Shakespeare at Winedale is an academic course, for six hours credit, offered through the Department of English at the University of Texas at Austin. Its purpose is to explore Shakespeare through performance, and it is open to students from any discipline, regardless of previous study or experience. Students in the course spend the summer at the Winedale Historical Center, working seven days a week in the old German hay barn that serves as our theatre. Their experience culminates with public performances in July and August. There is also a spring semester version of Shakespeare at Winedale offered as a three hour course. For more information, please contact James Loehlin in the University of Texas Department of English, e-mail us at shakespeare-at-winedale@mail.utexas.edu, or write to Shakespeare at Winedale, 1 University Station B 5000, University of Texas, Austin, TX 78712-1164. Applications are available online at www.shakespeare-winedale.org.

The Shakespeare at Winedale Endowment

Shakespeare at Winedale recently received a Challenge Grant of $200,000 from the National Endowment for the Humanities, to be matched four-to-one for a total endowment of $1 million. If you wish to help us to meet this challenge, please send your check made payable to the University of Texas and marked “In support of the NEH Challenge Grant CH-20923.” Send your tax-deductible contribution to the Development Office, GEB 4.306-G6300, UT, Austin, TX 78712, or call Clare Hudspeth in the College of Liberal Arts, (512) 471-8861. Help us meet the challenge and ensure that Shakespeare at Winedale is available for future generations!

Shakespeare at Winedale Outreach

With the generous support of the Houston Endowment, Shakespeare at Winedale is undertaking a Shakespeare-in-performance program for elementary school children. We are conducting workshops at several schools as well as at UT, and participants perform every year at the spring Winedale Festival of Play. For more information, please contact Clayton Stromberger at leverstrom@earthlink.net.

The summer component of the Shakespeare at Winedale Outreach Program, Camp Shakespeare, is an intensive two-week in residence experience for young people, ages 10-13. This summer we held two such sessions, selecting 16 students from a field of 122 applicants. Students in the first session performed The Comedy of Errors. Students in the second, The Tempest. Camp Shakespeare is directed by Doc Ayres with the splendid assistance and camp counseling of Dallas Stobaugh, Sarah Bayne, and Zane Messina.

We wish to thank the following for their generous support of funding Camp Shakespeare '04: Bluebonnet Electric, Steve Drake, Betsy and Harry Harwood, Ginger and Bob Heath, Carol and Bink Gottlich, Round Top Mercantile, Round Top Rock Company, Round Top State Bank, The Outpost at Cedar Creek, Margaret Rolingson, Sanford Schmidt, Emma Lee Turney, Pearlie and Wayne Wagner.

International Exchange

At the end of the summer, Shakespeare at Winedale will once again travel to England for workshops and performances with the Globe Theatre and the Royal Shakespeare Company. We will perform at the Swan Theatre in Stratford-Upon-Avon at 7 pm on Sunday, August 22. We invite you to come and see us!

As part of our international exchange, we will again host a performance by Actors From the London Stage. On Saturday, September 25, these talented British Shakespeareans will perform A Midsummer Night’s Dream in the Winedale Theatre Barn. For information on this performance or the group’s weeklong residency in Austin, see http://www.en.utexas.edu/programs/shakespeare/aflds.html.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We wish to acknowledge, with many thanks, the special gifts from all those who helped make Shakespeare at Winedale possible in 2004:

The staff of the Winedale Historical Center, especially the manager, Gloria Jaster Hickey, who is retiring after many years of service, including the entire history of Shakespeare at Winedale. She is wonderful and irreplaceable. All of the other helpful people at Winedale, including Denise, Elroy, Bob, Carol, Kara, the docents, and the wonderful cooks, Esther, Norma, and Linda.

Dave and Denna Hardin, for their help with the summer camp. Kevin Weyand, for his tenth year staffing our receptions. Dr. Eddie Clemons, for medical assistance. Royer’s for Sunday pies. The folks at Festival-Institute, for inviting us to a wonderful concert.

Blue Bell and Mark Metts, for helping us to air-condition the barn. Mary Belle Rogers and Randy Ratner, for providing housing to James and Laurel Loehlin and swimming for the students. Steve and Melanie Stringfellow, for July fourth fireworks and a swimming party. Wendy and Gerry Beaver, Rose Crain, and Elva and Royce Keilers, for much-appreciated invitations to the class. Bob and Maxine Lain, for inviting us to dinner, and for Maxine’s remarkable sewing help. Alexander Cavalli, for voice training. Steve Price, for stage combat training and two beautiful broadswords. Clayton Stromberger, for bringing young people out to work with us, and providing valuable guidance. Jeff Larsen, our armorer and weapons master. Eugene Hall and Betty Sacks at Round Top Mercantile. Bill and Teresa Reynolds, for care packages to the students. And all the family members and former students who came to watch early performances and brought snacks and supplies.

Our many friends at the University of Texas, including President Larry Faulkner, Provost Sheldon Ekland-Olsen, Dean Richard Lariviere, Associate Dean Linda Ferreira-Buckley, Chair Jim Garrison of the English Department, Liberal Arts Development Officers Becky Prince and Clare Hudspeth, and many other helpful members of staff: Lauren Alexander, Priscilla Ebert, Delane Ibarra, Cecelia Smith-Morris, Valerie Atwood, Sondra Marks, and many others. Thanks as always to Clay Maer, our wonderful program coordinator, for her valiant help.

Many thanks to the sponsors and underwriters of our “Midsummer Night at Winedale” gala.
