Secunda Pastorum or
The Second Shepherds' Play

performed in ye olde medieval style in celebration of this Christmas season in the meadow of historic Henkel Square
on this the sixth day of December in the year of our Lord 1997.
Acknowledgements

Many Thanks To:

Junior & Essie Lee Fricke, Delphine & Rosa Lee Hinze, Cordell & Corine Levien, and Percy & Norma Rudloff for cooking the stew.
Delphine Hinze, Kirby Oltmann, and Fritz Schoenst for lending us the wagons.
Gene Hall, for lending us the hay and for answering our call every year, not with complaint but with enthusiasm and for a work ethic that gives more than we have asked for.
Francis Harris for lending us Launcelot & Guenevere (the donkeys).
Cory Sedlar for helping with the lights.
Jim Arnold, JoAnn Moss-Ayres, and The Texas Pioneer Arts Foundation, for inviting us to use the Henkel Square property as the setting for our play this year.
Nellie and Burnie Wolff for lending us the stew pot.
Marian Lundborg for leading our Christmas Carols.

The First Noel, the Angel did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
In fields where they lay
keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter’s night that was so deep.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel
Born is the King of Israel.

They looked up and saw a star
Shining in the East beyond them far,
And to the earth it gave great light.
And so it continued both day and night.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel,
Born is the King of Israel.
