THE SHAKESPEARE AT WINEDALE PROGRAM
Professor Jim Ayres, Founder/Director
Mary Madge Darlington, Assistant to the Director

SHAKESPEARE AT WINEDALE is an academic course, of six hours credit, offered through the Department of English at The University of Texas at Austin. Its purpose is to explore Shakespeare through performance. Students pursuing undergraduate, post-graduate, graduate, or professional degrees in any specialty or interest, at any college, university or professional school, are eligible to apply.

SHAKESPEARE AT WINEDALE requires 15 weeks of study and performance. During the first period of six weeks, students prepare themselves in an independent study-correspondence-conference course, reading the texts, source materials, and criticism. During the second period of nine weeks, students become lively residents of a small farming community: Winedale. For those two months, working at playing for 15-18 hours a day, they study in an old hay barn, the "great Globe" of Fayette County, Texas, finally performing for the public for four weeks in July and August.

Students are selected for the program through an application and interview process which begins January 15 and ends April 15. The final selections are announced on April 30. For applications, contact Professor Ayres, in the University of Texas Department of English, or write Shakespeare at Winedale, Parlin Hall 108, The University of Texas at Austin, TX 78712.

OUR FAN CLUB: SOME REALLY COOL PEOPLE

These really "cool" people have made possible the purchase of the evaporative cooling systems in the Theatre Barn. We hope they hear through our "we thank you" the voices of 26 years of students and audience, sighing relief. A special thanks to FRANCES HARRIS, Heart of my Heart Ranch, Round Top, for leading the funding effort.

THE RITES OF SUMMER SHAKESPEARE

Every year members of the audience ask why the students gather in a circle before the performance behind the barn, what goes on there, and why we don't have - never have had - "curtain calls" at the end. The "circle" developed before the very first summer performance in 1971, when I called everyone outside to tell them that the theatre was full and that since the audience had blocked our entrance paths, we had to change our staging. That was but five minutes before the play. I have a photograph of that moment, when Gail, Robert, Jackie, and Donald looked at one another in amazement. They took hands, suddenly realizing that they had formed a circle. They were quiet for several minutes, and then they walked into the theatre to perform, not knowing what they would encounter, how they would develop the play in the new situation. They were splendid. They may have done it out of fear. But they did it.

This ritual gathering of the players is a way of preparing for a journey through a world - where they pretend to be something they are not and you find belief in that - to the other side of the theatre. Their second encounter with you, at the reception after the play, is our version of the traditional "curtain call". The ending is another kind of sharing: we want to hear about your experience and we are generally not reticent in telling you of ours. We've been waiting for you since early June and are very happy you've come.

Welcome to our 27th summer.
- Jim Ayres
DEDICATION
We dedicate the 27th summer of SHAKESPEARE AT WINEDALE to J. HENRY WILKINSON, JR.
who with his Lucy entered our summer lives one July morning more than a decade ago to embrace everything we were and hoped to be, knowing before we knew how desperately we yearned for their care.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

For 27 years, we’ve found both in our immediate community and well beyond it, expressions of kindness, of genuine concern for what happens here every summer. You have touched our lives in ways well beyond your intent.

We trust that you will understand our first priority: food. thank you ANGELENE again and again, not only for the talent, care, and concern you bring to your job; but also for the things you do for us that are above and beyond the call of duty, like bringing us special treats. Thanks also to LORAINIE for her support.

Once again, GLORIA and her staff have helped us through the summer; GLORIA with reservations and the general organization of our enterprise; KAY and DELORIES in the office, RONALD and PERCY and JANICE in the field, and KAREL, our resident Puck, who appears magically before dawn ready to sweep our dust behind her door. Thanks also to DELORIES for bringing us her discoveries of wigs and gowns to add to our costume chest.

Special thanks to former student JEFF LARSEN, who calls each summer to find out what we need. This year, he fashioned two swords for us and some new armor and took time to come teach our students how to make more. Many thanks to DR. PATRICK CLEMONS, of La Grange Family Health Clinic, for his time and patience in healing us when we’re sick and for the phone consultations and the house call he made this summer. Thanks to former student SUSAN BAKER for picking up our make-up in San Antonio and bringing it and his merry self to us. Also, thanks to her and her husband GORDON BAKER, of Baker Signs and Designs in Georgetown for helping us with our banners yet again.

