THE SHAKESPEARE AT WINEDALE PROGRAM

Shakespeare at Winedale is an academic course offered through the College of Liberal Arts at The University of Texas at Austin. Students pursuing undergraduate or graduate degrees in any academic specialty and at any college or university are eligible to apply.

Students interested in the course are interviewed during the Spring semester, and final selections are made in late April. Once accepted, class members register for both summer terms at The University of Texas at Austin. During the first six-week period (roughly, from May 15-June 25), they study independently and in conference with Professor Ayres, preparing themselves through careful, critical, readings of the texts and through inquiries into dramatic history, criticism, and scholarship.

The second term is best known as Shakespeare at Winedale. For two months, students become lively members of a small farming community: Winedale. Each day, 15-18 hours a day, seven days a week, they study and perform Shakespeare’s plays in an old hay barn, the “great Globe” of Fayette County. They examine Shakespeare not in the traditional classroom manner but through performance.

This summer, Shakespeare at Winedale is 18 years old.

CLASS HONORS

In 1971, the Friends of Winedale began a tradition of “Class Honors” by establishing a scholarship to recognize the distinguished accomplishment of a student in the Shakespeare class. The Virginia Williams, Ima Hogg, and Papa Wagner Memorial Scholarships developed that tradition. Since that time, other generous people have made gifts to honor friends and loved ones, living and deceased. This year, the twelfth scholarship has been established, honoring the memory of Steven Stepan. The 1988 recipients of these special awards are:

THE FRIENDS OF WINEDALE SCHOLARSHIP .................................................. John White
THE VIRGINIA WILLIAMS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP .................................... Jennifer Vinson
THE IMA HOGG MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP .............................................. Stephanie K. Modlin
THE PAPA WAGNER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP ........................................ Robert J. Pelton

STUDENTS HONORS FOR LIFE MEMBERSHIP

In 1986, Lucy and Henry Wilkins, of Austin, began yet another tradition by making a gift to the endowment of Shakespeare at Winedale with the intent of making an ex-student a Life Member. Following the initiative of Lucy and Henry, four other such awards have been made. Ex-students presently entitled to the privileges of Life Membership in Shakespeare at Winedale are:

CLAIRE SABO (1985 - 87)
DOLLY BREKKE (1970 - 74)
JERALD HEAD (1974 - 76)
JOY HOWARD (1979 - 80)
JEFF LARSEN (1978; 80; 83)

THE NICK BOTTOM AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

In Shakespeare’s A Midsummer Night’s Dream, Nick Bottom is a craftsman — a weaver, who tells us quickly that he is “ready.” In the comedy, Nick Bottom plays just about every part, one way or another, taking enormous risks without even caring or knowing about them. He is the inspiration of his fellows, with a love for everyone and everything. He is homo ludens, man the player. Given annually, this is the most prestigious award at Shakespeare at Winedale. Last year’s recipients were John White, Robert Deike, Kirsten Kern, and David Ziegler. This year’s award will be announced at the class banquet, August 22.
DEDICATION

The first summer session, in early July, 1971, was dedicated to Miss Ima Hogg of Houston, Round Top, and Winedale.

The performances this year are dedicated to the memory of a student here for two summers.

Steven died in June, of complications arising from AIDS. He was 32.
We at Winedale remember Steven’s love for the play and for his colleagues.
We will miss his joie de vivre, his thunderous laugh and his wit.
He was indeed a

“fellow of infinite jest, of most excellent fancy.”

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, ROBIN MIZE

It is a special pleasure to welcome our very first assistant director of SHAKESPEARE AT WINEDALE. Robin was, in 1979, 80, and 83, a student in the class. She received her B.A. in English Literature from The University of Texas in 1981; her M.A. from The University of California, Santa Barbara, in 1986; and she has now advanced to candidacy in the doctoral program at Santa Barbara in Dramatic Theory and Criticism. For her distinguished work, she has been granted a Regents Fellowship for research on her dissertation. After Winedale, she will be joining her husband, Theodore Jacobson, in Washington, D. C.

This summer, while sharing other duties with Professor Ayres, Robin has directed improvisational work.

We can no other answer make but thanks,
and thanks

TWELFTH NIGHT

We have special thanks and high praise for friends in this community who have enriched our lives with their care-taking, love, and generous support of SHAKESPEARE AT WINEDALE. Our sincere thanks to Liz and Ronnie Klump, Angelene and Lloyd Zweynemann, Connie Wilder, and Elva and Royce Kelers for the outdoor suppers and to Sharon and Jack Mathis for the swimming party.

We want all of the staff at Winedale to know that we do not take them for granted, that: we realize how active they are in our work. We never tire of thanking our cooks, Angelene and Lorraine; the patient housekeepers, Barbara and Ruth; the groundskeepers, Ronnie, Percy, and Janice; the nightwatchmen, Bennie and Russell; the docents, Verlie, Dora, Dolores, Alice, Linda, Rhonda, Mary Dien, Joyce, and Vera; the cooks of the World Famous Hunter's Stew; and finally, Gloria Jaster, administrator of the Winedale Historical Center, who set everything in motion.

We also wish to acknowledge the assistance of "sweet sixteen" LaDonna Jaster, Kristina Klump, Norma Rudloff, and Barbara and Brent Smith at the receptions; and thank Carol Montgomery of Carmine, who made our sign in front of the Theatre; Professor and Mrs. Harlan Smith, for the honey; Betty Schatte, for the bell; Marilyn and Rollie Wagner, for the candy and gum; Paul Segersten, for teaching us massage; Barbara Ayres, for the race-walking clinic; Judy Mack, for sewing machines; King's Hobby Shop, Austin, for Yorek; Sandy and Gayle, Dorothy and Joanne, and Debbie at The University of Texas.

Thanks, too, to our Brenham friends: Thru the Lens One Hour Processing, for photo developing; The Pomegranate, for selling our T-shirts; Blue Bell Creamery for the tour and the ice cream; and Herrmann Print Shop for yet another splendid program.

The cover is by Jimmy Longacre, of Austin.
