Shakespeare at Winedale is an academic course, for six hours credit, offered through the Department of English at the University of Texas at Austin. Its purpose is to explore Shakespeare through performance, and it is open to students from any discipline, regardless of previous study or experience. Students in the course spend the summer at the Winedale Historical Center, working seven days a week in the old German hay barn that serves as our theatre. Their experience culminates with public performances in July and August. For the past four years, the students have gone on to England to continue their work there at the end of the summer. There is also a spring semester version of Shakespeare at Winedale offered as a three-hour course. For more information, please contact James Leehlin in the University of Texas Department of English, e-mail us at shakespeare-at-winedale@mail.utexas.edu, or write to Shakespeare at Winedale, Permit Hall 108, University of Texas, Austin, TX 78712-1164. Applications are available online at www.shakespeare-winedale.org.

The Shakespeare at Winedale Endowment

Shakespeare at Winedale began when Miss Ima Hogg suggested to Professor Jim Ayres that he might like to use the barn at Winedale for student performances of Shakespeare. From that beginning, Shakespeare at Winedale has grown into a full-time, year-round program involving a range of courses, performances and workshops. While the University provides salary and other support, Shakespeare at Winedale has always depended on private donations to cover student scholarships, operating costs, our educational outreach program, and our annual trip to England. In order to secure the future of this program, Founding Director Jim Ayres and Director James Leehlin are working with the College of Liberal Arts to develop a $2.6 million Endowment that will fund Shakespeare at Winedale in perpetuity.

Shakespeare and Education

For the past few years, Shakespeare at Winedale has been developing an Educational Outreach Program. This summer we are conducting our second annual ‘Shakespeare Day Camp’ for area children, culminating in scene performances at 11 a.m. on Saturday, July 27. Founding Director Jim Ayres has been working with Outreach teachers Clayton Stromberger and Dan VanHooran, giving these children a hands-on introduction to Shakespeare and performance. We are very grateful to the parents of these great kids, for their support at home, for driving the kids to the barn, and for helping to make the summer program a success.

International Exchange

For several years now, Shakespeare at Winedale has been actively involved with the education and performance of Shakespeare on an international level. This summer we will travel to England to study at the Globe and give a performance of Twelfth Night at the Orange Tree Theatre on August 25. If you or your friends will be in London at that time, please come and see us!

As a part of our international exchange, Shakespeare at Winedale will again host a special performance by Actors From the London Stage. On Saturday, October 5, these talented British Shakespeareans will perform Much Ado About Nothing in the Theatre Barn at Winedale. This performance will be the culmination of a one-week residency at the University of Texas, where the actors will be teaching, performing, and meeting with students. Please call early for reservations for this special event. For more information on the residency see http://www.en.utexas.edu/programs/shakespeare/sfla.html.

THE FRIENDS OF SHAKESPEARE AT WINEDEAL

Shakespeare at Winedale has depended, from the beginning, on the enthusiastic support and generous giving of our Friends. Since 1970, their gifts have funded the Scholarship Program, supporting not only our very existence (our meals and accommodations at Wagner House) but also, more recently, our study and performance in London. We thank the special people named below for their loyalty, their presence annually at performances, and for sharing and fostering our vision.
