 1983 summer of Shakespeare at Winedale
to my wife,

Barbara

on the occasion of our twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

*I do love nothing in the world
so well as you.*

Jim Ayres
presents

The Merchant of Venice
The Tempest
Hamlet, Prince of Denmark

by William Shakespeare

The Merchant of Venice will have an intermission of ten minutes.

The Tempest will have an intermission of ten minutes.

Hamlet will have two intermissions of ten minutes each.

Refreshments are available at intermission times. The audience is honored with a reception after each performance, our way of thanking you for sharing your summer with us.
CENTENNIAL SCHOLARSHIPS

The Barbara Ayres Centennial Scholarship, given by Jim Ayres. Recipient: Jennifer Jones.

The Friends of Winedale Centennial Scholarship, given by the generous contributors who enthusiastically support all phases of The Winedale Historical Center. Recipient: Mark Bouler.

The Hanson Tufts Parlin Centennial Scholarship, given by Mrs. Virginia Woodward Houghton, of Dallas, in memory of Professor Parlin, a distinguished teacher of English and Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, at The University of Texas at Austin, 1927-1950. Recipient: James Loehlin.

The Sylvia Betts Centennial Scholarship, given by Charles Betts to thank Sylvia for her encouragement, love, and support for a certain Shakespearean performer. Recipient: Tamsen Donner.

The Alec Rhodes Centennial Scholarship, given by his wife Charlotte, "without his knowledge or permission," to recognize his continued devotion to Shakespeare at Winedale. Recipient: John Rando.

The Angelene Zwernemann Centennial Scholarship, given by Jim and Barbara Ayres and ex-Shakespeare at Winedale students, to thank Angelene for thirteen years of delicious service to all of us. Recipient: Steve Price.

MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS

The Virginia Williams Scholarship, awarded to a woman in the class, in memory of a gentle lady whose presence, intelligence, and kindness inspired students during the early years of Shakespeare at Winedale. The 1983 Recipient: Susan Davis.

The Ima Hogg Scholarship, in memory of the First Lady of Texas who knew each student in the program until she died. She taught all of us much about politics (how to avoid them), theatre, Hamlet, painting, music, plants, buildings, and people. The 1983 Recipient: Kris Betts.

The Papa Wagner Scholarship, awarded to a man in the class, in memory of Mr. Lee Wagner, in whose hay barn Shakespeare has sounded himself for thirteen years. The 1983 Recipient: Clayton Stromberger.
DEDICATIONS

The following performances are dedicated to very special friends of Shakespeare at Winedale, with love.

I have very special thanks for Darrell Williams, fencing instructor at The University of Texas, for teaching us the craft of theatrical battle; for Kermit Meister, who not only assisted Darrell in the lessons but also made the armor for the Ghost in Hamlet; for Truman Breed, owner of Everett Hardware in Austin, who donated the fans we hope you will buy; for Charlotte Rhodes, whose enthusiasm expressed in ideas, brocade, laughter, and love I cherish; and finally, for Dorothy Rattey, the supreme secretary at The University of Texas, whose labors with my funding program and weakness for candy suggest that I should give her a day or two off next Christmas.
