Secunda Pastorum or
The Second Shepherd's Play

a medieval mystery play
by the Wakefield Master performed in ye olde medieval style in celebration of this Christmas season in the courtyard of Ye Round Top Inne.

on this the third day of December in the year of our Lord 1994
Shakespeare at Winedale, under the directorship of Professor Jim Ayres, will celebrate its 25th Anniversary this summer.

Acknowledgements
Sandy and Ted Reed of the Round Top Inn for providing us with room at the inn.
Cheryl and Chris Travis for the supper.
Delphine and Rosa Lee Hinze and Glenn and Esther Krause for the hay wagons.
Eugene Hall for the hay.
Bill and Frances Harris for the donkey.
Gloria Jaster for allowing us to stay at Winedale Historical Center.
The Round Top Mercantile for lending us equipment.

Dramatis Personae

First Shepherd, Coll............Anne Engelking
Second Shepherd, Gib........Madge Darlington
Third Shepherd, Daw.........Jon Watson
Mak, a country thief...........Mark Lovell
Jill, Mak's wife..............Virginia Rupener
The Sheep....................Robert Newell
Angel..........................Shanna South
Virgin Mary....................Kirsten Kern
Joseph.........................Clayton Stroooberger all are former students of Shakespeare at Winedale
In his debut performance:
Baby Jesus..................Tyler Logan Laumbright appears courtesy of his grandmother, JoAnn Moss of Round Top and parents Eric and Rachel Laumbright of Austin

Music on the Irish harp played by Susan Harwood Kaczmarczik of the U.T. English Dept. and her friend Thomas Grauver.
The first Noel the angel did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
In fields where they lay
keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter's night that was so deep
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel.
Born is the King of Israel.

They looked up and saw star
Shining in the east beyond them far,
And to the earth it
gave great light,
And so it continued both day and night.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel,
Born is the King of Israel.