We greatly appreciate the visits from former students CLAYTON STROMBERGER of the Austin American Statesman and JAYNE NOBLE of the Dallas Morning News. Each spent a considerable amount of time with us, visiting with the students, commenting on our work, and inspiring us while writing thorough and thoughtful stories about the work and play we do here. And, they each bought us drinks and candy to boot.

Some very special people in Round Top showered us with gifts: Wendy and Gerry Beaver, Rose Crain, and Melanie and Steve Stringfellow with swimming; The Round Top Chamber of Commerce, with a welcoming dinner at Francis and Bill Harris Heart of my Heart; Wagner’s Woodcraft “cedar elves,” with the use of their shop; Round Top Cafe, with Sunday pies(!); Bethlehem Lutheran Church, with the fun and fellowship at their annual ice cream social; and all the folks at Round Top Mercantile, especially Betty, Gene, Leanne, and Michael. Thanks also to Karen Lanning, Steve Paulk, and Virginia for allowing Jeb the dog to perform with us. The Stringfells honored us with a swimmingly wonderful hamburger supper under Round Top stars.

Many thanks also to all of the former students who wrote letters to the class and sent contributions to the scholarship fund. And thanks to Shanna, Jon, and Patrick for the care packages. We received special treats from Austin: from ‘The Bagel Manufactory, a month of bagels for breakfast; from Ruta Maya, a month of gourmet coffee; from Texas French Bread, a host of baguettes for our weekly Italian fare.

At the University of Texas we’ve been assisted by the Department of English: Jim Garrison, Sally Gordon, Bill Weaver, Sally Partridge, Cecilia Smith-Morris, and Koin Davis.

Finally, many thanks to Tyler and Paxton’s grandmother, JoAnn, for her buying trips, for her concern about our health, for her patience, smile, and love.

THE CHRISTMAS “WISH LIST”

We sent our first “wish list” in November, 1993. Since we have never addressed funding for the special “operational” needs of new theatre lamps, postage, cooling the theatre, make-up, light bulbs, advertisement and printing costs and new cushions, we thought we’d try to catch you in the holiday spirit of giving. We did. A very special thanks here to our “Christmas Friends of 1996”.

THE FRIENDS OF SHAKESPEARE AT WINDELAL

O brave new world, that has such people in it!

SHAKESPEARE AT WINDELAL is alive and well today, vigorously approaching the 21st century because we’ve had the enthusiastic support, faithful audience, and generous giving of our Friends. From the beginning, we’ve met our scholarship and operating costs for the program through gifts from individual donors, (many of them former students) business, matching programs, and foundations.

Our funding program invites Friends to select a level of support comfortable to them:

LIFE BENEFICTOR $2000.00
(or four consecutive years at $600.00)
LIFE PATRON $1000.00
(or four consecutive years at $300.00)
PATRON $250.00
SUSTAINING MEMBER $100.00
ASSOCIATE MEMBER $50.00
CONTRIBUTING MEMBER $25.00

Life Benefactors and Life Patrons have the privilege of directing their gifts toward PERFORMANCE WEEK SPONSORSHIPS, HONORS FOR LIFE MEMBERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS or the GENERAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND. The PERFORMANCE WEEK SPONSORSHIP invites gifts to underwrite all expenses for public performance weeks. Each performance week requires $3,000.00. We offer three approaches: “Single Sponsorship” ($3000.00), “Joint Sponsorship” ($1500.00), and “Shared Sponsorship” ($1000.00). Privileges and directions of giving for the other categories are explained in the program.
DONORS TO THE SHAKESPEARE AT WINDEALE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

KING HENRY

We are very pleased to announce the gift of a new endowment:

THE LUCY AND HENRY WILKINSON

Henry's bequest is yet another of his generous gifts of friendship, of genuine concern for our learning experience, and love of performance. Henry hopes that others will come forward to join him in this new endowment effort. He is making ready the future of Shakespeare here, the 21st century, and he is excited, as we are, about the 30th anniversary and special reunion in August 2000.

LIFE BENEFICTORS

Through the imagination and bold initiative of Julia and Bill Bishop of Broomfield's B&B, Round Top, we've created a new, distinguished, level of giving for Shakespeare at Winedale. Julia and Bill have invited everyone to join them as "Benefactors", (especially Life Patrons, with an additional gift of $1,000.00). Our new Life Benefactors are:

Julia and Bill Bishop, Broomfield's B&B, Round Top, Tx
Mary Elizabeth Gillette, Houston, Tx
