Shakespeare at Winedale is an academic course, for six hours credit, offered through the Department of English at the University of Texas at Austin. Its purpose is to explore Shakespeare through performance, and it is open to students from any discipline, regardless of previous study or experience. Students in the course spend the summer at the Winedale Historical Center, working seven days a week in the old German hay barn that serves as our theatre. Their experience culminates with public performances in July and August. There is also a spring semester version of Shakespeare at Winedale. For more information, please contact James Lochlin in the UT Department of English, e-mail us at shakespeare-at-winedale@mail.utexas.edu, or write to Shakespeare at Winedale, 1 University Station B5000, University of Texas, Austin, TX 78712-1164.

35th Anniversary Season

This is the 35th year of Shakespeare at Winedale. Dr. James B. Ayres—Doc—began bringing his students to Winedale to perform Shakespeare in 1970, at the suggestion of Miss Ima Hogg. To commemorate the 35th anniversary season, Doc is gathering a company of ‘ancient actors,’ former students chosen from throughout the history of the program, to perform a program of scenes from a variety of plays, as the Winedale students did in the very first season. These students will be in residence in the last week of this summer’s season, and will perform on Saturday August 13 at 2 p.m.

This summer’s plays—A Midsummer Night’s Dream, The Taming of the Shrew, and Hamlet—are some of the most frequently performed in the history of the program. They are also the three plays of Shakespeare that deal most directly with “the purpose of playing,” and some of their scenes—the Induction of The Taming the Shrew, the craftsmen’s performance in Dream, and Hamlet’s advice to the players—are particularly relevant to the Winedale experience. The two comedies are performed without any cuts or alterations to the text; we have made some cuts to Hamlet, Shakespeare’s longest play.

Shakespeare at Winedale Outreach

With the generous support of the Houston Endowment, Shakespeare at Winedale is undertaking a Shakespeare-in-performance program for elementary school children. We are conducting workshops at several schools as well as at UT, and participants perform every year at the spring Winedale Festival of Play. For more information, please contact Clayton Stromberger at cstromberger@mail.utexas.edu.

The summer component of the Shakespeare at Winedale Outreach Program, Camp Shakespeare, is an intensive two-week residential experience for young people, ages 10-13. This summer we held two such sessions. Students in the first session performed A Midsummer Night’s Dream; students in the second, As You Like It. Camp Shakespeare is directed by Doc Ayres with the splendid assistance and camp counseling of Dallas Stobaugh and Kendle Wade. For information on Camp Shakespeare, please contact James Ayres at jayres@cvtv.net.

International Exchange

At the end of the summer, Shakespeare at Winedale will once again travel to England for workshops and performances with the Globe Theatre and the Royal Shakespeare Company. We will perform A Midsummer Night’s Dream at the Swan Theatre in Stratford-Upon-Avon at 7:30 pm on Sunday, August 28. We invite you to come and see us!

As part of our international exchange, we will again host a performance by Actors From the London Stage. On Saturday, October 1, these talented British Shakespeareans will perform Twelfth Night in the Winedale Theatre Barn. For information on the group’s weekend residency in Austin, see http://www.utexas.edu/cola/depts/english/programs/Shakespeare/aftls.html.

To make reservations for the Winedale performance October 1, please call (979)249-3530.
