Shakespeare at Winedale is an academic course, for six hours credit, offered through the Department of English at the University of Texas at Austin. Its purpose is to explore Shakespeare through performance, and it is open to students from any discipline, regardless of previous study or experience. Students in the course spend the summer at the Winedale Historical Center, working seven days a week in the old German hay barn that serves as our theatre. Their experience culminates with public performances in July and August. There is also a spring semester version of Shakespeare at Winedale offered as a three hour course. For more information, please contact James Loehlin in the University of Texas Department of English, e-mail us at shakespeare-at-winedale@mail.utexas.edu., or write to Shakespeare at Winedale, Parlin Hall 108, University of Texas, Austin, TX 78712-1164. Applications are available online at www.shakespeare-winedale.org.

Shakespeare at Winedale recently received a Challenge Grant of $200,000 from the National Endowment for the Humanities, to be matched four-to-one for a total endowment of $1 million. If you wish to help us to meet this challenge, please send your check made payable to the University of Texas and marked “In support of the NEH Challenge Grant CH-20923.” Send your tax-deductible contribution to the Development Office, GEB 4.306-G6300, UT, Austin, TX 78712, or call Clare Hudspeth in the College of Liberal Arts, (512) 471-8861. Help us meet the challenge and ensure that Shakespeare at Winedale is available for future generations!

For the past few years, Shakespeare at Winedale has been developing an Educational Outreach Program. This summer Founding Director James Ayres conducted our first Shakespeare summer camp, with sixteen elementary and middle school students from Austin, Houston and Fayette County. They spent two weeks at Winedale and at Dave and Denna Hardin’s bed and breakfast, A Light Unto My Path, and they performed a very special version of A Midsummer Night’s Dream.

With the very generous support of the Houston Endowment, we are undertaking a Shakespeare in the schools program in Austin for 2003-5. For more information on our educational programs, please contact James Ayres at jayres@cvtv.net or Clayton Stromberger at frayton@io.com.

For several years now, Shakespeare at Winedale has been actively involved with the education and performance of Shakespeare on an international level. This summer we will travel to England to study at the Globe and give a performance of Love’s Labour’s Lost at the Orange Tree Theatre on August 24. If you or your friends will be in London at that time, please come and see us!

As a part of our international exchange, Shakespeare at Winedale will again host a special performance by Actors

Dedication
The 2003 Season of Shakespeare at Winedale is dedicated to the memory of VALERIE VESCOVO

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The faculty and students of Shakespeare at Winedale wish to acknowledge, with many thanks, the special gifts from:

The staff of the Winedale Historical Center, especially the manager, Gloria; John, Elroy, Carol, Kara, Yancey, all the docents, and our wonderful cooks, Esther, Norma, Michelle, Linda, Patsy, and Angelene.

Dave and Denna Hardin, for exceptional help with the summer camp. Dallas Stobaugh, for her energetic work as camp counselor. Kevin Weyand, for helping us with the receptions. Dr. Eddie Clemons, for looking after our illnesses and injuries. Royer's for a special luncheon and Sunday pies. The folks at the Festival Hill Institute, for help with our gala.

Mark Metts, for undertaking a pilot project to bring air conditioning to the barn. Dave Hardin, Bill LePola, Tony Minter, and all the present and former students who helped build our new stage. Steve and Melanie Stringfellow, for July fourth fireworks and a swimming party, for support of the summer camp, and especially for providing housing for James and Laurel Loehlin. Wendy and Gerry Beaver, Mike and Penny Cies, and Rose Crain, for much-appreciated invitations to swim.

Bob and Maxine Lain, for inviting the class to dinner, and for Maxine's invaluable sewing help and Bob's gift of costume racks. At Round Top Mercantile, Eugene Hall and Betty Sacks, Alexander Cavalli, for voice training. Steve Price, for stage combat training. Clayton Stromberger, for much insightful advice. Jeff Larsen, for weaponry. Bill and Teresa Reynolds, for wonderful gifts to the students. And all the former students who served as audience for early performances and brought care packages to the class of 2003.

Our many supportive friends at the University of Texas, including President Larry Faulkner, Provost Sheldon Ekland-Olsen, Dean Richard Lariviere, Associate Dean Linda Ferreira-Buckley, Chair Jim Garrison of the English Department, liberal Arts development officers Clare Hudspeth and Becky Prince, and many helpful members of the staffs of the University, the College and the Department: Priscilla Ebert, Delene Ibarra, Mike Acuna, Ramona Van Loan, Cecilia Smith-Morris, Valerie Atwood, Lillie Anderson, and many others. And especially, our wonderful Program Coordinator, Clay Macr, for her constant support and tireless efforts.

Many thanks to our underwriters who helped to make possible our event, "A Midsummer Night at Winedale", Blue Bell Creameries and Mark and Lisa Metts. Also, thank you to the Endowment Advisory Group co-chaired by Mark Metts and Barbara Williams. Group members include Michael and Penny Cies (who donated the wine from the Round Top Wine Shop), Royce and Elva Keilers, Kirsten Kern, Mark and Lisa Metts, Judy and Dick Perkins, Eric Thomas and Laura Petersen, Peyton and Carolyn Townsend, and Barbara and Milt Williams. Barbara Williams provided the beautiful decorations. We also want to thank all those who sponsored tables and made donations to the silent auction, which Judy Perkins did a wonderful job organizing, with much help from Laurel Loehlin and JoAnn Moss-Ayres.

To Laurel and JoAnn, the most heartfelt thanks for their constant support, help and love.

Circles of Giving

As part of our effort to raise an endowment to provide permanent funding for Shakespeare at Winedale, we want to give special recognition to our long-time friends and major benefactors. Accordingly, we have three new giving levels to recognize cumulative contributions to the program. These are named for three Shakespearean theatres, the Rose, the Swan and the Globe. Using Shakespeare at Winedale records and University's, we have, to the best of our ability, researched all the donations in the 33-year history of Shakespeare at Winedale in order to recognize these special contributors. We invite all of our supporters to join this remarkable group of friends. Thank you very much for your continuing support of this program. We are here because of you.
